JUNE 2015
VOLUME 54, ISSUE 1

JUNE 2015 PROGRAMS

JUNE 7 "FLOWER POWER--HONORING THE DIVERSITY OF OUR FELLOWSHIP"

If you are able, bring a flower or flowers to share. Each person will leave with a flower different from the one they brought, signifying acknowledgement of our individuality. Contact/convener is Sylvia Beeman at 539-9369 or sbeewoman@hotmail.com. Sylvia asks those attending to bring anything related to your experience with flowers (flowers, of course; pictures; mementoes) with a sentence of explanation if possible, to be displayed on a table in the narthex.

JUNE 14 "BELOVED COMMUNITY BEGINS HERE"

Rev Sarah Oglesby-Dunegan of the UU Fellowship of Topeka reflects, "UUism is a covenantal faith, meaning we agree to be in relationship and re-commit to our promises to one another when we fall short. In the wider culture, transactional relationships are the norm; we expect people to fulfill a transaction (or not) and move on. Consumer habits invade many aspects of our lives, creating a hyper individualism and even a kind of apathetic narcissism. In creating congregations we seek to be counter cultural and find deep relationships that offer a salve for us and for the communities we seek to heal and serve. In beginning new ministries and welcoming new members, developing our gratitude and generosity is central to honoring our covenants and transforming our culture." Contact/convener is Scott Tanona at 537-6208 or stanona@uufm.net.

JUNE 21 "YOU COULD BE WRONG"

Jordinn Nelson-Long, who recently completed her intern ministry at All Souls UU Church in Kansas City, reflects, "Each of us has probably considered how to offer forgiveness when we have been wronged. This Sunday we will look at another side of that question: what does it mean to know that we might be wrong? How can we act decisively, say no to oppression and injustice wherever we find it, and stand on the side of love ... in the knowledge that we will make mistakes, and that our best intentions will sometimes lead us astray? Join us, as we consider the role of humility and repentance in the context of our UU values." Contact/convener is Cathy Hedge at 537-1101 or catherinejeanhedge@gmail.com.

JUNE 28 "LIVING IN A WORLD OF KINDNESS"

We will be joined by UU troubadours Joseph and John DeMasi. Hear a sample of their music at thedemasibrothers.org. Contact/convener is Dave Lambert at 587-8750 or david.k.lambert@gmail.com.

Come for a preview of John and Joseph's music at a BACKYARD CONCERT, hosted by Dave Lambert and Cybil Perkins, on Saturday, June 27, at 7 pm. Learn more on page 4 of this newsletter.

UUFM is a WELCOMING CONGREGATION

*What we call a beginning is often the end and to make an end is to make a beginning.
The end is where we start from.*

We shall not cease from exploration and the end of all our exploring will be to arrive where we started and know the place for the first time.

I first heard these fragments pulled from T S Eliot's Four Quartets, found in our hymnal, at the Oakland, California UU Church in 1983. The Rev Rob Eller-Isaacs closed a profoundly moving service with these lines. A few images flicker and these words remain from that morning 32 years ago. What remains, still touches deep.

The line With the drawing of this Love and the voice of this Calling comes somewhere in between these two stanzas. I'm glad to have found them as my time with you ends. As I pull books from the shelves of my office at UUFM, clean out the desk, and purge my files, I come across pictures, notes from meetings, letters, the invitation to my installation as your first called minister, and all kinds of mementos that bring the past into focus--into the present.

I will draw on all the love I've shared with this congregation in the past ten and a half years as I begin again. I've learned so much from working and creating with all of you. For this, I'm so grateful. I hear the progressive voice calling and I know you will respond with gusto to Rev Jonalu Johnstone as you explore increasingly powerful ways to be a bold model of love, a beacon for liberal religion and builders of bridges across economic, racial, sexual, educational, theological ... divides. Welcome her with your generous spirit and eager minds.

May good things happen as we draw upon all the love available and respond with intelligent compassion to all that calls.

Michael

AT THE 2014 UUFM
EXECUTIVE BOARD RETREAT.

WORKSHOP -- PREPARING FOR A NEW MINISTER

Following the morning service on Sunday, JUNE 14, Sarah Oglesby-Dunegan, minister of the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Topeka since August 2014, comes to talk with us about her experiences as a minister coming into a new setting and what helped make her feel welcome. She's going to be here June 14 to provide our regular service and then talk with us informally, afterwards, in a workshop about getting ready for a new minister; what we can do to help the new minister be successful; where there are potential pitfalls, and so on. UUFM leaders, would-be leaders, members and friends of all stripes--committee chairs, Board members, staff, and everyone who wants to help us move to this next stage of the Fellowship--are encouraged to attend. The workshop starts at 12:30 pm.

Please RSVP to Kathleen Tanona at 537-6208 or kmtanona@hotmail.com if you plan to attend so we can have an accurate count for lunch. Please mark your calendars and join us as we embark on this new journey together.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

RE NEWS

MANY, MANY THANKS to everyone for making the 2014-2015 RE program so successful. My thanks go out once again to all our volunteers and mentors: Molly McGaughey, Matt Sayre, Kathleen Oldfather, Jessica Long, Carolyn Ferguson, Christopher Renner, Aimee Fowler, and Matt and Jen Campbell. Additional thank yous to folk who helped move non-perishable food to the Breadbasket, came to family fun events like the Pride Parade and St. Patrick's Parade, and brought kids to, or helped at, Parent Night Out (Kid Night In). Your participation in the program is what makes everything worthwhile. And a special thank you to Michael Oldfather and Nick McGaughey for staying on top of the aluminum can recycling. I look forward to telling everyone how the kids decide to use the money collected.

It's summer vacation time and that means it's time for UU World Travelers! The UU Church of Tucson, Arizona, designed the curriculum, but we've changed it up a bit so that our adventures take us more places. In general, students "tour" a different location each week and learn about that location's culture, religions, and history. A hands-on activity is always a fun take-away.

We've had some fantastic tours in the past ... We toured cave art and made our own art. We toured California and experienced fog. We toured water in its many forms (and made snow cones). We toured silk moths and learned about chlorophyll. And last year we "toured" bees--A LOT--with our observation beehive. (Thank you Tom and Monta Manney!)

I'll start updating the RE blog more frequently now that the summer session is getting under way. You can refresh your memory of summers past and see some fabulous pictures by visiting the RE blog at uufm.net/topic/re-blog.

This year's tours will--of course--be spectacular as well. We're looking forward to making kites; canoeing at Deep Creek; visiting Singapore, Ecuador, Turkey, South Africa, and the ocean; and lots more. Don't miss out on any of the fun. Register your child for the summer program now by going online to uufm.net/religious-education.

Sandy

Learn more about all family and youth activities at the Fellowship from Director of Religious Education Sandy Nelson at 341-0135 or DRE@uufm.net

DRE'S SCHEDULE

In June, Sandy Nelson will be available in the Fellowship office on TUESDAYS and THURSDAYS, from 3:30 to 4:30 pm.

Don't forget, you can always catch up with Sandy during Out-of-Office Hours, MONDAYS, from 3:30 to 5 pm, at Radina's in Aggieville. Stop by for a visit, share a coffee or an idea for RE, bring a friend.

PARENT NIGHT OUT

Bring the kids for Parent Night Out on the first Friday of each month. On JUNE 5 drop the kids off at 6:30 and pick them up at 9:30 pm. There will be fun, games, healthy snacks, and a movie! A $5 per child voluntary contribution helps us cover expenses associated with this popular activity. Please RSVP no later than Thursday, June 4, so that Sandy Nelson can gather supplies and arrange volunteers. Contact Sandy at 341-0135 or dre@uufm.net.

NOTE: Adult and parent volunteers are needed to staff this popular event over the summer. Come for one evening, or an hour.

JUNE FAMILY FUN ...

We're going to play it by ear in June. If it looks like the weather is going to warm up and dry out we'll all join up for some water fun at the Splash Park. On the other hand ... if we're still having too much water, courtesy of Mother Nature, we may switch gears and find something dry to do. Watch the website, list serve, and Facebook for up-to-date information.

SOCIAL ACTION AT UUFM

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Can you offer assistance for one event, or just an occasional hour or two? Many of our committees welcome one-time volunteers. Jane Pelletier and Courtney Albin, SOCIAL Committee co-chairs (social@uufm.net), sometimes need help setting up, or cleaning up after a party or meal. Sylvia Beeman (sbeewoman@hotmail.com), our stalwart GROUNDS chair, needs folks who can fill in watering or help with a project. Do you enjoy connecting with new friends? Ask Shirley Hobrock (welcome@uufm.net), our WELCOMING Committee chair, or Jessica Sievers (greetings@uufm.net), about opportunities to help with a welcoming and greeting event, held roughly every three months. Linda Kroeger (caring@uufm.net), CARING Committee chair, arranges rides, makes home visits, sends flowers and cards to members experiencing joyous or difficult life events, and will happily find a way you can help just one morning or afternoon.

There are always openings for volunteers on our Sunday morning COFFEE AND GREETING TEAMS. New members and friends find this is a great way to get acquainted, and it's an easy way to give to the Fellowship with a minimal investment of time--only three or four Sundays each year. Learn more from Elke Lorenz, 539-3527 or ellorenz@uufm.net

This month, Fellowship volunteers prepare and serve HAPPY KITCHEN COMMUNITY BREAKFAST on Friday, JUNE 12 and 26, from 7 to 8:30 am, at St Paul's Episcopal Church. Volunteers are needed to occasionally fill in. Breakfast is free and open to the community, providing a good meal for many who might otherwise go without. All are invited, and free will donations help us continue this service. Jennifer Bryan at 537-0333 or snowbird@violinifer.com.

HELPING HANDS SUNDAY

During the Sunday service on JUNE 14, Helping Hands contributions will be collected for SHEPHERD'S CROSSING, providing assistance with rent, utilities, and prescription expenses for low-income individuals and families in the Manhattan/Riley County area. Learn more at www.shepherdscrossing.info/.

On May 10, Fellowship members and friends contributed the morning's collection to the Manhattan Area Boys and Girls Club. THANK YOU all for your generous donations!!! Learn more from Helping Hands coordinator Dixie Moreau at 477-8188 or dixie.moreau53@att.net.

FAIR TRADE COFFEE, TEA, AND CHOCOLATE

Equal Exchange whole bean, ground, and decaf coffees, as well as chocolate and tea are available for purchase. To learn more, or to purchase fair trade products, see Anne Cowan following Sunday morning services at the Fair Trade display in the Fellowship's narthex, or contact her at 537-2025 or acowan@uufm.net

Equal Exchange works in collaboration with the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee. They source goods directly from farmer cooperatives, following the standards and principles of fair trade on 100 percent of its products. This ensures that farmers earn a fair price for their crops, allowing them to better meet their families' basic needs for food, education, health care, and long-term security.

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE MEETING

The UUFM Social Action Committee meets following the Awed Potluck dinner, on Wednesday, JUNE 3, at 7pm. All members and friends with an interest in Social Justice are encouraged to attend. Learn more from Anne Cowan at 537-2025 or acowan@uufm.net

ALL ABOUT US

Welcome new member, GRACE MACMILLAN. Grace was born and raised in Salina, Kansas. She attended KU for several years, studying fine arts, anthropology, and religious studies. After her marriage to Colin and the birth of her children, Piper, age 4, and Liam, age 7, Grace graduated from Mid-America Nazarene. She is now in grad school at Washburn University where she is seeking a master's degree in clinical social work. Grace was extremely active at the UU Fellowship of Topeka since 2007. She moved to Wamego, then to Manhattan when Colin took a job in the area. Grace is Unitarian because, "I had no idea a religion existed that I could believe everything! I wanted my kids to have a supportive community of peers they could relate to." Grace is grateful for her volunteerism through the UUFTopeka. "It prepared me for the transition to my professional career." We are so glad you are with us, Grace!

Fellowship member and pianist SLAWOMIR DOBRZANSKI took the oath to become a US citizen on Friday, May 8, at the US District Court for the State of Kansas, in Topeka. Congratulations, Slawomir!

WORDS FROM OUR CHAIR

As we welcome summer, I wish to thank my UUFM community for the opportunity to serve you in the coming year as Board Chair. UUFM as beacon and refuge is an idea I take to heart--I find hope, comfort and inspiration at our Fellowship. Over the past year, my work as chair-elect has given me great appreciation for all our UUFM committees do. This is a bountiful community that gives deeply and freely of time and talent. The Board welcomes new members Matt Campbell (chair-elect), Jessica Sievers, and Chris Bailey. Mark Clarke, Jane Pelletier, and Betty Banner continue to serve. I thank all my fellow UUs for their service and in particular would like to recognize Betty Banner for stepping up to fill the treasurer position, in addition to her duties as secretary.

I step up to the role of Chair in a time of exciting change for our Fellowship. Reverend Jonalu Johnstone will join us in August as our full-time, developmental minister! She has extensive experience with growing congregations and brings a wealth of knowledge from her previous experience, serving most recently as program minister at First Unitarian Church of Oklahoma City. Among her considerable accomplishments, Reverend Johnstone has been a visible leader in social action throughout her career, notably leading the VOICE health care action committee while in Oklahoma. As chair-elect, I was closely involved in the ministerial application process and interview of our developmental minister match; if you have any questions about the process, please seek me out.

The Programming Committee and many thoughtful UUFM members and friends have planned a wonderful schedule of services in June, July and August. As we prepare for Reverend Johnstone's arrival, please note the service and after-service workshop on readying ourselves for a new minister by Sarah Oglesby-Dunegan on June 14. In addition, expect to see our new UUFM video (created by the talented Colin MacMillan) on our soon to be launched newly designed website (thanks to Mark Clarke).

Wishing you the warmth of summer sun and wonder of summer moonlight,

Katie

Talk to UUFM Board Chair Katie Kingery-Page before or after Sunday services, or contact Katie at 341-5650 or chair@uufm.net with your inspirations and concerns, or chat with any Board member. We want to hear from you!
