MAY 2011
VOLUME 49, ISSUE 12

MAY 2011 PROGRAMS

MAY 1 "FACETS OF WELLNESS"

Kate Cashman works to make the world a better place to live one body at a time. In Manhattan she has taught exercise for 25 years, practiced massage therapy for 20 and JinSin-Jitsu, a gentle art of healing, for 13. She will explore with us how to bring wellness to many aspects of living. Contact/convener is Michael Nelson at 537-2349 or minister@uufm.net

MAY 8 "THE GREAT MOTHER"

Reverend Michael Nelson reflects, "The Tao claims she is empty yet inexhaustible; gives birth to infinite worlds. She is always present within you and you can use it any way you want. How does this vision of the eternal help us to understand motherhood from its most exhausting to exhilarating and the tension between?" Contact Michael at 537-2349 or minister@uufm.net

MAY 15 "LIFE, THE UNIVERSE, AND EVERYTHING"

Over the last ten or fifteen years we have learned quite a lot about the universe that is really new. This has led to a now "standard model" of the evolution of the universe. This talk is a quick survey of what this current picture is and how it has--or has not--changed the way we think about life, the universe, and everything. Contact Larry at 539-3176 or lweaver@uufm.net

MAY 22 "KÄTHE LUTHER"

Fellowship member Jennifer Askey will explore the overlooked role of Käthe Luther, wife of Martin Luther, in the Protestant Reformation. Contact Jennifer at 317-5920 or jda127@gmail.com

MAY 29 "61st ASSAULT HELICOPTER LIBRARY/LEARNING CENTER"

Fellowship member Ken Embers discusses the library/learning center that he and his helicopter pilot friends, crewmembers, families, and friends are building in Bong Son, Vietnam, a small village near LZ English, a Landing Zone where helicopters and men of the 173 Airborne Brigade were stationed during the Vietnam War. The theme is how to "get over it" and get on with life by breaking the cycle of revenge. Contact Ken at 539-2819 or embers1@cox.net

WELCOMING CONGREGATION

Learn more about the Welcoming Congregation initiative at www.uua.org/visitors/justicediversity/6252.shtml

In the 100+ newsletter articles I have written, about eleven years worth, I don't recall quoting from the Bible. As I prepare for a Unitarian Universalist version of Easter, I have reread Luke and find myself fully engaged with these lines, "If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return; and your reward will be great."

To move closer to loving my enemies is one of my spiritual goals. There are moments when love maneuvers through my anger, its resentment and hatred, to a place where I feel and recognize another person's humanity; a person whose choices I normally find repugnant. But lending to my enemies without expecting anything in return has not fallen within the sphere of my altruism.

Raising that razor wire around my capacity to love keeps the greatest reward at a distance. Ultimately it is an unselfish love that creates the most promising culture for goodness. The prudent "I" balks at the request to lend to an enemy who will never repay their debt. Yet something in me yearns for a love that transcends all boundaries and lives without conditions.

My mind resists this maxim. I know it is something I rarely practice without qualifications. Yet I remember working for people who were violent. Once, a raging alcoholic woman attacked me with a wine bottle. It whizzed by my right ear. A Vietnam vet, suffering from post-traumatic stress, had the shortest fuse I have encountered. One morning he threatened to kill me. He could have lifted me up by the neck and destroyed me. (This was in my marathon training days when I was rail thin. I know, hard to imagine.) I can't say that I loved either of these people with their ravaged lives. Once the danger passed my compassion overcame my fear and I continued to serve them. It guided me towards an understanding that allowed me to not see them as my enemy, although I was always cautious in their presence.

What distinguishes a business from a religious community? Love? I believe this can be true. I'd rather ignore the challenges of unconditional love, but I know, for me, it probably gives life its most profound meaning. I hope to have the courage to evolve.

May, May bring you peace ... Michael

Candidates should submit cover letter, a CV or resume clearly indicating educational, communications, or outreach experience, and the names of three references (attn: DRE Search Chair) to office@uufm.net, or by mail to Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Manhattan, PO Box 910, Manhattan, KS 66505. Members and friends of the Fellowship are welcome to apply, and members should feel free to extend the invitation to people whom they think are uniquely qualified.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT

Many thanks to all who participated in the recent RE Town Hall meetings. Input from the congregation is a key component to a thriving RE program. With the passing of the 2011/2012 budget we now move forward. Sandy Nelson (341-0135, RE@uufm.net) and Kathleen Tanona, 2011/12 Religious Education Committee co-chairs.

UU WORLD TRAVELERS

Our youth are finishing out the school year with a World Religions curriculum, but summer is just around the corner and that means we're looking for "tour guides" for the much-beloved UU WORLD TRAVELERS curriculum.

This is a one time, one morning commitment. We have lots of information and guidance to offer. All tour guides will be joined by an adult assistant in the classroom. Have you been somewhere that you'd like share with our students? Do you want to learn more about a place? This is a great way to share your interest. On Sunday, MAY 8, Helping Hands contributions will be collected for the PEGGY BOWMAN SECOND CHANCE FUND, which assists low-income women with abortion funding. More information is available at www.pbscf.org. Learn more from our Helping Hands coordinator Betty Banner at bettybanner@gmail.com or 776-1887.

On April 10, Helping Hands funds totaling $427 were collected for the Manhattan Boys & Girls Club. Thank you for your generous contributions, which will provide summer scholarships for low-income children.

FAIR TRADE COFFEE AND CFL SALES

FAIR TRADE PRODUCTS are offered for purchase at the Fellowship following Sunday programs. Whole bean, ground, and decaf coffees, as well as chocolate, and tea are available. COMPACT FLUORESCENT LIGHT BULBS (CFLs) are also offered on Sunday mornings, supporting the Fellowship's efforts to encourage environmentally conscious living. Purchase bulbs for yourself, or for families seeking help from Shepherd's Crossing.

FAIR TRADE SALES TO BECOME A FUNDRAISER -- The sale of Fair Trade coffee and chocolate turns over quite a bit of money with almost all of it going to the product cost and sales tax. The Fair Trade sub-committee has determined that the sales could be a real fundraiser for the UUFM; therefore, we have raised the price of each item by twenty-five cents with the added income benefiting the UUFM General Operations fund, enhancing fundraising without the need for additional volunteer hours.

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE MEETING

The next meeting of the UUFM Social Action Committee will be on Wednesday, MAY 11, at 5:30 pm, in the Fellowship's Inez Alsop room. All Fellowship members and friends interested in Social Justice issues are invited to attend and learn more. 50TH
ANNIVERSARY
1961-2011

The logo for the 50th anniversary features a large, bold '50' with a stylized candle flame integrated into the zero. The candle has a flame and a stem, and the entire design is set within a circular border of radiating lines.

General Assembly (GA) 2011 in Charlotte will mark the 50th anniversary of the merger of the American Unitarian Association and the Universalist Church of America.

Join thousands of fellow Unitarian Universalists from across the country as we remember the persons and events that brought into being the Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA) in May 1961, to reflect on our denomination's relevant achievements and struggles since then, and to chart new aspirations for the future we are determined to shape.

Experience wonderful and uplifting worship services--morning and night--led by some of our best worship leaders, with glorious music and inspiring messages.

Participate in our democratic process. General Assembly is the way that our faith does business, bringing together the distinctive character of our individual congregations.

Hear terrific speakers. There will be hundreds of dynamic, entertaining programs and informative workshops.

Connect with craftspeople and artisans, social action groups, professional and educational resources, theological schools, UUA organizations and staff, Beacon Press, and the UUA Bookstore in the General Assembly Exhibit Hall.

Network with other congregation leaders, share best practices, and learn from one another. Return to your congregation reinvigorated and inspired to put your values to work.

Witness for our faith in moving and exciting ways as we look forward to and prepare for a special "Justice" General Assembly in Phoenix, Arizona in 2012.

Fellowship members planning to attend should ask Anne Cowan about delegate credentials.

View a schedule of events and register at www.uua.org/ga
