Perhaps the words of the Rogers and Hammerstein song Carefully Taught offer a clue--to our individual biases, and to our current national conversation around race in America. LETTER TO UUFM FROM KATHLEEN TANONA

I am pleased to announce that the Reverend Jonalu Johnstone has accepted our position for Developmental Minister. Rev Johnstone was matched through the Developmental Ministry program through the UUA. Our search committee, headed by Katie Kingery-Page, interviewed Johnstone May 7th. The committee unanimously recommended Rev Johnstone to the Board on May 12th. The Board accepted their recommendation and voted to extend Rev. Johnstone the position. She accepted and off we go!

I am excited as I believe all the goals put forth for Developmental Ministry will be achieved under Rev Johnstone's guidance. She is committed to Social Justice and spreading the word of UU in our community and the larger community. She is experienced in growth of congregations as both a minister and a growth consultant. But what excites me even more is that she is someone looking to find a home and excited about the opportunity here in Manhattan, KS. I am looking forward to seeing where we can go under her guidance. She will start August 14th.

Please do all you can to welcome her, accept her and help her succeed at UUFM. Please feel free to talk with me, any member of the Board or the Search Committee with your questions.

UUFM Board members involved in process: Kathleen Tanona as Chair, Katie Kingery-Page as Chair-Elect, Tom Phillips as Past Chair, Betty Banner as Secretary, Mark Clarke as Member at Large, and Jane Pelletier as Member at Large

In Faith, Kathleen

Kathleen Tanona currently serves as UUFM Executive Board Immediate Past Chair. From June 1, 2014, to May 31, 2015, as Chair of the Board, she helped guide us through the process of finding and selecting a developmental minister. She may be contacted at 537-6208 or ktanona@uufm.net.

WEBSITE UPDATE - VIDEO HIGHLIGHTING OUR UU COMMUNITY

Mark Clarke, our webmaster extraordinaire, offers this report on the recent web site update:

I wanted to pass the word along to everyone that our new (totally awesome!) UUFM video has been posted to YouTube and is embedded into our web page. If you haven't been to the website recently, open it up (uufm.net) and you'll be redirected to a page containing the video. This redirection will only happen the first time you visit the site, so you can also get there directly by going to uufm.net/intro. There's a link on the video page to go to the home page. I think you'll all agree that it's a wonderful production and captures who we are as a community very well ...

Kathleen Tanona was the go-to person for this project. It was her leadership and her direct hands-on approach that got the ball rolling and kept it rolling through the final cut of the video--what you'll see today.

Kim Belanger used her artistic talents and experience in helping decide who the target audience was and what the overall look and feel would be.

The eminently talented Colin MacMillan and his company, Imagemakers (www.imagemakers-inc.com/), is the man behind the cameras. His talent and energies shine through brilliantly!

And last, but certainly not least, a gigantic THANK YOU to Sarah Lott and Alex Stinson. These two crazy kids donated the money to pay for the video. Yes, they know they're leaving for Vermont in August (unless we can convince them to stay), but that's the kind of people they are and we're lucky to have them as our friends and benefactors. Thank you both!

And, of course, thank you Mark Clarke for your time, effort, and hard work to make all these exciting innovations happen. If you have ideas, thoughts, or suggestions about UUFM's web presence, let Mark know at 341-7308 or ibyte64@gmail.com.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

RE NEWS

In June we had a great start to our World Travelers Summer Program. Our Bon Voyage party started with a campfire and s'mores. We "traveled" to the Pacific Ocean and made our own sea slugs. We traveled to Australia with Brice and Shirley Hobrock and to Istanbul, Turkey, with Lily Colburn. Then we wrapped up the month with The Year of Light with Kristan Corwin and Brian Washburn. And started Popcorn Theology for the teens!

July will be packed with fun as well. On tap is: Canoeing! The Cosmos! Physics Fun!

As the temperature is sure to rise, one Family Fun activity will be an afternoon at the Splash Park in City Park. Meet at 4 pm, on Saturday, July 18--but watch for updates in case weather encourages us to change our plans. Another event, Game Night in the Alsop room, meets the third Thursday of the month. And Popcorn Theology for the youth group continues through July and into August. Many thanks to Carolyn Ferguson for leading the popcorn sessions.

Hard to believe it's been another year of you allowing me to enjoy this job. I've always thought that getting feedback at an annual review is extremely valuable so please be sure to share with Molly McGaughey (RE chair) or Katie Kingery-Page (Board chair) about how I'm doing--positive OR negative. We can't move forward on this journey together if we don't know where we've been or where we're going.

SOCIAL ACTION AT UUFM

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Can you offer assistance for one event, or just an occasional hour or two? Many of our committees welcome one-time volunteers. Jane Pelletier and Courtney Albin, SOCIAL Committee co-chairs (social@uufm.net), sometimes need help setting up, or cleaning up after a party or meal. Sylvia Beeman (sbeewoman@hotmail.com), our stalwart GROUNDS chair, needs folks who can fill in watering or help with a project. Do you enjoy connecting with new friends? Ask Shirley Hobrock (welcome@uufm.net), our WELCOMING Committee chair, or Jessica Sievers (siewersj@gmail.net), about opportunities to help with a welcoming and greeting event, held roughly every three months. Linda Kroeger (caring@uufm.net), CARING Committee chair, arranges rides, makes home visits, sends flowers and cards to members experiencing joyous or difficult life events, and will happily find a way you can help just one morning or afternoon.

There are always openings for volunteers on our Sunday morning COFFEE AND GREETING TEAMS. New members and friends find this is a great way to get acquainted, and it's an easy way to give to the Fellowship with a minimal investment of time--only three or four Sundays each year. Learn more from Elke Lorenz, 218-4014 or ellorenz@uufm.net

This month, Fellowship volunteers prepare and serve HAPPY KITCHEN COMMUNITY BREAKFAST on Friday, JULY 10 and 24, from 7 to 8:30 am, at St Paul's Episcopal Church. Volunteers are needed to occasionally fill in. Breakfast is free and open to the community, providing a good meal for many who might otherwise go without. All are invited, and free will donations help us continue this service. Jennifer Bryan at 537-0333 or snowbird@violinifer.com.

HELPING HANDS SUNDAY

During the Sunday service on JULY 12, Helping Hands contributions will be collected for the GUARDIAN ANGELS, providing funds for men with immediate and urgent needs that are not met by traditional funding sources. Learn more at www.gafund.org.

On June 14, Fellowship members and friends contributed the morning's collection to Shepherd's Crossing. THANK YOU all for your generous donations!!! Learn more from Helping Hands coordinator Dixie Moreau at 477-8188 or dixie.moreau53@att.net.

FAIR TRADE COFFEE, TEA, AND CHOCOLATE

Equal Exchange whole bean, ground, and decaf coffees, as well as chocolate and tea are available for purchase. To learn more, or to purchase fair trade products, see Anne Cowan following Sunday morning services at the Fair Trade display in the Fellowship's narthex, or contact her at 537-2025 or acowan@uufm.net

Equal Exchange works in collaboration with the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee. They source goods directly from farmer cooperatives, following the standards and principles of fair trade on 100 percent of its products. This ensures that farmers earn a fair price for their crops, allowing them to better meet their families' basic needs for food, education, health care, and long-term security.

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE MEETING

The UUFM Social Action Committee meets following the Awed Potluck dinner, on Wednesday, JULY 1, at 7 pm. All members and friends with an interest in Social Justice are encouraged to attend. Learn more from Anne Cowan at 537-2025 or acowan@uufm.net

UUA STATEMENT ON SUPREME COURT MARRIAGE DECISION

On June 26, the Rev Peter Morales, president of the Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA), issued this statement following the U.S. Supreme Court decision on marriage equality:

"Today the U.S. Supreme Court stood on the side of love with its 5 to 4 decision in Obergefell v. Hodges establishing federal recognition of same-sex marriage. I applaud the court's ruling as a major step in recognizing full civil rights for LGBTQ people. The ruling is cause for celebration ..." ALL ABOUT US

Please welcome our new member, CARRIE ROBERTS. Carrie was born in the Kansas City area and grew up in Lenexa. When she came to KSU, she was so happy here that her parents soon followed. She has her Bachelors in anthropology, a Masters in library science from Emporia State, and is a librarian at Hale Library. Carrie discovered us when she and her husband, AUSTIN ROBERTS, were looking for non-sectarian quotes for their wedding ceremony. They found words from a UU minister posted on the Internet. They liked the tone and wondered, "Is there a UU church in Manhattan?" When they found our website and saw pictures of Michael Nelson on the sled, Carrie thought, "They don't take themselves too seriously." She wanted a community in which they could raise children and one that "... wasn't too judgy," Carrie says, "The amount of dancing we have at parties is amazing to me. The children, adults ... Everyone! It makes me Happy Cry. I don't dance, but I dance here!" We are so glad you are with us, Carrie!

Please send your milestones, significant events, or news to Caring chair Linda Kroeger at 565-9645 or caring@uufm.net. We can't share it if we don't know!

LETTER FROM THE BOARD CHAIR -- ON WAITING

July is a month of waiting. The rains stall and the tomato and eggplants swell; I wait for their ripening. Lawrence Ferlinghetti famously wrote: "I am waiting for a rebirth of wonder." And maybe it is wonder, the way a cucumber tendril creeping upward makes the day better. I tempt myself to work less and pay more attention to what matters most. And in July, we at UUFM await our new minister's arrival, even as we continue our congregation's work and caring.

The Board takes a break from meeting this month, since three Board members will be away at the Midwest Leadership School in Beloit, Wisconsin. The Leadership School is an intensive week of training for lay leaders interested in learning more about consensus building, conflict management, congregational growth, and social justice issues.

On July 1st, Action Wednesday (AWed) is a chance to gather for fellowship and learn about what's going on at UUFM. I welcome you to join me at 6 pm in the Alsop Room, whether you are interested in committee goings-on or if you would just enjoy the potluck dinner and conversation.

I take strength from the thoughtfulness and intellectual depth of this congregation. July brings three lay-led services and a guest sermon from Reverend Jordinn Nelson-Long, with themes of art, education, and finding your path.

This month, my waiting has to do with accepting that time will mellow the changes in those I love, will balance out changes in family, in work, and changes at the Fellowship. May your waiting bring you what you need most.

Katie

PS - I'd like to correct my error in the June newsletter: Jessica Sievers has just begun her term as UUFM Executive Board secretary ... thank you, Jessica!

Talk to UUFM Board Chair Katie Kingery-Page before or after Sunday services, or contact Katie at 341-5650 or kingerypage@gmail.com with your inspirations and concerns, or chat with any Board member. We want to hear from you!
