OCTOBER 2015
VOLUME 54, ISSUE 5

OCTOBER 2015 PROGRAMS

OCTOBER 4 "RELIGIOUS LANGUAGE WE LOVE TO HATE"

Rev Jonalu Johnstone reflects, "Unitarian Universalists have a complex relationship with religious language. Many of us have been wounded by traditional religious concepts or communities, so language carries baggage. Some of us have rejected notions that others hold dear. This is a next step in addressing the 'spirituality controversy.'" If you have words that you'd like to see included in this conversation, please email or call Rev Johnstone at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net.

OCTOBER 11 SPIRITUAL JOURNEY--CARRIE AND AUSTIN ROBERTS

This is another in our popular, periodic series learning about one another and how we have come together. Rev Jonalu Johnstone convenes. Contact Jonalu at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net.

OCTOBER 18 "THE MEANING OF MEMBERSHIP"

Rev Johnstone ponders, "Commitment to a particular institution forms the foundation of our free religious tradition. What does that commitment entail? What do we gain through membership? What do we recognize as we join in common cause?" During the service, will recognize and welcome new members. Contact Jonalu at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net.

As Unitarian Universalists, we like to welcome new young children into our congregation and commit ourselves to supporting them and their parents as they grow up. We will include a CHILD DEDICATION in our Sunday service on October 18. If you are a member of the congregation and have a child under 5, your child is welcome to be part of the ceremony. Learn more from Jonalu.

OCTOBER 25 KANSAS PULPIT EXCHANGE--REV DAVID CARTER

This fall, four KS UU congregations participate in a pulpit exchange designed to deepen the relationships between congregations and build our capacity for collaboration. Revs David Carter of First UU in Wichita, Jill Jarvis of UFL (Lawrence), Jonalu Johnstone of UUFM (Manhattan), and Sarah Oglesby-Dunegan of UUFT (Topeka) each preach once in each other's pulpit, with the exchange repeated in the spring. Let's see what creative ideas for future collaboration might emerge as we get to know each other better. Learn more from Rev Jonalu Johnstone at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net.

UUFM is a WELCOMING CONGREGATION

Learn more about the Welcoming Congregation initiative at www.uua.org/visitors/justicediversity/6252.shtml

A major thrust of my efforts in the last few weeks has been to try to get to know you as a congregation and as individuals and to try to get to know Manhattan. As I've said before, the notebook full of summaries about members, friends, and children and youth has been a tremendous help. I also appreciate the willingness of people to meet with me when I've asked, or to invite me. I continue to try to get to know you in these simple, basic ways. Relationships form the basis of ministry, so I don't think there can be too much of these individual, family, and small group meetings.

So, a few observations about the membership that you probably already know:

- Radina's has incredible popularity among UU members and friends, as does the Konza Prairie (which I have managed to visit and look forward to more).
- Besides university professors and support staff, our congregation includes a number of health care providers, teachers, and social workers, and a scattering of other careers, including farming, art, law, accounting, dog grooming, and the military.
- We include a surprising number of entomologists.
- Many people identify as humanist or atheist, but a number who see themselves as spiritual, despite lack of belief in God.
- There's a pretty wide acquaintance with Eastern religions, and interest in Native American and Pagan paths.
- We share lots of enthusiasm for outdoor activities and in music.
- Members have a wide variety of commitments to organizations that do good work in the community.

In the meantime, I'm also learning about Manhattan. Again, a few things I've learned:

- People are nice. Really, really nice. They stop for pedestrians, are patient in lines, talk calmly with their children, and seem sincere when they ask how you are.
- It's easy to get around. I'm really excited to be able to walk and bike a lot from my downtown apartment.
- I was surprised to find out how much poverty and homelessness have increased in the last few years.
- The university does dominate, but there are plenty of other opportunities around town, too.

- The religious community is pretty overwhelmingly Christian, but if you look closely, some alternatives exist, so there may be potential for interfaith collaborations.

I'm looking forward to learning more!

See you on Sunday (if not before), Jonalu

Talk to Rev Johnstone after Sunday services, or contact Jonalu at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net with your inspirations and concerns.

UUA COMMON READ DISCUSSION

"Simply punishing the broken--walking away from them or hiding them from sight--only ensures that they remain broken and we do, too. There is no wholeness outside of our reciprocal humanity," says Bryan Stevenson in JUST MERCY: A STORY OF JUSTICE AND REDEMPTION, this year's UUA Common Read. The themes of justice, mercy and compassion in the legal system touch on national and local concerns, particularly as the legal issues affect people of color, poor people, and children. Jonalu Johnstone invites you to join in an extended class on the book. We'll start on Thursday, OCTOBER 15, 7 to 8:30 pm, at the Fellowship with discussion of the Introduction and Chapters 1-3. At that session, we'll schedule future sessions. If you cannot attend that night, talk with Jonalu, 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net, to have input into the schedule. Learn more at www.uua.org/re/adults/read

MIDAMERICA SOUTHERN CLUSTER RETREAT

Each year, the UUA MidAmerica District's Southern Cluster (UU groups from Kansas, Nebraska, and western Missouri) hosts a rustic retreat to facilitate fellowship among regional congregations. For more information, or to register, visit www.southerncluster.org, or contact Charles Merrifield at cmerrifield@cox.net to learn more.

GROWTH WORKSHOP

If we want to be a beacon of liberal religious messages, we need to attend to how we invite people in and how we are hospitable to others and to one another. In an effort to consider what we do and what we may wish to do differently, everyone--leaders and friends, participants however committed or tentative--is invited to participate in a workshop on growth, Wednesday, OCTOBER 21, at the Fellowship. Jonalu will lead us in exploring the stages of involvement and deciding how we might approach them. We'll share a soup dinner at 6 pm; if you'd like to bring bread or dessert, talk to Shirley Hobrock. The workshop starts at 7 pm, wrapping up by 9 pm. Child-care by request; talk to Sandy Nelson. Hope you can join us! Learn more from Jonalu at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net.

Presenters included transgendered, transgendered families, pastors, educators, doctors and mental health workers. Topics of the presentations included Parenting a trans child, transgendered in rural vs urban areas (research), violence against trans women, financial cost of transgendering, federal and state policies for trans, transgendering for people of color and much, much more. This is an annual conference but the first time presented in Manhattan. Other presentations by K-STEP will take place this fall. Visit www.K-STEP.org

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

A Fellowship WORK DAY has been scheduled by our Facilities and Grounds Committees. We'll begin at about 9 am, on Saturday, October 24 (rain date is October 31). There are many ways to help. Volunteer to lead a project, or just help out; bring food for a potluck meal, at 12 noon: or bring tools, supplies, or a pick-up truck to help with various tasks. Some suggested projects include: tending Memorial Garden, clear weeds and plant vinca around children's raised garden bed, weed the medicine wheel, dusting inside, washing windows inside (and hopefully outside, if there's time), clean restrooms, determine if repairs/painting will save our picnic tables, scrape and re-varnish front entry doors, remove wild grape vines by road and on hill. If any projects match your interest or skills, please ask Sylvia Beeman at 539-9369 or sbeewoman@hotmail.com about materials needed, etc.

There are always openings for volunteers on our Sunday morning COFFEE AND GREETING TEAMS. New members and friends find this is a great way to get acquainted, and it's an easy way to give to the Fellowship with a minimal investment of time--three or four Sundays each year. Ask Harriette Janke at 539-0865 or ahjanke@cox.net

This month, Fellowship volunteers prepare and serve HAPPY KITCHEN COMMUNITY BREAKFAST on Friday, OCTOBER 2, 16, and 30, from 7 to 8:30 am, at St Paul's Episcopal Church. Two new volunteers are needed on October 4! Breakfast is free and open to the community, providing a good meal for many who might otherwise go without. All are invited, and free will donations help us continue this service. Jennifer Bryan at 760-6933 or snowbird@violinifer.com.

ALL ABOUT US

We are pleased to welcome our new member, LINDSAY SMITH. Lindsay is married to KATIE KINGERY-PAGE and father to Iris and Ruby, all active in the Fellowship. Lindsay was born and raised in Hutchinson. At 16, he took up bicycling, including cross-country trips. This experience, "...gave me the confidence to do things on my own and follow my path." As a result, he decided to come to KSU to pursue fine arts. He received his BFA from KSU and his Masters from the University of New Mexico. He is the exhibition designer at the Beach Museum. Lindsay knew of the Fellowship and members through his first wife (deceased). Katie's father, Tom Page enjoyed the idea of liberal activism. When he moved to Manhattan, Katie brought him here and the family followed. Lindsay says it has been a great experience. It took him a while to become a member. He wanted to be sure he could commit because he wants to be active "in all beautiful things." He'd like us to know that his association with art has been his incentive to keep doing his own art, which is currently mostly on paper. Thank you for joining us, Lindsay!

Please send your milestones, significant events, or news to Caring chair Linda Kroeger at 565-9645 or caring@uufm.net. We can't share it if we don't know!

There are many ways to help. Volunteer to lead a project, or just come help out; bring food for the potluck meal, at 12 noon: or bring tools or supplies to help with various tasks. Depending on the project you work on, you may need work gloves, weeding tools, trowels, shovels. We hope someone will be able to bring an extendable pruning tool, a chainsaw, and a pick-up truck! Some suggested projects include: tending the Memorial Garden, clearing weeds and planting vinca around children's raised garden bed, weeding the medicine wheel, dusting inside, washing windows inside (and hopefully outside, if there's time), cleaning restrooms, determine if repairs/painting will save our picnic tables, scrape and re-varnish front entry doors, remove wild grape vines by road and on hill. Dear Fellow UUs and Friends,

Last month, we had a whole congregational start-up meeting, followed by a Board meeting, to share our hopes and dreams for developmental ministry with Rev Jonalu Johnstone. Jonalu's presence as our full time minister brings a new, vital energy to us!

The Board has decided to accept structured support from the UUA MidAmerica Region office during the developmental period. We will have periodic check-ins with MidAmerica and at least one in person visit from their staff each year. The intent of this support is to help us track on our developmental goals as a congregation. Every day, I feel renewed commitment to our vision to be a safe haven, a bold model of love, and a visible beacon of hope. Please catch Jonalu, me, or another Board member after Sunday service to discuss your hopes and dreams for UUFM.

If you'd like to meet more UU's and network on social action in our region, please consider going to the Mid America Region Southern Cluster gathering [at Council Grove Lake, see page 4]. The Cluster will be focused on organizing for social action as a Kansas-Kansas City community, plus having a family friendly good time, and getting to know each other. October 17 will be the day of most of the meetings and family fun. Friday will be a day of relaxing and socializing in nature, and Sunday morning will be a time for a worship service and planning session. Now is the time to register. Please visit www.southernclusteruu.org for information and to register.

Love will guide us, Katie

Talk to UUFM Board Chair Katie Kingery-Page before or after Sunday services, or contact Katie at 341-5650 or kingerypage@gmail.com with your inspirations and concerns, or chat with any Board member. We want to hear from you!

WELCOMING BREAKFAST

On Sunday, OCTOBER 18, new members and friends are invited to a Welcoming Breakfast, which will be held at 9:30 am, prior to the morning service. During the service, a brief ceremony will be held to welcome and recognize recently joined members. If you'd like to get acquainted over Breakfast, or if you have been considering membership, please contact Shirley Hobrock at 776-3175 or shirleyjhobrock@hotmail.com.

CREATION CARE EVENTS

2015 UUFM CRAFT AND BAKE SALE

It's not too early to begin planning for our annual Craft and Bake Sale, which will be held following the Sunday service on DECEMBER 13. This has been one of our most successful fundraisers and is always fun for all. Now is the time for fabric/fiber artists, painters, crafters and artisans of all media to begin working on items to put in the sale. Bakers and candy makers may just be dreaming of sugarplums right now but will make delicious items later. If you are new to the Fellowship and have any questions about this wonderful annual event just ask. To find out how you can donate your crafts or baked goods, or to offer other assistance, talk to Betty Banner at 776-1887 or bettybanner@gmail.com
