

NOVEMBER 2015 PROGRAMS

NOVEMBER 1 "THE INVISIBLE KNAPSACK OF PRIVILEGE"

Dr. Deepak Subramony explores privilege and prejudice and considers the ways all of us experience both in our lives. Contact/convener is Elke Lorenz at 218-4014 or elkelorenz9@gmail.com.

NOVEMBER 8 "WHAT WE CANNOT DO ALONE"--KANSAS PULPIT EXCHANGE

Rev Jill Jarvis, of the Unitarian Fellowship of Lawrence, reflects, "A 1964 edition of The Kansas State Historical Society Quarterly states: 'Current denominational statistics reveal the failure of Unitarianism in Kansas.' There are reasons that both Unitarianism and Universalism, along with their liberal spirits, diminished greatly in Kansas. Modern-day Kansas UUs have been laying the groundwork to build a Beloved Community that has a real impact on our larger culture and people's lives. What is the Beloved Community, and who is included in it? Join us to hear about new initiatives for shared resources, interfaith legislative action, and new connections for spiritual deepening." Contact/convener is Jessica Sievers at 532-8471 or sieversj@gmail.com.

NOVEMBER 15 "THE TENSES AND TENSIONS OF COVENANT"

Rev Johnstone ponders, "UU congregations organize around covenant rather than creed, binding us to Unitarians and Universalists in the past who bequeathed us traditions, and committing us to the future yet to be discerned. As individuals we relate covenantally to our particular congregation, but our congregations exist in covenant to one another. What does that mean for how we organize and how we live out our missions in the world?" Contact/convener is Scott Tanona at 537-6208 or stanona@sbcglobal.net.

NOVEMBER 22 "FAMILY: COMMITMENTS, CHALLENGES AND CHOICES"

Rev Jonalu Johnstone asks, "As we approach the holiday season, much energy and attention goes into family. What better time to consider what family means to us? How do we determine what commitments we will make and keep? What do we do when family doesn't meet our expectations? How do we create our own family connections? In short, how do we organize our lives to give and receive love?" Contact/convener is Kelly Richardson-McBee at (262) 357-4534 or richardson.kelly.a@gmail.com.

NOVEMBER 29 TBA

Watch for program description in our weekly email announcements.

WELCOMING CONGREGATION

I promised during the sermon on religious language a few weeks ago to investigate the word "sermon." I didn't like what I found. Indeed, the negative connotations of the word have been built into the current dictionary definitions. Words like "reproof," "exhortation," and even "tedious" come up. Sermons, indeed, seem to be about making judgments and calling listeners to account. That's not what I learned in my preaching class with now-retired UU minister Judy Hoehler. Nor is it my experience with well-developed sermons by the best preachers I have heard. (And, I know, "preaching" has many of the same disturbing connotations. Sigh.)

I have always used the word "sermon" in order to distinguish it from other kinds of talks: "lecture," which is primarily about conveying information; "discourse," which has a more philosophical feel; "oration," which is way too grand; "speech," which is what politicians give; "homily," which traditionally has been very short; and just plain "talk," which doesn't say much at all about what it is.

The question, it seems to me, is about what we intend to do in the time we spend together on Sunday mornings. For me, we are crafting an experience that we share as a gathered congregation that will invite us into deeper reflection on our values and on the meaning of our lives, as we strengthen and develop the bonds of community. Everything that is part of the service--the music, the readings, the story, the Joys and Sorrows, the offertory, the announcements, the people in the room, the aesthetic setting, everything--should work together to create that shared experience. The goal, then, of the words offered during that twenty to thirty minute chunk of time that I, or someone, is talking, is to contribute to the experience. So, how do we bring together values, meaning, and community through those words?

A couple of people have used the word "provocation" to describe what I have called a sermon. True, that time should provoke us to think more deeply about our lives--not in a way that says "do this, not that"--but in a way that invites examination, meditation, perhaps even change. But "provocation" doesn't seem to be exactly the right word, because there's more. This talk may also offer comfort, raise a new way of looking at something, remind us of an old way of looking at something; it may reinforce our thinking, or overturn it; it may fill us full of emotion or leave us longing for something that is missing.

For the time being, I have decided to use the word "reflection" for the talk I offer during the service. I like that reflection can mean thoughtful consideration on a topic, and also that its other meanings imply a relationship between surfaces and light that provide a metaphor for how such a talk works in a congregation. When my reflections are at their best, they will reflect, or bounce back to you, what I am hearing in the congregation, but perhaps through a different lens. At any rate, I hope my words--whatever they are called--are helpful in discerning meaning, examining values, and strengthening community.

See you on Sunday, Jonalu

Talk to Rev Johnstone after Sunday programming, or contact Jonalu at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net with your inspirations and concerns.

RE NEWS

CLASSES ...

Students are having a wonderful time exploring our Judeo-Christian heritage through Bible stories and neighboring church visits. There are many similarities and differences and the discussions that have evolved have been delightful.

Toward the end of November, some classes are taking a short break from the regular curriculum and focusing on "Holidays and Holy days" as well the UUSC service project "Guest at your Table." We'll loosen up, explore Christmas carols, do lots of art, and maybe find time for play-acting. And who knows, maybe there will be some early snow and we'll all go sledding.

See you soon, Sandy

Remember: all children must be registered for the 2015-2016 year and registration forms are available on the RE bulletin board at the end of the hallway as well as online at <http://form.jotform.us/form/51486475507160>

Learn more about all family and youth activities at the Fellowship from Director of Religious Education Sandy Nelson at 341-0135 or DRE@uufm.net

NOVEMBER FAMILY FUN (FOR EVERYONE!)

Join us following the service on Sunday, NOVEMBER 29, for our traditional post-Thanksgiving Soup Supper, hosted by the UUFM Social Committee. Committee members will provide soup, and those attending are invited to bring bread, fruit, salads, desserts or other side dishes to round out the meal. Of course, there's always plenty to go around, so for those unable to contribute a dish, we hope you'll stay for a good meal and great company. Students assist with a collection for the Bread Basket that morning. Learn more, and find out how you can help from Courtney Albin at 317-8157 or courtney.albin@gmail.com.

DRE'S SCHEDULE

In November, Director of Religious Education Sandy Nelson will be in the Fellowship office on TUESDAYS and THURSDAYS (with exception of Nov 26, Thanksgiving Day), from 3:30 to 4:30 pm. Speak to Sandy most Sunday mornings, or contact her at 341-0135 or dre@uufm.net

PARENT NIGHT OUT

Bring the kids for Parent Night Out on the first Friday of each month. On NOVEMBER 6 drop the kids off at 6:30 and pick them up at 9:30 pm. We'll play games, create some art, watch a movie, and have a healthy snack. A $5 per child voluntary contribution helps us cover our expenses. Please RSVP no later than Thursday, November 5, so that Sandy Nelson can gather supplies and arrange volunteers. Contact Sandy at 341-0135 or dre@uufm.net.

OUR WHOLE LIVE (OWL) CLASSES

Our Whole Lives (OWL) classes will be held mid-January through mid-March. OWL is a respected UU sexual education program. Children learn in an accurate and age-appropriate way about human development, relationships, personal skills, sexual behavior, sexual health, and society and culture. The core values are self worth, sexual health, responsibility, and justice, and inclusivity. Our intent is to offer the K to 1st grade curriculum and the 4th to 6th grade curriculum. It all depends on interest and class numbers. If you have children within those age ranges and would like to enroll them in OWL, or if you simply have questions about the OWL program, contact Sandy Nelson at dre@uufm.net or RE Chair Molly McGaughey at molly\_mcgaughey@hotmail.com.

A STAR IN OUR MIDST ...

Molly McGaughey, chair of the UUFM RE Committee, and teacher in our 7th to 10th grade class, is an internet star! She was recently interviewed by the UUA Children and Families Program Director about the Virtue Ethics curriculum used with our teens last spring. You may remember the wonderful service that they led at the end of May. Watch the service at uufm.net/2015/05/audio-archive-may-31-virtue-ethics/. Now, you can watch Molly sing the praises of our youth and the curriculum at: www.uua.org/re/tapestry/youth/virtueethics. The video is on the right-hand side of the page. Hats off to Molly for shining such a positive light on our program and UUFM!

JUST MERCY - UUA COMMON READ DISCUSSION

On Thursday, October 15, we had a small turnout for our conversation on Just Mercy: A Story of Justice and Redemption, by Bryan Stevenson. His legal representation of people who are poor, of color, minors, and/or sentenced to the death penalty raises challenges about the fairness of our justice system. Interestingly, we are considering similar issues in the Manhattan-Riley County Coalition for Equal Justice as we examine the racial disparities in arrest rates for marijuana. Some of us would like to talk more about the book and its implications for our work in the community, as well as its intersections with other justice issues. If you are interested, please talk to Jonalu Johnstone at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net, to have input into future scheduling. Learn more at www.uua.org/re/adults/read.

SOUP LUNCHEON

The Social Committee hosts a Soup Lunch following the morning program, on the Sunday after Thanksgiving (November 29). A variety of soups will be provided, and those attending may bring bread, fruit, desserts, or other side dishes to help us round out the meal. Of course, there's always plenty to go around, so we hope everyone will join us. Learn more, and find out how you can help, from Courtney Albin at 317-8157 or courtney.albin@gmail.com.

The Humane Society works closely with area shelters to promote adoptions, and is supported by public donations and modest membership dues. Learn more at www.rchsk.org.

On October 11, Fellowship members and friends contributed the morning's collection of $585 to The Crisis Center. Thank you all for your generous donations!!! Learn more from Helping Hands coordinator Dixie Moreau at 477-8188 or dixie.moreau53@att.net.

Equal Exchange whole bean, ground, and decaf coffees, as well as chocolate and tea are available for purchase. To learn more, or to purchase fair trade products, see Anne Cowan following Sunday morning services at the Fair Trade display in the Fellowship's narthex, or contact her at 537-2025 or acowan@uufm.net.

PERSONAL CARE PRODUCT COLLECTION

Thanks to everyone who contributed personal care items for folks at The Crisis Center and the Manhattan Emergency Shelter, in October. Through your donations we were able to provide a large supply of personal size soap, shampoo, and conditioner. We also received body lotion, deodorant, razors, toothbrushes and toothpaste. Talk to Betty Banner at 776-1887 or bettybanner@gmail.com for information on our next personal care product collection.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Can you offer assistance for one event, or just an occasional hour or two? Many of our committees welcome one-time volunteers. Courtney Albin, SOCIAL Committee chair (courtney.albin@hotmail.com), sometimes needs help setting up, or cleaning up after a party or meal. Sylvia Beeman, our stalwart GROUNDS chair (sbeewoman@hotmail.com), needs folks who can fill in watering or help with a project. Do you enjoy connecting with new friends? Ask Shirley Hobrock (shirleyjhobrock@hotmail.com), our WELCOMING Committee chair, about opportunities to help with a welcoming and greeting event, held roughly every three months. Linda Kroeger, CARING Committee chair, (llkroeger@gmail.com) arranges rides, makes home visits, sends flowers and cards to members experiencing joyous or difficult life events, and will happily find a way you can help just one morning or afternoon.

There are always openings for volunteers on our Sunday morning COFFEE AND GREETING TEAMS. New members and friends find this is a great way to get acquainted, and it's an easy way to give to the Fellowship with a minimal investment of time--three or four Sundays each year. Ask Harriette Janke at 539-0865 or ahjanke@cox.net

This month, Fellowship volunteers prepare and serve HAPPY KITCHEN COMMUNITY BREAKFAST on Friday, NOVEMBER 13 and 27, from 7 to 8:30 am, at St Paul's Episcopal Church. Two new volunteers are needed on November 4! Breakfast is free and open to the community, providing a good meal for many who might otherwise go without. All are invited, and free will donations help us continue this service. Jennifer Bryan at 760-6933 or snowbird@violinifer.com.

A BRIEF FINANCIAL UPDATE FROM OUR TREASURER

One-third of our fiscal year is now complete. A Chalice Lighters Grant for $12,000 and Ministerial Transition contributions have helped meet expenses and then some at this point. As the year moves on, however, we will need to bring in all the pledges and then some. If you haven't pledged yet, please do so soon. Expenses are in line with budget expectations. If we all keep doing our part, we should come in about as expected. Currently, at the end of September, income was $48,418 and expenses $43,351. Thank you for your generosity as we grow and thrive with our new minister, Rev Jonalu Johnstone.

-- Kathleen Oldfather

Learn more about Fellowship finances, or make your pledge. Contact Fellowship Treasurer Kathleen Oldfather at 537-3738 or kjoldfather@gmail.com.

WORDS FROM OUR CHAIR -- KATIE KINGERY-PAGE

Dear Fellow UUs and Friends,

A lasting gift I have received from this fellowship was the chance to attend a week at UUA MidWest Leadership School last summer. This gift was given by farsighted members who joined together some years ago to establish a lay leadership fund. During the Leadership School week, we each filled out a postcard to ourselves, a note to remind of us of what we learned or experienced. My postcard arrived a few days ago. On it, I had written, "whose are you?"

Not "who are you" (heck, I can easily answer that), but "whose are you?"--a spiritual question intended to bring a person deeper into true service and purpose. My best answers to this question take me closer to my motivation for leadership at UUFM. I think we make a difference in people's lives, and I think we have more "difference" to make.

As Rev Johnstone hosts a reading group this month on *Just Mercy: A Story of Justice and Redemption*, she opens an opportunity for us to examine issues of race, criminal justice inequity, bias, and institutionalized discrimination. In her role as our leader, Rev Johnstone has become active with the Coalition for Equal Justice (CEJ), an interfaith and community group that's asking our community to end racial bias in traffic stops and marijuana arrests. The CEJ is asking Manhattan/Riley County to care that African American people are 4 times more likely than white people to be arrested in our community on marijuana charges, despite national data that use of the substance is equal in among both demographics ...To care that these arrests can devastate lives, affect employment, and disrupt families.

And so I ask: Whose are you? Perhaps you are moved to serve at UUFM because you love teaching our children, because the work of caring for others lifts you up, or because you enjoy keeping our facility and grounds beautiful. Perhaps you feel a calling to work for positive change in our community. Perhaps you'd like to network with other UUs across the Midwest, to take a stand on social justice issues.

"Whose" are you? There are many ways, great and small, that you can be part of UUFM, whether to build our internal community, or to shine our light in the broader community. We currently need a Communications Committee chair; if you may be that special person, or if you'd like to serve UUFM in another way, please contact me, chair-elect Matt Campbell, or Rev Johnstone.

Love will guide us, Katie

Talk to UUFM Board Chair Katie Kingery-Page after Sunday services, or contact Katie at 341-5650 or kingerypage@gmail.com with your inspirations and concerns, or chat with any Board member.

GROWTH WORKSHOP REPORT -- REV JONALU JOHNSTONE

About 20 UUFM members and friends gathered on Oct. 21 to discuss how we might help make room for new people and get them interested in our congregation. We talked through the stages of member assimilation: recruiting/attracting (or for the individual, searching), testing, returning, joining, going deeper and being sent. We identified some strengths, including: the activism of our members in the community, the website, religious education for children and youth, the beautiful facility, and that members actually invite others to come to the Fellowship. A few of the needs we agreed on were: crowding at coffee hour, lack of consistent adult religious education, improved signage, and wanting to bring more outside people into the building for various activities. The Board will be looking at a more detailed report and coming up with some actions to take. If you'd like more information, or to be involved with the growth effort, talk with Jonalu after Sunday services, or contact her at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net.

2015 UUFM CRAFT AND BAKE SALE

Mark your calendars and make your plans for our annual Craft and Bake Sale, which will be held following the Sunday service on DECEMBER 13. Members and friends find this is the perfect way to fill out those holiday gift lists with unique, handcrafted items and yummy holiday treats. The sale has been one of our most successful fundraisers and is always fun for all. Now is the time for fabric/fiber artists, painters, crafters and artisans of all media to begin working on items to put in the sale. Bakers and candy makers may just be dreaming of sugarplums right now but will make delicious items later. If you are new to the Fellowship and have any questions about this wonderful annual event just ask. To find out how you can donate your crafts or baked goods, or to offer other assistance, talk to Betty Banner at 776-1887 or
