

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Manhattan

Is honored to be hosting Rev. Lt. Col. Peter Bauer as he discusses PTSD, TBI and spiritual healing. Rev. Bauer will be in Manhattan to explain how we as a community can help returning veterans cope with the stresses of combat through spiritual healing.

WHEN: Saturday January 21 and Sunday January 22, 2012; Rev. Bauer will be presenting 3 lectures on Saturday: Spiritual Issue and Combat Stress, Current and future treatment interventions for PTSD, and Current Interventions for TBI: Symptoms of Depression and Anger

The lecture series will take place between 0800 and 1430, with a light lunch being served from 1130 to 1230. Lunch will be at no cost, though donations will be accepted to help cover the cost.

On Sunday Rev. Bauer will be heading the fellowship service with his sermon entitled, “What Comes After the Beer, Pizza, and Sex”. The fellowship service begins at 1045 and last for 1 hour.

WHERE: The Manhattan Unitarian Universalist Fellowship is located 481 Zeandale Road. From Manhattan head south on KS-177 toward I-70, then turn left on Zeandale Road. The Fellowship is about 1/2 mile down the road.

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN ATTENDING THE SATURDAY LECTURE SERIES, PLEASE RSVP TO THE EMAIL ADDRESS RYAN.MYHRE@GMAIL.COM. SPACE IS LIMITED TO 115 PARTICIPANTS.