APRIL 2014
VOLUME 52, ISSUE 11

APRIL 2014 PROGRAMS

APRIL 6 "INSIDE THE LITTLE UNIVERSE"

Rev Michael Nelson reflects, "The mass of the universe is believed to have first escaped from subatomic sized dense energy. From what often is too small to recognize big things emerge. As this is true in cosmology, it is often true in life. Paying attention to how we approach the littlest things in our lives can expand the understanding of our lives to cosmic proportions." Contact Michael at 537-2349 or minister@uufm.net.

APRIL 13 "HUNGER FOR JUSTICE"

Celebrate the first UUA MidAmerica Regional Assembly right here at UUFM! We will present a recording of one of the services from the Regional Assembly in Topeka, along with our usual opportunities to connect with one another. Contact/convener is Matt Campbell at (913) 709-4693 or mcampbel@ksu.edu.

APRIL 20 "RESTORE IN US THE LOVE OF LIVING"

Rev Michael Nelson asks, "In this season of new growth how do we replenish what has been worn down by a long winter? The emergence of fresh green and the happy faces of daffodils helps us to open ourselves to the verdant vibrancy within. Our progressive faith asks us to examine the intricate link between birth and death; to celebrate Easter with a full appreciation for this time of renewal." Contact Michael at 537-2349 or minister@uufm.net.

Our annual Easter Potluck Bruch and Easter Egg hunt follows the April 20 program.

APRIL 27 "(Wo)MAN, THE PATTERN SEEKER"

Join Kansas State Emerita Director of Nonviolence Education Susan Allen for a discussion of nonviolence at K-State and in our everyday lives. Contact/convener is Michael Nelson at 537-2349 or minister@uufm.net.

UUFM is a WELCOMING CONGREGATION

Learn more about the Welcoming Congregation initiative at www.uua.org/visitors/justicediversity/6252.shtml

After a harsh winter I am thankful for hardy rootstock that allows the trees in our orchard to survive. As spring slowly shows its face I look for signs of growth on bushes and perennials that do not fare well when the temperatures drop below zero. For the last couple of years, I watched a rosemary plant become a small bush, thriving with mild winters. It's a goner. I'll try another of this variety, but I'll be more careful in choosing bushes that are tolerant of minus zero weather as I begin to replace those that have died.

Roots are important. Our Unitarian Universalist faith founded in the Free Church branch of the Protestant Reformation in 16th Century Europe grew differently in American soil. Both religions resisted Calvinist doctrines: total depravity (Original Sin) and Predestination. Both religions could not fathom a God that before birth would chose some to be Heaven bound and others destined to Hell. American Unitarians believed that Jesus was an ethical teacher and it diminished his teachings if you believed that he had supernatural powers. American Universalists believed that all souls would be reconciled to a loving God that ultimately treated all people as equals.

These roots help us today to use our intelligence and heart to be of service in the world. Our Fellowship class that is studying The New Jim Crow, Mass Incarceration in the Age of Colorblindness has begun to explore how America incarcerates more of its racial and ethnic minorities than any other country in the world. In Baltimore, 50% of black men in their twenties are either in jail or have served time in jail. Once you have been convicted of a felony you can lose the right to vote and become ineligible for public housing and a host of programs that help people who are in need. We call our country The Land of the Free, but I am afraid it is a statement without sufficient roots to nourish the claim.

A month before Martin Luther King, Jr. was slain, he said, I want to discuss the race problem tonight and I want to discuss it honestly. I still believe that freedom is the bonus you receive for telling the truth. 'Ye shall know the truth and it shall set you free.' And I do not see how we will ever solve the turbulent problem of race confronting our nation until there is an honest confrontation with it and a willing search for the truth and a willingness to admit the truth when we discover it.

Reading Jane Alexander's alarming book informs us of how America deliberately recreated systems to replace slavery. If you do not want to read the book, please watch Bill Moyer's interview with her last year. It stuns.

On another front of human rights issues, our Fellowship's statement of principle on Marriage Equality has inspired the Salina, Hutchinson and Topeka Fellowships to make similar declarations. The roots of our free faith called us to publically declare our support for the rights of same sex couples to be married in Kansas. In the sanctuary of our Fellowship, on May 3rd, at 3 pm, Charles and I invite you to join us, as we have the ceremony the State insists on deprecating.

Michael

RE NEWS

APRIL FAMILY FUN - Saturday, APRIL 5 - Pride Parade
Please join us for the 5th Annual Little Apple Pride Parade. Let's show the greater community that UUFM is here and supports the LGBT community!

MARCH WITH UUFM: Be a beacon ... We need kids to help hold signs, ride bikes, and be colorful. We'll have lots of colorful crepe paper streamers to decorate bikes, trikes, wagons, and strollers. Gather in the parking lot at First Congregational Church (at the corner of Juliette and Poyntz) at 1:30 pm. The parade starts at 2 pm. Be sure to wear comfortable shoes and colorful clothing.

WATCH AND CHEER: Those who prefer to show their support by cheering on the marchers can gather at City Park near the Johnny Kaw statue along 11th Street. Bring your folding chairs and line the street at 2 pm. After the parade passes you can join it and march toward Aggieville or catch a ride to Triangle Park for the final festivities.

If you'd like to park your car in the university lot across from Aggieville for convenient access at the end of the day, I'll be there at 1:15 pm to shuttle folks to the starting point or to the watching point. Give me a call so we can coordinate.

Bring your friends. The more the merrier! Sandy

Learn more about all family and youth activities at the Fellowship from Director of Religious Education Sandy Nelson at 341-0135 or DRE@uufm.net

RE CLASSES - CAN YOU SHARE AN ADVENTURE?

The World Religions curriculum is coming to an end soon and we're starting to look toward summer and our popular UU World Travelers curriculum. Can you be a "tour guide" on one Sunday morning? This year we're also offering Spirit of Adventure for the 3rd through 6th graders. It's a hands-on curriculum sure to keep the older kids active and interested. A $5 per child voluntary contribution will help us cover expenses associated with this popular activity. NOTE: We need parent volunteers to continue this popular event. Volunteer for one night, or just an hour or two if that's all you can squeeze in.

Please RSVP no later than Thursday, April 3, so that Sandy Nelson can schedule adults to staff the evening, and gather supplies. Contact Sandy at 341-0135 or dre@uufm.net.

The annual LITTLE APPLE PRIDE PARADE will be on Saturday, APRIL 5, in Aggieville. Our Fellowship has participated every year and it's been fun! This year, we're hoping for a great turn out in support of the statement of principle on marriage equality recently passed by the congregation, and our long tradition as a welcoming community. Come to join us marching in the parade, or cheer us on from the sidelines.

We need volunteers to help set up the Fellowship's information table in Triangle Park from 2 to 3 pm, or staff the table from 3 to 5 pm.

NOTES ON PROPOSED 2014/2015 BUDGET

The proposed budget includes a 1.5% increase in salaries and raising DRE from 40% to 50% time. We over-budgeted Payroll last year, so these increases don't require an increase in the Payroll budget line.

Communications, Programming, Social, and Social Action requested about $2,000 total in new projects to support the vision.

The cost of Insurance and Utilities are up.

We are budgeting to receive less income from contributions made that are not fulfilling a pledge, to better reflect what we've been receiving in recent years.

We will need a 14% increase in pledges over last year's actual pledges ($106,908) to meet this budget ($121,840 in pledges).

Contact Fellowship Treasurer Betty Banner with questions, or for clarification, on the proposed budget for Fiscal Year 2014/2015 (June 1, 2014 thru May 31, 2015). Betty may be reached at 776-1887 or bettybanner@gmail.com.

NEW UUFM ART EXHIBIT - CALLING ALL ARTISTS

The Aesthetics Committee will be changing the art exhibit in the Narthex on April 14! If you have some objects of personal expression of any kind, please consider bringing your art to the Fellowship in the next few weeks to be hung in the Narthex. Any medium is acceptable. In the past we have displayed fiber arts, watercolor, pastel, oil, photographs, ceramic, and prints. Just make sure they are in hangable condition with a wire, etc, to make them easy to display. Your contribution will make a great addition to the interest and enjoyment of the exhibit by the congregation. It is always surprising what a large percentage of our group is talented artists. We'd like to see some new participants, so jump right in! Works can be brought in on Sunday April 5 and 12, or dropped off during Susan Turner's office hours (see page 8), before April 14. Learn more from Aesthetics Committee chair Lorrie Cross at 539-7883 or lmcross@kansas.net.

$HOP $MART GROCERY PROGRAM

Do you know about the Smart Shopper program, benefiting UUFM each time you shop? For every $100 you spend at Dillons, Ray's, and Hy-Vee, the store gives UUFM $5. What a deal! Totally painless! All you have to do is pay $50 for a grocery card to whoever is carrying around the red notebook after Sunday services. Each card for Ray's Apple Market and Hy-Vee is $50. Then go buy your groceries. Each card worth $50 gives our Fellowship $2.50. Therefore, $100 earns $5 for us. Dillons is different, you pay $5 to UUFM for the card, then go to customer service at Dillons to load it with whatever amount you want to put on it. Learn more from Harriette Janke at 539-0865 or ahjanke@cox.net.

UUFM FINANCES

ALL ABOUT US

LINDA KROEGER joined the Fellowship last year. She was born and raised in Dyersville, Iowa, best known for its "Field of Dreams" connection, and grew up in a traditional Catholic family. Linda went to the University of Iowa and majored in nursing. She has since earned a Masters from Boston University and just recently a Doctor of Nursing Practice (or DNP) at KU. Her specialty is geriatrics.

Linda met Mike Herman at the University of Iowa. He is Jewish. They married, certain their life philosophies were enough alike to guide them in building a life and raising a family. Linda and Mike agreed to raise their two sons in the Catholic Church. After her youngest son told them he was gay, Linda found she could no longer attend the Catholic Church. But she did need some type of spiritual community without the doctrine and dogma. Her husband suggested UUFM where her friend, M'ELIZ MAATTA, was attending and enjoying services. Linda came with M'Eliz and found it very welcoming and interesting. She appreciates that you are welcome at UUFM no matter whom you love.

Linda's new venture is the community garden. She and a friend are going to develop green thumbs this summer while enjoying the great outdoors. Maybe she'll see some other UUs in the garden. Welcome Linda.

OTHER NEWS -

SUE PRAY recently became a grandmother to a lovely and healthy little girl. As a mother of two sons, it is especially exciting to have a granddaughter.

On the "not such good news" side of things, CATHERINE HEDGE's mother recently suffered a stroke. Cathy went to California to help for a few weeks. She reports that her mom is improving and hopes to return home soon. JACK WARREN's wife, ALICE STOCKWELL, suffered some seizures. She is in the hospital with plans to move to Meadowlark for rehab. DON DAVIS and FRANZ SAMELSON both had recent stays in the hospital and are recovering in Bramlage House at Meadowlark.

Recently, HARRIETTE JANKE and CYBIL PERKINS won an auction for a lunch at Jill Docking's home in Wichita. Jill is the current Democratic candidate for Lt Governor. Harriette invited her daughter RHONDA JANKE, SHIRLEY HOBROCK, KATHLEEN OLDFATHER, and KAREN HUMMEL to join her. Besides a fascinating discussion and delicious lunch with Jill Docking, they visited a great bookstore, a great bread store, and local art museums.

Please send your milestones, significant events, or news to Kathleen Oldfather at kjoldfather@gmail.com or 537-3738. We can't share it if we don't know!
