JANUARY 2016

VOLUME 54, ISSUE 8

JANUARY 2016 PROGRAMS

JANUARY 3 "NOTABLE DEATHS OF 2015"

Each year we devote a Sunday service to remembering the famous--and not-so-famous--people who died during the past year. Several UUFM members share reflections on the contributions of acquaintances and strangers whose lives touched them. Contact/convener is Michael Oldfather at 537-3738 or mou812@ksu.edu.

JANUARY 10 "WHO DO WE SERVE?"

Rev Jonalu Johnstone reflects, "Cicero said, 'Not for us alone are we born; our country, our friends, have a share in us.' If we're not careful, we can feel torn by the many calls from the various people and causes that draw us. How do we prioritize? How do we find who we serve--as individuals, but also as a congregational community?" Contact/convener is Kelly Richardson-McBee at 262 357-4534 or richardson.kelly.a@gmail.com.

JANUARY 17 "DR KING'S LIFE STILL MATTERS:

AN EXPLORATION OF THE HISTORY AND FUTURE OF RACE"

Rev Johnstone considers, "With all the attention to #Black Lives Matter in recent months, we must recognize that racial disparities still exist. How did Dr King give us guidance for these difficult times, and what has changed since his assassination?" Contact/convener is Jessica Sievers at 532-8471 or sieversj@gmail.com.

JANUARY 24 KANSAS PULPIT EXCHANGE: REV DAVID CARTER

Rev David Carter, of the First Unitarian Universalist Church of Wichita, joins us as we continue a regular pulpit exchange between Kansas UU congregations. Contact/convener is Tom Phillips at (405) 880-6483 or twp1@k-state.edu.

Read about an exciting opportunity for Kansas UUs to join together in Social Justice work, originating with this exchange of ideas, in BUILDING THE BELOVED COMMUNITY, on page 2 of this newsletter.

JANUARY 31 VISION SERIES: "A SAFE HAVEN"

Jonalu Johnstone introduces this exploration of UUFM's Vision Statement, "Each service will tackle one part of the vision statement, beginning with 'a safe haven.' What would it take for us to truly embody a safe haven, not only for those of us already here, but for those who might find Unitarian Universalism helpful? How do we need to engage to create safe space for others, as well as ourselves?" Contact/convener is Mark Clarke at 341-7308 or ibyte64@gmail.com. [Review the full UUFM VISION STATEMENT on page 8.]

JONALU'S JOURNAL -- REV JONALU JOHNSTONE

*When the song of the angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and princes are home,
When the shepherds are back with their flock,
The work of Christmas begins:
to find the lost, to heal the broken, to feed the hungry, to release the prisoners, to rebuild the nations, to bring peace among the [siblings], to make music in the heart.*

These words from African American minister Howard Thurman challenge us to move from December to January, from the Christmas season to constructive work to make the world more like we long for it to be. The Gandhi-King-Gyatso Season for Non-violence doesn't begin until the end of the month, but the Unitarian Universalist "30 Days of Love" kick off on January 16, with racial justice being this year's theme.

Unitarian Universalist "30 Days of Love" kick off on January 16, with racial justice being this year's theme.

The problem of realizing social justice is so huge that working at it can discourage us. My reaction often is, "Haven't I already done this?" Feeding the hungry, healing the sick, ministering to the imprisoned--all of these are literally endless tasks. Even making significant social change--agitating for civil rights for all people without regard for race, gender, sexual orientation, or gender identity; working for the elimination of poverty through living wages and adequate social supports; creating support systems to help people escape domestic violence, sexual slavery, or addiction--so many of these efforts seem to be two steps forward, one step back, demanding continual attention to hold onto any small gains achieved. How do we maintain our commitment to making a difference?

There are some ways to diminish discouragement. One is to do the work together. Together, we have more ideas and more power. We support one another, reassure each other in times of failure, celebrate together in times of victory, and strategize together in times of confusion. The work--and it is work--is much easier with more hands. Another strategy is to recognize the difficult changes that have already come. Same sex marriage, once unimaginable, is now legal. Women and people of color, though still without economic parity, have many more opportunities than even fifty years ago. Voting rights, though under attack, are more universal than they once were. Environmental awareness has increased, as pollution as decreased, even if we still find ourselves overly dependent on fossil fuels. When we can see ourselves as part of a long line of people striving for justice, then we can find a confidence that our modest efforts, in the long run, are worth it.

We aren't all able to have an earth-shattering impact. But our small daily efforts matter. Maybe it's educating our children about equality, offering kindness to a stranger, writing a small check, or volunteering a few hours. As we move into the New Year, perhaps our resolutions can focus not only on personal improvements, but also on how we want to make a difference in the world.

In faith and freedom, Jonalu

Talk to Rev Johnstone after Sunday programming, or contact Jonalu at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net with your inspirations and concerns.

LGBT ANTI-DISCRIMINATION ORDINANCE

As many of you are probably aware, a group of local ministers, including our own Jonalu Johnstone, has written the Manhattan City Commission asking for restoration of the ordinance forbidding discrimination based on sexual orientation and gender identity in employment and public accommodation. You can read the full text of the letter on the minister's blog on our website at www.uufm.net/topic/minister-blog/. A Procedural Justice Focus Group conducted on behalf of the RCPD will meet in the sanctuary on Sunday, JANUARY 10. Learn more on page 4.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

STUDENTS MADE ICE CANDLES
IN DECEMBER.

RE NEWS

Last month we took a little break from regular Sunday school classes and had some holiday fun. (Making ice candles was a big hit.) In January, the Kindergarten to 2nd grade class is starting a four-week unit on the globe with Dan Swenson. Topics include: north, south, east, west, day, night, spring, summer, autumn, winter, and the moon.

See you soon, Sandy

Remember: all children must be registered for the 2015-2016 year. Registration forms are available on the RE bulletin board at the end of the hallway as well as online at www.form.jotform.us/form/51486475507160

Learn more about all family and youth activities at the Fellowship from Director of Religious Education Sandy Nelson at 341-0135 or DRE@uufm.net

OUR WHOLE LIVES (OWL) CLASSES

Our Whole Lives (OWL) for those in Kindergarten and 1st grade starts in January and runs through mid-March. The weekly one-hour sessions engage children with stories, songs, and activities and include a weekly HomeLink--a homework project for parents and children to do together. If you have questions about this nationally acclaimed curriculum, or if you intend to sign up your child(ren) for the class, please attend a PARENT INFORMATIONAL MEETING on Sunday, JANUARY 3, or Sunday, JANUARY 10, after the morning service. # SOCIAL ACTION AT UUFM

HELPING HANDS SUNDAY

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Can you offer assistance for one event, or just an occasional hour or two? Many of our committees welcome one-time volunteers. Marisa Larson (marisa.larson@gmail.com), chair of our COMMUNICATIONS Committee, seeks help, suggestions, and inspiration with publicity and communications activities. Courtney Albin, SOCIAL Committee chair (courtney.albin@hotmail.com), sometimes needs help setting up, or cleaning up after a party or meal. Sylvia Beeman, our stalwart GROUNDS chair (sbeewoman@hotmail.com), needs folks who can fill in watering or help with a project. Do you enjoy connecting with new friends? Ask Shirley Hobrock (shirleyjhobrock@hotmail.com), our WELCOMING Committee chair, about opportunities to help with a welcoming and greeting event, held roughly every three months. All committee leaders will happily find a way you can help just one morning or afternoon.

There are always openings for volunteers on our Sunday morning COFFEE AND GREETING TEAMS. New members and friends find this is a great way to get acquainted, and it's an easy way to give to the Fellowship with a minimal investment of time--three or four Sundays each year. Ask Harriette Janke at 539-0865 or ahjanke@cox.net

This month, Fellowship volunteers prepare and serve HAPPY KITCHEN COMMUNITY BREAKFAST on Friday, JANUARY 8 and 22, from 7 to 8:30 am, at St Paul's Episcopal Church. Two new volunteers are needed on January 4! Breakfast is free and open to the community, providing a good meal for many who might otherwise go without. All are invited, and free will donations help us continue this service. Jennifer Bryan at 760-6933 or snowbird@violinifer.com.

Each month on the second Sunday, our Social Action Committee selects a non-profit agency or organization to receive the morning offering. On Sunday, JANUARY 10, Helping Hands contributions will be collected for the UFM PROJECT EXCELL, providing a college-like experience to developmentally delayed adults. Learn more about this program at www.tryufm.org/excell.html.

On December 13, Fellowship members and friends contributed the morning's collection toward a holiday shopping trip for two families adopted by the Fellowship, living at the Manhattan Emergency shelter. Thank you all for your generous donations!!! Learn more from Helping Hands coordinator Dixie Moreau at 477-8188 or dixie.moreau53@att.net.

FAIR TRADE COFFEE, TEA, AND CHOCOLATE

Equal Exchange whole bean, ground, and decaf coffees, as well as chocolate and tea are available for purchase. To learn more, or to purchase fair trade products, see Anne Cowan following Sunday morning services at the Fair Trade display in the Fellowship's narthex, or contact her at 537-2025 or anne_cowan@sbcglobal.net.

Equal Exchange works in collaboration with the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee (UUSC). They source goods directly from farmer cooperatives, following the standards and principles of fair trade on 100 percent of its products.

SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE MEETING

The UUFM Social Action Committee meets following the Awed Potluck dinner, on Wednesday, JANUARY 6, at 7 pm. All members and friends with an interest in Social Justice action are encouraged to attend. Learn more from Anne Cowan at 537-2025 or anne_cowan@sbcglobal.net.

BUILDING THE BELOVED COMMUNITY

Our Kansas pulpit exchange is leading towards more effective social justice collaboration, particularly in legislative advocacy. Kansas UU congregations have organized a gathering to plan our justice work together in 2016. Join us on Saturday, FEBRUARY 6, 9 am to 4:30 pm, at the UU Fellowship of Topeka. What are your top three issues for 2016? Who are your partners in advocacy? What do we need to learn in order to be effective? Our goal is to have members from each UU congregation attend and any partners we do justice work with--other faith communities or organizations. The more the merrier! Building relationship is important to doing justice work together! Learn more on FaceBook at Building the Beloved Community: Social Justice Conference, or ask Jonalu Johnstone at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net.

FINANCIAL UPDATE FROM OUR TREASURER

UUFM's financial year is half over. As of November 30, our income was $73,647. But we know that during the first part of the year we received a Chalice Lighter's Grant of $12,000 and numerous extra gifts for the ministerial transition years, so the second half of the year will be tougher. Please make a pledge if you have not, and continue to give, as you are able. Expenses as of November 30 were $71,634. Expenses are very close to what was budgeted last spring. We expect expenses the last six months to be greater than the first six months as our ministerial time, services, RE, social action and other programs grow.

Thank you for all your gifts during 2015. We've accomplished a lot together. I will send out notices of all contributions during the past year in early January.

-- Kathleen Oldfather

Learn more about Fellowship finances, or make your pledge. Contact Fellowship Treasurer Kathleen Oldfather at 537-3738 or kjoldfather@gmail.com.

GETTING TO KNOW YOU ...

We are pleased to welcome one of our newer members, AUSTIN ROBERTS. You'll find him on Sundays running the sound system, along with Doug Walters. Austin was born in Overland Park, Kansas, and grew up in Merriam/Eudora. He graduated from KSU with a degree in mechanical engineering and now works in the Physics Department. He and his wife Carrie discovered the Fellowship in a unique way. When they were planning their wedding, they looked for wedding vows. They found Unitarian ones, and thought, "That lines up perfectly! Why didn't we know about this place?" When they came to our services for the first time, most of the members were in Topeka for an event, so the attendance was sparse. That was nice because they were not overwhelmed from the beginning. Austin liked what he heard and returned. He and Carrie joined for a chance to build a community and to, "Be more than just ourselves." Austin appreciates the opportunities we have here to better ourselves. He also feels very welcomed and has set a personal goal to be welcoming toward others. We are so glad that you and Carrie are with us, Austin!

Please send your milestones, significant events, or personal news to Caring chair Linda Kroeger at 565-9645 or llkroeger@gmail.com. We can't share it if we don't know!

UUFM DIRECTORY UPDATE

There has been some discussion about adding updated pages to our current Directory. There are about 20 new members and friends who are not pictured in the last Directory (winter of 2014).

We'll try to use pictures we have already taken of new members. If you were not in the last Directory and would like to be included please contact Shirley Hobrock at 776-3175 or shirleyjhobrock@hotmail.com.

You don't need to be a member to be included in the Directory. We will also include your address, preferred phone contact, and email address. We hope to put it all together in January.

LET'S MEET FOR LUNCH AFTER THE SERVICE

UU members and friends meet for lunch following Sunday services and coffee and conversation time at various restaurants in our community. Check the order of service announcement each Sunday, or contact Shirley Hobrock at 776-3175 or shirleyjhobrock@hotmail.com to find out where we'll be meeting each week.

UUFM Vision Statement

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Manhattan, rooted in living tradition, embraces diversity in all its forms as it expands our thinking and our sense of community.

We are:

- † A safe haven for spiritual, intellectual, and emotional growth through honest self-examination, provocative dialogue, enriching experiences, and ever-deepening connections ...
- † An incubator for the next generation of UUs, fostering spiritual and ethical exploration tailored to age and stage and promoting intergenerational unity ...
- † Vibrant, open, and inspirational in what we say and do ...
- † A bold model of love, compassion, social action, and justice for ourselves, our society, and our planet ...
- † Builders of bridges across faiths and boundaries to honor our shared humanity and common values ...
- † A visible beacon of liberal religious messages of hope and meaning in our local community.

Get involved in our Fellowship's campaign for the national Unitarian Universalist Service Committee (UUSC) program,
