

SEPTEMBER 2008 PROGRAMS

SEPTEMBER 7 "UNITARIANISM: ITS QUEST FOR ESOTERIC TRUTH"

Reverend Michael Nelson reflects, "In the 19th Century many Universalists sought knowledge of the world beyond the veil. They wanted to know how the invisible had the power to impact what could be seen. While some of this led to parlor tricks, at its core there was a genuine attempt to understand the mysteries of life. How open are we to what we do not know?" Contact Michael at (913) 261-2626 or minister@uufm.net

SEPTEMBER 14 "DROPPING OUR NETS, FOLLOWING OUR CALL"

Janie Stein and Marty Bates, musicians and peace activists from Salina, join us to discuss their peace work--including work with Christian Peacemakers Teams--and why they do it. Contact Scott Tanona at 537-6208 or stanona@sbcglobal.net

Following the service, our Social Committee will serve a PANCAKE BRUNCH. Please see page 4 of this newsletter to learn more.

SEPTEMBER 21 "HOW A TREE TEACHES"

Reverend Michael Nelson muses, "Earth based religions do not forget the intimate relationship between mind, body, spirit, community, animal life, earth, sky ... How do we honor the wisdom that rises from these traditions when so much of our life is stuck inside?" Michael may be contacted at (913) 961-2626 or minister@uufm.net

After the service at 12:15 pm, the video "UNITARIAN UNIVERSALISM: AN HERETICAL HISTORY" will be shown followed by discussion. Join us!

SEPTEMBER 28 "AMERICAN DREAMS, POLITICAL REALITIES"

John Exdell describes this program, "We may sense a link between ending racial inequalities in the United States and the hope for a more just nation and peaceful world. It may help if we compare the Obama who wrote Dreams from My Father thirteen years ago and the man running for President today. The striking difference reveals much about race in American society and politics and what it will take to create a more just world after this election." Contact John at 539-6076 or jbx@ksu.edu

During my study leave I meditated on innocence. The word innocent rises from its Latin root innocens, meaning not to harm or hurt. Before it reached modern English it branched from Old French to Middle English to the word we use today. I know I say things unintentionally that can cause harm or hurt someone. Sometimes I respond bluntly to get through to someone who is unwilling to or cannot understand my truth. When I react from frustration, or anger, or am obtuse, regret often invades, clouding my energy.

I wonder why some people age without losing their sense of play; a curiosity which keeps them opening to new approaches, experiences and people. I began to notice in my 30's how many once adventurous people had settled into a predictable pattern, living in a closed system which cut off most new possibilities for exploration, ways of being. While this may be the result of maturing, much of it has to do with our culture and its lock-step patterns/expectations of how it looks to be successful, and a formidable fear of failure. Success is great as long as striving to achieve does not harm and hurt.

The study of flow in psychology measures that state of being when you know you are in the right place, at the right time, doing the right thing. In this focused zone obstacles thrill with tension that releases a heightened creativity and coherence. In this space you forget time and no worry plagues. Essential energy propels you into a personal space that simultaneously expands and concentrates. We see flow in children who move freely into realms of creativity; for whom play comes naturally.

The need for the resources to house, clothe and feed oneself and family often oppresses the capacity for the innocence necessary to be in a state of flow. Needing to earn a living can bear down on one's energy leaving little room for play. The constrictions of an aging body may make it impossible to skip into a rhythm that opens to the world of play. When I see a teenager spring up a flight of stairs like a kangaroo I wonder what happened to that zest, that vigor, that zoom... (Playing ping-pong with Dick Beeman or engaging in a free wheeling conversation with Jeune Kirmser restores these qualities!)

Elmer Green, in his 90's, has the inquisitiveness, and the agile imagination of a bright and pure child. Known by many as a father of biofeedback, he has a PHD in physics from the University of Chicago, and worked as a scientist for many years at Menningers. His primary goal, to be of service to humanity, energizes his being so that age, while it imposes its limitations, brings freedom. Regret does not impede his flow. One senses innocence at play as he gives himself to helping others do the same. His spirit of adventure zooms.

Unitarian Universalists have given their lives to live freely. May each of us give our lives to what releases the brio that aids ourselves and others to strive for their highest good without hurting or harming anyone.

Michael

A Final Note:

I am honored to have known Ben Sachs who recently died. Our visits at Meadowlark revealed a man with a quick, discerning mind and a deep love for his family. I will miss him and wish his family well as they learn to live without him.

A NEW YEAR IN RE ...

As another school year begins in our Religious Education program, exciting changes are in the air. At our 2008 Annual Meeting in April, following in-depth discussion, the congregation approved a plan to recruit and hire a 1/2 time Director of Religious Education (DRE), expanding our Fellowship staff. Parents, RE volunteers, Board officers, staff, and congregational members and friends have since put in many hours determining the needs and desires of the congregation's adults and students.

The Executive Board approved a preliminary job description, and advertisement for the position, which were developed over the summer, and the DRE Search Committee will begin interviewing applicants in September. The committee will focus on candidates whose philosophy is in harmony with the fundamental principles of UUism, and who will enhance volunteers' efforts while working in close concert with our RE Committee, Executive Board, minister, and parents. Learn more about the hiring process from DRE Search Committee chair Carolyn Ferguson at 776-6495 or dresearch@uufm.net

THANK YOU for your support of exciting new opportunities for the children of our congregation, and the future growth and expansion of Religious Education at UUFM.

SPECIAL RE FUNDING

A Special RE fund was started in May to help cover some of the costs of hiring and maintaining an RE Director. WORDS FROM OUR CHAIR

Dear Fellowship Members and Friends,

It seems like the summer went by more quickly than ever. Students are back to school and university and so are their teachers. Hope that everybody had a good summer with at least some time for relaxation and change of pace.

The Board met on August 14 with a full agenda. As usual, the minutes of the previous month provided by our Secretary, Terri Franz, were approved and the Treasurer's report, presented by Mark Mayfield, was also accepted. We briefly discussed a projected budget shortfall of about $4,500. No measures were taken at this time. Pledges are still welcome.

Dick Beeman, Member at Large, gave a report on behalf of the DRE Task Force under the leadership of Carolyn Ferguson. They have established a timeline for meetings, application deadline, and interviews for a DRE. The results of their labor will have a big impact on the future of the Fellowship life.

Communications Committee Chair, Dan Swenson, presented the goals of the committee which include to communicate to the community the values of UUFM and to welcome people to UUFM. Among other things, the ever-increasing possibilities of communicating through the Internet and blogs were explained to the less technically savvy. The committee will also use resources provided through the UUA and other Fellowships in the area.

Facilities Chair, Mark Moser, discussed the current and future work of the Facilities Committee which includes building and grounds maintenance and improvements in the short and long-term, aesthetics, parking, Memorial Garden, and, last but not least, the workday scheduled for Saturday, September 6. Please plan to give some of your time to keep our facilities clean and in good condition.

The next Board meeting will take place on September 11. All Fellowship members and friends are invited to attend.

The PSD Fall Conference will take place on September 19 and 20 in Des Moines, Iowa, with sessions for chairs, chairs-elect, leadership skills, treasurers, membership, volunteerism, and spirituality. Please let me know if you would like to attend any of these sessions or if you have any questions or concerns about the Fellowship life.

Elke Lorenz

UUFM Executive Board Chair

Contact Elke at 539-3527 or ellorenz@uufm.net

EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING

The Executive Board meets on Thursday, SEPTEMBER 11, at 7 pm in the old sanctuary. Members and friends of the Fellowship are welcome and encouraged to attend. To learn more, contact Executive Board Chair Elke Lorenz at 539-3527 or ellorenz@uufm.net

FOLKS AT THE FELLOWSHIP

This month, our Welcoming and Membership Committee resumes the popular "Folks at the Fellowship" column. Members and friends who would like to share their story are encouraged to contact committee coordinator Jo Maseberg-Tomlinson, at (330) 592-2085 or jo.maseberg@gmail.com

RACHELLE "CHELLE" SANTIAGO comes to the Fellowship from a background of unusual circumstances. She was adopted as an infant and grew up primarily Lutheran with a few Baptist teachings mixed in. As a clinical social worker, Rachelle has spent over 20 years working primarily with children, families, and mental health. She is especially drawn to the open, welcoming nature of the Fellowship, as well as to the freedom the Fellowship provides from dogma and narrow views of understanding ourselves and the cosmos. She appreciates the encouragement provided by the Fellowship to search for her own meanings and enjoys the way in which the Fellowship embraces differences. Rachelle is married to Richard and they have two daughters, Mercedes, 15, and Dakota, 10. They have attended the Fellowship for the past two years.*

SUNDAY COFFEE PROVIDERS

Sept 7: Bernd and Enell Foerster
Sept 14: Ann Root and Angela Hayes
Sept 21: Harriette Janke
Sept 28: Anne and George Marchin

THANK YOU to our refreshment providers! Volunteers make coffee, serve a simple snack, and clean up afterwards. A sign up sheet is posted on the bulletin board in the kitchen. To learn more, contact Betty Banner at 776-1887 or bettybanner@gmail.com, or Gwen Geiselman at 776-4505.

COFFEE HOUR CHANGES

The Sunday coffee hour is an important part of our Sunday meetings, enabling members and friends to socialize, and newcomers and visitors to meet us informally. Coffee and a light snack have been part of this social time throughout the history of the Fellowship. Given the present size of our congregation and the average Sunday attendance, it has become expensive to be a coffee host. We are ENCOURAGING HOSTS TO CUT BACK, and recommending that no more than two, or at most three, simple food items be provided in the future.

SUNDAY MORNING GREETERS

Sept 7: Sarah Nuss-Warren
Sept 14: Kathleen Oldfather
Sept 21: Terri Franz
Sept 28: Emily and George Ross

Sunday greeters provide an invaluable service to the Fellowship by sharing a smile, encouraging visitors to sign our guest book, and creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere. To learn more, ask Mary Westfall at 539-5397 or westyks@interkan.net
