MAY 2 "INTERGENERATIONAL SERVICE: FAMILY"

Who is, and what is, a family? We will read stories and tell personal stories of what family means to different people. Contact Director of Religious Education Maria Snyder at 537-2349 or dre@uufm.net

MAY 9 "MOTHER'S PLACE IN THE WEB"

Reverend Thea Nietfeld reflects, "In our religious forebear Theodore Parker's era, there was a sentimental cult of motherhood. What about today--when evolution and interdependence of everything has brought mothers down to earth?" Contact Thea at 537-2349 or thean@uufm.net

MAY 16 "FAMILY MINISTRY"

Join Reverend Phil Lund as he discusses Family Ministry. What is it, and how do we achieve it? We will also take some time to recognize the teachers who have encouraged our children's spiritual growth this year. Contact/convener is Maria Snyder at 537-2349 or dre@uufm.net

MAY 23 "THE MOUSE WHO FLEW"

Reverend Thea Nietfeld muses, "Facing fear and facing death are part of spiritual development. Noting the holiday to honor those who have died, let's also honor the risk-taking needed to grow." Contact Thea at 537-2349 or thean@uufm.net

MAY 30 "HIGH PRIESTESS OF SOUL"

Fellowship member Jessie Freyermuth shares some of her work on the High Priestess of Soul, Nina Simone. UUUFM is a WELCOMING CONGREGATION

Learn more about the Welcoming Congregation initiative at www.uua.org/visitors/justicediversity/6252.shtml

I introduced myself publicly as UUFM's community minister for the first time on March 24 at a SafeZone training at the K-State Union. Along with Rev David Jones and Rev Erich Schwarz, I facilitated a workshop on inter-faith dialogue as a model for safe discussion of religious difference. UUFM members Maria Snyder and Molly McGaughey were important contributors to the conversation. I hope we can present the program again in the fall.

There must be dozens of such projects happening each month--as each of us lives out our faiths and are accountable to our common religious heritage of congregational and community engagement. I wonder how we can collect reports and photos to display and inspire each other ...

Thank you for the opportunity to preach a little while Michael Nelson was on sabbatical. He'll be back for June.

Thea

IN MEMORIAM ...

A dear and longtime friend of the Fellowship, BROCK DALE, passed away on Friday afternoon, April 23, 2010. Born December 15, 1918, Brock and his wife Bettie McSpedden Dale, who passed away in 2007, became members of the then Unitarian Fellowship of Manhattan in 1957, just a few weeks after our founding. He gave his friendship, wisdom, music, and care to the Fellowship throughout our 50 plus years of growth and evolution, in times both lean and rich.

We remember Brock with love and gratitude for his presence in so many lives. Memorial services are pending and will be announced when plans are finalized.

CARING FOR OUR SOLDIERS

UUFM has two deployed soldiers--Julio Torres and Randy Hagin--serving in Iraq right now. While Randy will be back home on leave shortly, Julio has many months to go before he returns. The UUFM Membership and Welcoming Committee is coordinating a care package for Julio and we need your contributions.

A list of items generally appreciated by deployed soldiers, and one or two things specifically requested by Julio, follows. Bring a few items with you on Sunday, MAY 2, and leave them in the collection box, located on the information table, next to the main door in the narthex. Please note, it takes about two weeks for items to get from here to there, and it's getting hot, so things that melt are discouraged as are things that will go bad during that time. Please, no glass containers.

- chips
- breakfast bars
- small bottles of orange juice
- small cans of V8 juice
- jerky (beef, turkey, buffalo, etc)
- used DVDs
- personal cards or letters
- magazines - including gaming magazines
- books on Unitarian Universalism
- soap
- baby wipes
- tissues
- sunscreen
- lip balm
- homemade cookies and other baked goods
- powdered drink pouches (Kool-Aid and Countrytime make boxes of individual pouches to pour directly into water bottles)

RE NEWS

REFLECTIONS - MARIA SNYDER, DRE, APRIL 22, 2010

As May approaches there is much to report in the world of RE. May 2 we will have another Intergenerational Sunday, and I will shake it up again as we examine what determines family. Then on May 15 and 16, Phil Lund will help us consider ministry through generations with a workshop on Multigenerational Ministry [see page 5], and the service on Family Ministry on Sunday. We will take some timeout of that service to appreciate the teachers who have helped our children grow spiritually this year. This 3rd Thursday, we will offer an Open House for parents to see a presentation of what the kids learned this year, and to talk about the summer program and what is coming up in the next year. See you there.

The teens will continue with the afterlife theme on Friday, May 14, with The Five People You Meet in Heaven [see Popcorn Theology, at right]. We have had great discussion and the teen group keeps growing. It's an active group that would welcome some new energy. So, if you know tweens and teens that might be interested, send them our way, or stop in yourself and spend an evening with a movie and popcorn and our amazing youth group.

We are actively looking for guest teachers for this summer's Postcards from UUFM. If you went somewhere last year, I may be asking you if you could come in and teach. We always have helpers and would be glad to give you a hand in deciding what activities you might do. If you have an idea of something you'd like to teach, let me know and I will get you on the schedule.

I am off to the PSD Annual Conference "Roots and Wings." Look forward to a presentation opportunity when I get back. I am very excited about what I will learn. The workshops look amazing!

Don't forget June 6 will be our annual Bon Voyage Party, which kicks off to the summer RE program. It's always tons of fun.

Maria

RE OPEN HOUSE!

RE students and parents are invited to our first ever RE Open House coinciding with this month's Third Thursday Supper at 6 pm, on MAY 20. We hope all parents will be able to join us to see a presentation of what the kids have learned this year. We'll also talk about the summer Postcards from UUFM program and explore plans for the coming year.

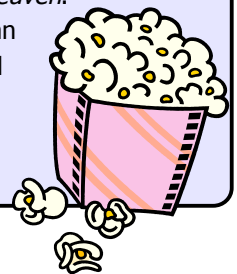

Learn more from Maria Snyder at 537-2349 or dre@uufm.net or drop in during Maria's posted office hours (in rose box at right).

TEENS - POPCORN THEOLOGY

Teens, tweens, and parents are invited to join us for Popcorn Theology on scheduled Friday evenings. Movies are contemporary selections, evoking introspective thought, and stimulating discussion of ethical and moral behavior in our own lives. Recently viewed films have included Willow, The Fellowship of the Rings, and Defending Your Life.

We meet at 6 pm, in the Inez Alsop room (old sanctuary). On Friday, MAY 14, we'll watch The Five People You Meet in Heaven.

Invite your friends and spend an evening with a good movie and popcorn. Learn more from Maria Snyder at 537-2349 or dre@uufm.net

Non-perishable FOOD is most needed at this time. Contributions may be placed in the box decorated by RE students in the southwest corner of the narthex. Crossing
FAITH HOPE LOVE

Eat at SIRLOIN STOCKADE on the Third Tuesday each month. Sirloin Stockade will donate a generous part of the cost of your meal to Shepherd's Crossing to assist families with rent, utilities, or prescription medication. Give this coupon and your receipt to the cashier at Sirloin Stockade on Tuesday any time after 11 am.

As I began the year as Chair of the UUFM Board, I did not fully appreciate the scope of what we do collectively and what you do individually to bring liberal religion to Manhattan and to help make the community a better place. As Eric Banner pointed out last Sunday, our congregational model of "shared ministry" is a good one, as it lets no one sit back and be ministered to. We are each part of the ministry as we find niches where we can serve in some meaningful way. The list of community service projects for UUFM is large; our people and dollars are "out there" in many agencies that serve those who are less fortunate. We are reminded that the most successful Unitarian Universalist groups (Fellowship, Church, et al.) are those with the most active community outreach programs.

I came to be Chair this year without a personal agenda, except to enable each of you and UUFM as a whole to achieve success with our programs including, Sunday programming, religious education, social justice outreach, and the kind of social and caring things that only we can give to each other. I am satisfied that each of us has ministered successfully in ways that only a shared ministry can achieve.

Brice Hobrock, UUFM Executive Board Chair

Contact Brice at 776-3175 or bhobrock@uufm.net.

EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING

The Executive Board meets Thursday, MAY 13, at 7 pm, in the Inez Alsop all-purpose room (old sanctuary). Interested members and friends are invited to attend and observe the proceedings. Learn more from Board Chair Brice Hobrock at 776-3175 or bhobrock@uufm.net

MULTI-GENERATIONAL MINISTRY WORKSHOP

The UUFM Religious Education (RE) Committee has arranged a workshop to be led by Reverend Phillip Lund, Prairie Star District Lifespan Program Director. The workshop will meet during the afternoon on Saturday, MAY 15, in the Fellowship's Inez Alsop room.

Reverend Lund has a long history with the Prairie Star District (PSD) and the Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations (UUA). He has led numerous workshops designed to guide participants through the planning and organization of child friendly services, and much of his work over the years has focused on inter-generational cooperation and interaction within our congregations, benefiting all members both young and older.

Additional details about the workshop, as well as exact time, and any registration requirements will be announced as the information becomes available. Learn more from Maria Snyder at 537-2349 or dre@uufm.net

WELCOMING AND MEMBERSHIP/SOCIAL MEETING

The recently combined Welcoming and Membership/Social Committee meets following the Sunday, MAY 23, service in the Inez Alsop room to prepare for the coming year and plan the upcoming Bon Voyage Party / Welcoming Reception on June 4.
