JULY 2014 PROGRAMS

JULY 6 "BEING INDIGENOUS"

Plant ecologist and herbalist Frank Norman's life long quest for meaning has brought him from Catholicism to Zen Buddhism to becoming an earth ceremonialist. He will share how his connection to nature and reverence for indigenous people around the world brings greater depth to his spiritual life. Plants assist him in this journey. The service will be followed by a plant walk on the Fellowship property. Contact/convener is Michael Nelson at 537-2349 or minister@uufm.net.

JULY 13 "BEAUTY, TRUTH, AND RAGE: EXPERIENCING LIFE THROUGH THE PRISM OF ART"

Before joining UUFM, Fellowship member Sarah Hoyt spent more than a decade working for visual arts nonprofits that were intellectual and spiritual sources of renewal. She reflects on lessons learned and shares artworks that command attention, reveal essential truths about humanity, and demand social justice. Contact/convener is Sarah Lott at 537-2349 or lottsm@gmail.com.

JULY 20 "INTERNATIONAL CONNECTIONS"

Fellowship member Slawomir Dobrzanski shares his experience supporting a child in Ecuador through an international charity. Slawomir will discuss the impact supporting and meeting this child has had on him and how it has transformed his view of philanthropy. Contact/convener is Marisa Larson at 320-7927 or marisa.larson@gmail.com.

JULY 27 "THE MYSTERY OF CONSCIOUSNESS"

Rev David A Jones of the Ecumenical Campus Ministry at K-State asks, "What is the nature of reality? To what extent is it possible to synthesize empirical and spiritual worldviews, if at all? Come prepared to share your wisdom regarding the relationship between science and religion." Contact/convener is Brice Hobrock at 776-3175 or hobrock@ksu.edu.

A decade has passed since we sold our little house in Sweden. We left boxes of books, family pictures, bikes, and antiques with a friend. Stuff that we could not haul back to Kansas or simply toss. It's time to sort through these belongings.

It makes us happy to return to a more leisurely approach to time; the encouragement to schedule more mindfully. Instead of packing in 5 to 7 major things in a day the Swedes leave more time for rest and revitalization. They enjoy 6 weeks of vacation and have many more long weekends than we do in America. Almost everything shuts down during these Holidays. Less harried, life becomes simplified. When we're invited for a coffee, we look forward to a three-hour visit with 7 treats and many cups of strong coffee. Conversations build to a crescendo and a lull that comforts, opens--the space to appreciate one another's company in silence. The unspoken rule: do not rush.

When my cousin Peter and his wife had their last child, he was given two weeks off to help bring their baby home so that everyone could integrate this new life into the family, and fully celebrate Sarah's arrival. Anna-Lisa was given two years leave of absence from her job and received 80% of her pay. When she returned to work she relied on good childcare available to all families in Sweden. If Peter had decided to stay at home instead of his wife, he would have received the same benefits as his wife did. They also had the option of splitting the benefits between them.

Sweden ranks as one of the world's most gender-egalitarian countries. Swedes believe men and women should share power and influence equally. In the Global Gender Gap Report 2013, Sweden is a world leader in equality. On average, women's monthly salaries are 94 per cent of men's, when differences in choice of profession and sector are taken into account. Pay disparity is found mostly in the private sector. After the 2010 election, 45 percent of the seats in the Swedish Parliament were filled by women, down from 47 per cent after the 2006 election--the first fall in this figure since the 1930s. At present, 13 of the 24 Government ministers are women.

Time in Sweden provides us relief from the inequities that plague our society and inspire us to advocate for more equality when we return home.

May we all be inspired to work for a well-balanced life so that when joy beckons, we're available.

Michael

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

RE NEWS

June was a fabulous start to our World Travelers Summer Program. We had a great Bon Voyage party, "traveled" to Laos with Ken Embers; Brazil, for World Cup Fever; and continue to learn about bees with our super awesome observation beehive. Be sure to venture over to the Alsop Room, pull up a chair, and watch the bees at work.

We also had some great family fun working at the Fellowship to clean out drawers and get the building in shape for another year. And ... we had spider fun and games at Parent Night Out and watched Charlotte's Web. And ... started the tweens and teens program "Popcorn Theology" with Carolyn Ferguson.

What a busy month!

July will be just as busy ... we'll have some more fun with bees and other pollinators with Dick Beeman and Tom Manney, learn about essential oils from Enell Foerster, and go on an outdoor adventure with Katie Kingery-Page looking for chlorophyll laden leaves and making rubbings.

As the temperature is sure to rise, our Family Fun activity will be an afternoon at the Splash Park in City Park. Meet at 4 pm, on Saturday, July 12--but watch for updates in case weather encourages us to change our plans.

Popcorn Theology continues through July 18. Many thanks to Carolyn Ferguson for leading these fun sessions.

Hard to believe it's been a whole year of you allowing me to enjoy this job. I've always thought that getting feedback at an annual review is extremely valuable so please be sure to share with Molly McGaughey or Kathleen Tanona about how I'm doing--positive OR negative. We can't move forward on this journey together if we don't know where we've been or where we're going.

Sandy

UUFM VISION STATEMENT
adopted June 10, 2013

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Manhattan, rooted in living tradition, embraces diversity in all its forms as it expands our thinking and our sense of community.

We are:

- † A safe haven for spiritual, intellectual, and emotional growth through honest self-examination, provocative dialogue, enriching experiences, and ever-deepening connections ...
- † An incubator for the next generation of UUs, fostering spiritual and ethical exploration tailored to age and stage and promoting intergenerational unity ...
- † Vibrant, open, and inspirational in what we say and do ...
- † A bold model of love, compassion, social action, and justice for ourselves, our society, and our planet ...
- † Builders of bridges across faiths and boundaries to honor our shared humanity and common values ...
- † A visible beacon of liberal religious messages of hope and meaning in our local community.

WORDS FROM OUR CHAIR

Happy Summer UUFM! Summer is happening on Zeandale Road. I hope you all have seen the amazing bee observatory installed by Tom and Monta Manney (and worker bees) in the Inez Alsop Room. It is fascinating, a true educational experience for kids and adults. What a great addition to our already great RE program. There are some other busy bees working around our home. There was a successful workday to clean up our grounds on the inside and out. The music committee met for their annual retreat. The Programming Committee held a successful convener workshop and are planning another this fall. I really appreciate all your efforts to make our home here a safe, vibrant and exciting place to be!

The UUFM Board is spending our July meeting reviewing the Bylaws and Handbook. Both are available as links on the website. Check them out and let me know if you have any concerns or questions. I, for one, would love to see our vision statement become a part of our handbook. Living the vision is part of what we want as a congregation--to be a bold model of love in our community, build bridges across faiths and be a beacon with a liberal religious message. This always reads as so exciting to me when I review our vision statement. But there is still the everyday work of our Fellowship- not as exciting but no less important, if we didn't do it there would be no beacon standing here in Manhattan, Kansas. There is a book I read a few years ago that I refer to from time to time in considering the work of our Fellowship, Serving with Grace, by Erik Walker Wikstrom. This is a very small book, 83 pages in total, given to me by Anne Cowan. Let me share a short passage for you to consider.

"Will you take advantage of the opportunity to use your service in the church to deepen your spiritual life and further your spiritual journey? The monasteries and intentional spiritual communities of all religious traditions understand that each and every moment of each and every day provides opportunities to learn, deepen and grow. Whether sitting in meditation and prayer in your room or chopping carrots and washing dishes in the kitchen- anything can be used as a tool for deepening your connection with life. The quiet of the prayer bench and the bustle of the business office are not seen as two distinct things--they are two aspects of the same process. The busy work of the monastery provides as much of a pathway as the time of prayer. And when the work is seen that way, that's just what it does."

In Faith, Kathleen Tanona

CHALICE LIGHTERS ARE MAKING A DIFFERENCE

The Chalice Lighters program supports UU congregations throughout the MidAmerica Region, which want to actively increase their membership. Chalice Lighters are individuals who commit to donating a specific amount of money three times a year to support a worthwhile congregational project. They receive a letter telling them which congregations have been chosen to receive grants. The letter includes a "call" for a contribution to be sent in an enclosed return envelope and information on donating online. Each Chalice Lighter writes a check or donates online for their pre-committed amount ($20, $50, $100, or $250) and returns it to the MidAmerica Region office.

Here are some exciting projects in MidAmerica congregations being funded by the Chalice Lighter program this year.

- HARMONY UU CHURCH, Morrow, Ohio - this 4-year-old congregation rents space and needed help buying chairs, plus equipment for A/V and acoustics and to improve their hospitality area and signage.
- TREE OF LIFE UU CHURCH, McHenry, Illinois - making renovations to a building they own, such as renovating the kitchen, adding permanent walls, new phones, and new office computers
- FIRST UNITARIAN CHURCH, Sioux City, Iowa - put in a wheelchair lift and accessible rest room last fall
- LAKE COUNTRY UU CHURCH, Hartland, Wisconsin - modifying a rest room to meet ADA guidelines, as well as replacing a non-accessible drinking fountain.
- UU CONGREGATION OF THE QUAD CITIES, Davenport, Iowa - will be hiring some additional administrative staff, to allow their minister and religious educator to spend time creating programs called for in their Strategic Plan for Growth.

Learn more about the Chalice Lighters' program at www.midamericauua.org/programs/chalice-lighters.

$HOP $MART GROCERY PROGRAM

Do you know about the Smart Shopper program, bene-fiting UUFM each time you shop? For every $100 you spend at Dillons, Ray's, and Hy-Vee, the store gives UUFM $5. What a deal! Totally painless! All you have to do is pay $50 for a grocery card to whoever is carrying around the red notebook after Sunday services. Each card for Ray's Apple Market and Hy-Vee is $50. Then go buy your groceries. Each card worth $50 gives our Fellowship $2.50. Therefore, $100 earns $5 for us. Dillons is different, you pay $5 to UUFM for the card, then go to customer service at Dillons to load it with whatever amount you want to put on it. Learn more from Harriette Janke at 539-0865 or ahjanke@cox.net.

ALL ABOUT US

Welcome to our new member, MARY LYNN HIGGINBOTHAM. Mary Lynn was born, raised, and graduated from college in Maryville, Missouri. She received her Master's Degree at the University of Missouri in Columbia. Her family moved to Manhattan when she accepted a position to teach Veterinary Oncology at KSU. She and her husband Jonathan Mahorney discovered UU through a concert series in Auburn. Once in Manhattan, they searched for a place where they and their children, Emerson and Alexander, could attend. Mary Lynn states, "Being in Kansas, we wanted to make sure our children didn't wonder what people did on Sunday." They joined because, "We wanted a group of people we could connect with." She'd like us to know, "I have two amazing children. We feel pretty lucky."

Mary Lynn, we are glad you are with us!

OTHER NEWS -

Fellowship member DIXIE MOREAU suffered a broken arm, recently. She would appreciate our thoughts and good wishes, and may need a little help around the house while healing.

Kathleen Oldfather reports: I recently visited LES FRAZIER at Honstead House at Meadowlark hills. Les was in great spirits even though he is still dealing with very bad back pain. He is learning magic tricks and busying his mind as much as he can to ward off "cabin fever." Les shared his recent tattoo [see below] with me and said I could share it with others. Good advice!

Please send your milestones, significant events, or news to Linda Kroeger at 565-9645 or caring@uufm.net. We can't share it if we don't know! If you would like to become a Caring Committee volunteer, providing assistance, companionship, and support to Fellowship members and friends in need, please contact Linda to learn how you can help.

COFFEE AND GREETING TEAMS

- July 6: Dan and Kathy Swenson, Linda Kroeger, and Marisa Larson

THANK YOU to all of our coffee and greeting team volunteers. Serving on a Coffee and Greeting team is an easy way to give to the Fellowship, with a minimal investment of your time, just three or four Sundays each year. Learn more from Coffee and Greeting coordinator Elke Lorenz at 218-4014 or ellorenz@uufm.net
