MARCH 2010
VOLUME 48, ISSUE 10

MARCH 2010 PROGRAMS

MARCH 7 "KONZ--FLINT HILLS COMMUNITY RADIO"

Christopher Renner and Linda Teener present a program focusing on the new community radio station, KONZ--Flint Hills Community Radio. They will explore what is a community radio station, citizen journalism, and how members of the congregation can become involved in this project. Learn more at www.konzfm.org. Contact/convener is Christopher Renner at 341-9459 or rennerchristopher@yahoo.com

MARCH 14 "WHERE DO WE COME FROM?"

We can easily fall into the habit of doing things a certain way without ever questioning why we do them or how the habit came to be. In our history we find trends just as surely in our congregations as in our lives. Join lifelong Fellowship member Eric Banner as he looks at how the spread of Unitarianism and Universalism in the Great Plains has shaped our, and other, congregations. Contact Eric at 776-7649 or banner.eric@gmail.com

MARCH 21 "THE WHOLE WORLD IS A SINGLE FLOWER (BUT WE LIVE IN KANSAS)"

When you think of Zen Buddhism, you may imagine monks with shaved heads, completely detached from material reality. But Nirvana is as close as the nose on your face. All we have to learn to do is pay attention. Christina Hauck joins us to explain this point using stories, and to teach some simple meditation techniques for relaxing and focusing the mind. Christina has been practicing Buddhism for twenty years, most recently as Senior Dharma Teacher in the Kwan Um School of Zen. She is co-founder of the Tallgrass Zen Group. Contact/convener is Alley Stoughton at 341-3041 or alley.stoughton@gmail.com

MARCH 28 "ROBERT FROST AND THE DARK WOODS OF EXPERIENCE"

Reverend Charles Stephen, Minister Emeritus of the Lincoln Unitarian Church delivers a sermon about the poet and his verse. This service is dedicated to the memory of long-time member, Evelyn Frazier, who taught us and generations of her students to love and appreciate poetry's capacity for deepening our understanding of life's many mysteries. Contact/convener is Michael Oldfather at 537-3738 or mou812@ksu.edu

THOUGHTS FROM THEA - REV THEA NIETFELD, FEBRUARY 15, 2010

At least for me, travel nourishes the spirit and broadens the mind. This Spring Break, I'll be meeting my son and daughter-in-law in Paris and then spend a week retreating at the southern France Buddhist center, Plum Village. Conscious of inevitable logistic hassles, I'm intending to immerse in beauty and family care.

Even though I won't be present at the Fellowship much this month, please know that before and after Spring Break (March 10 thru 22), I'm available to you by phone or e-mail: 323-7177 or thean@uufm.net. My regular office hours follow Sunday services when I'm preaching.

No matter where this early spring finds you, please be nourished by life's beauties and care,

Thea

To schedule your session, go to the Fellowship's Wiki, at www.uufm.net/wiki/. Click on the "directory photo signup" link, and fill in a convenient time slot. There is absolutely no obligation to purchase prints.

RE NEWS

REFLECTIONS - MARIA SNYDER, DRE, FEBRUARY 26, 2010

February has been a month full of snow and icy cold weather. The teens did a service about love songs. We had lots of fun planning it, including the last minute rewrite so that I could save my voice. It also meant lots of illness in my house, first Rayna, then me, a week out of school for each of us do to bronchitis.

March tells me that spring is right around the corner. The ground will start to thaw and plants and flowers will grow. The kids will want to play outside again. It also means the end of the school year will be here before we know it. I am already marking days on the calendar like the end of the curricula year, meaning it's time to think about summer RE. As usual we will be looking for guest teachers to help us in our UU Travelers series. This summer will be especially important as guest teachers you may decide that you like being in RE and that you want to spend more time in the classroom. We are losing some teachers at the end of this year and we would really like to see your smiling face in RE next year.

If you are interested in teaching this summer, helping out at teen movie nights, or assisting in the RE classrooms as a helper or a teacher, please let me know. If you think it something you might be interested in please come see me during my office hours or send me an email.

Watch for a survey this month, as I will be trying to find out how to best facilitate parent conferences.

Maria

RE NEEDS YOU!

Our RE students are a vital part of our Fellowship, now and in the future, and we hope adult mentors of all life stages will consider sharing with our kids. Tweens and teens need teachers, to guide their music-based curriculum "Listening Between the Lines," where we consider ideas about UU identity while listening to popular music from the past five decades. Volunteer for one Sunday, or a few. You'll receive information on the curriculum, a huge selection of musical titles, and all the assistance you require.

We also need teachers and helpers in the K-2nd grade classroom (one Sunday a month or as you are available), as well as teachers to occasionally fill in at all grade levels (when regular volunteers are out of town or sick). A training class will be available for new teachers and volunteers.

Learn more from Maria Snyder at 537-2349 or dre@uufm.net or drop in during Maria's posted office hours (in rose box at right).

TEENS - POPCORN THEOLOGY

Teens, tweens, and parents are invited to join us for Popcorn Theology every other Friday, at 6 pm. Movies are contemporary selections, evoking introspective thought, and stimulating discussion of ethical and moral behavior in everyday life. Recently viewed films have included Willow, The Fellowship of the Rings, Field of Dreams, and Contact.

We meet at 6 pm, in the Inez Alsop room (old sanctuary). On Friday MARCH 5, we'll watch Laramie Project, and on Friday, MARCH 19, we'll view Contact. Learn more from Maria Snyder at 537-2349 or dre@uufm.net

FAITH HOPE LOVE

Eat at SIRLOIN STOCKADE on the Third Tuesday each month. Sirloin Stockade will donate a generous part of the cost of your meal to Shepherd's Crossing to assist families with rent, utilities, or prescription medication. Give this coupon and your receipt to the cashier at Sirloin Stockade on Tuesday any time after 11 am.

Oh, the promise of spring. No other topic, other than love, dominates our music, poetry, literature and longings more than spring. Is it any wonder than spring and love go together? Spring means reawakening from the cold, dark days of winter, promising the heat and lazy days of summer. It is time to get out the garden catalogs, kick the snow piles in the back yard, think about spring cleanup, tune up the fishing pole. But, it is also about making preparations for a renewed cycle in our Fellowship. Here at UUFM, we contemplate next year's budget, new leaders, new committees and plans for next year's activities together. That's also what spring means: annual meeting next month and a new year beginning June 1. As the days grow longer, the crocus and daffodils peek above ground, and as the temperatures moderate, let's think about our Fellowship's new cycle of bringing liberal religion to our community.

HELPING HANDS APPLICATIONS

The UUFM Social Action Committee invites organizations that would like to be considered as a recipient for one of our monthly Helping Hands Sunday collections to make application for selection.

Applications are available at www.uufm.net/index.php?pr=Social_Action, or go to our home page at www.uufm.net and click on the "Social Action" button on the left side of the page. Organizations will be notified of their selection status by the end of May.
