

FEBRUARY 2016 PROGRAMS

FEBRUARY 7 "APPRECIATION OF BEAUTY: SUBJECTIVE OR OBJECTIVE?"

Why do we like one piece of music more and another less? How do we arrive at a decision like this? Are aesthetic judgments objective, or purely subjective? Can a good taste be developed? What do our judgments say about us? Fellowship pianist Slawomir Dobrzanski discusses the idea of beauty in music. Contact/convener is Jennifer Bryan at 760-6933 or snowbird@violinifer.com.

FEBRUARY 14 VISION SERIES: "AN INCUBATOR FOR THE NEXT GENERATION"

This is the second in a series of reflections arising from the words of the Fellowship's vision statement (view full text of vision statement on page 8). Rev Jonalu Johnstone asks, "What values do we wish to see embodied in the next generation? How do we teach these values? What preparation will our children and grandchildren need to live in their particular place in the global village?" Contact Jonalu at 527-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net.

FEBRUARY 21 VISION SERIES: "VIBRANT, OPEN AND INSPIRATIONAL"

Continuing our exploration of the UUFM Vision Statement (see page 8), Rev Johnstone reflects, "It's easy to slip into rote behaviors and habitual actions, much harder to be open to what may come and thrive on the energy created, whatever it may be. How do we reflect these adjectives in our vision statement? Do we feel energy here? Are we open to new ideas and new ways of being? How do we inspire our members and friends? Maybe we could even become EPIC--experiential, participatory, image-driven and connected!" Marisa Larson, at 240 305-0895 or marisa.larson@gmail.com, convenes.

FEBRUARY 28 KANSAS PULPIT EXCHANGE:

DELUDED INDIVIDUALISM AND BELOVED COMMUNITY

Rev Jill Jarvis of the Unitarian Fellowship of Lawrence reflects, "Professor of Philosophy Firmin Debrabander claims in a New York Times article, that Americans lack a social understanding of human beings. Our belief that we're independent agents, which he calls 'Deluded Individualism,' is not only irrational but also takes a heavy emotional toll on us. In recent decades Unitarian Universalists have sought a better balance away from extreme individualism and toward a greater sense of community. But there are different and more complex challenges waiting beyond our walls, in building relationships with interfaith community partners." Read about an exciting opportunity for Kansas UUs to come together for Social Justice, originating with this exchange of ideas, in BUILDING THE BELOVED COMMUNITY, on page 5 of this newsletter.

UUFM is a
WELCOMING CONGREGATION
Learn more about the Welcoming Congregation initiative at www.uua.org/visitors/justicediversity/6252.shtml

When UUFM chose to recruit a Developmental Minister rather than go through a regular search process for a minister, the Fellowship committed to change. The particular goals you developed were to become more involved in the community, to accept ministerial leadership, and to grow in membership. It's one thing to say we want change and another to make it happen. If you made New Years resolutions that have already gone by the wayside, then you have an idea of how hard change really is.

Our patterns and habits as individuals get wired into our brains. Popular thinking has it that new habits take twenty-one days to become established. Wrong! Scientific studies say it takes quite a bit longer, at least a couple of months generally, though there's a lot of variability.

How much more complicated, then, is it for a system like a congregation to make change?

In our Fellowship, we're experimenting with a lot of things--more music in services, a gathering song to bring people together, expanding involvement and recognition of our role in the community, varying how and whether we do discussion in services, adding some options for adult religious education, and beginning in February, moving coffee hour to the Alsop Room. These small changes shake things up a little so that we quit habits that may be done without awareness. We won't know if there might be better ways if we keep doing things a particular way only because it's familiar and comfortable. Change invites reflection about why we do what we do.

Making change requires looking at our environment and practices with new eyes. What would this look and feel like to someone who had never seen it before? Not only does this help us become more hospitable to guests, but it also can improve the experience and ambience for us all.

When change is going on around you, consider taking a new look. You might find you want to rearrange your old habits.

In faith and freedom, Jonalu

Talk to Rev Johnstone after Sunday programming, or contact Jonalu at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net with your inspirations and concerns.

SUNDAY SERVICES: VISION SERIES

As we engage in the vision series of services, where we examine the vision statement of UUFM (view full text of the UUFM Vision Statement on page 8), Jonalu invites comments on each section of the vision. A week prior to each service, she will post on the UUFM Coffee and Conversation Facebook group, inviting comments on the upcoming phrase to find out how you connect with the vision. If you are not a part of that Facebook group, contact Jonalu or Aimee Fowler to be added. If you don't participate in Facebook, send your comments directly to Jonalu by email, phone, note, carrier pigeon, or any other way you regularly communicate. Contact Jonalu at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net. Aimee Fowler may be reached at aimee.mae@gmail.com.

CONVENERS' TRAINING

Members and friends with an interest, or curiosity, about convening Sunday services are invited to a conveners' training on Sunday, FEBRUARY 21, following the service, led by Rev Jonalu with the Sunday Services Committee. There'll be a chance for gentle and supportive feedback and sharing of resources. You may learn to better appreciate the Sunday morning experience. We meet from 12:15 to 2 pm in the sanctuary. Snacks will be provided. Let us know if you need childcare. Contact Jonalu at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

*Get involved! Volunteers are needed to continue HAPPY KITCHEN COMMUNITY

BREAKFASTS. This month, Fellowship volunteers prepare and serve breakfast on Friday, FEBRUARY 5 and 19, from 7 to 8:30 am, at St Paul's Episcopal Church. Breakfast is free and open to the community, providing a good meal for many who might otherwise go without. All are invited, and free will donations help us continue this service. Learn more from Jennifer Bryan at 760-6933 or snowbird@violinifer.com.

Can you offer assistance for one event, or just an occasional hour or two? Many of our committees welcome one-time volunteers. Marisa Larson (marisa.larson@gmail.com), chair of our COMMUNICATIONS Committee, seeks help, suggestions, and inspiration with publicity and communications activities. Courtney Albin, COMMUNICATIONS Committee chair (courtney.albin@hotmail.com), sometimes needs help setting up, or cleaning up after a party or meal. Sylvia Beeman, our stalwart COMMUNICATIONS chair (sbeewoman@hotmail.com), needs folks who can fill in watering or help with a project. Do you enjoy connecting with new friends? Ask Shirley Hobrock (shirleyjhobrock@hotmail.com), our WELCOMING Committee chair, about opportunities to help with a welcoming and greeting event, held roughly every three months. All committee leaders will happily find a way you can help just one morning or afternoon.

There are always openings for volunteers on our Sunday morning COFFEE AND GREETING TEAMS. New members and friends find this is a great way to get acquainted, and it's an easy way to give to the Fellowship with a minimal investment of time--three or four Sundays each year. Ask Harriette Janke at 539-0865 or ahjanke@cox.net

UUFM DIRECTORY UPDATE

The new UUFM Directory is being worked on by various volunteers. Jessica Sievers is taking pictures for anyone needing a new picture. Shirley Hobrock is updating information (new address, email, cell phone number etc.). Tom Manney is removing old pictures and putting in new ones. Kim Belanger is working on the cover. Please contact one of us if you need a picture or if there is a change in information from the old Directory. We need to receive pictures and updated contact information by February 15. WORDS FROM OUR CHAIR

The new year isn't just here, it is upon us with brilliance! New energy, new ideas, and new projects are taking root. The many volunteers in this generous Fellowship are busy doing what they do: quietly sustaining us and making change in the broader world. We have enjoyed very robust attendance on Sundays, the sanctuary filled with voices and hardly a spare seat in the house.

In February, I look forward to new events (the February 6 meeting of UUs from across Kansas to organize for social justice) [SEE PAGE 5--BUILDING BELOVED COMMUNITY] and traditional ones (our Winter Dinner that same evening) [SEE PAGE 4].

One new effort underway is the rekindling of UUFM's long term planning effort. The newly formed Strategic Planning Committee is made up of a diverse cross-section of our congregation. The committee will look at what we need to consider as we grow. They will think about our short, mid-range, and long-term needs. The committee will be asking for your feedback as they draft a deliberate strategy, so please stay tuned.

Some changes need to happen right away to help us make the most of our current capacity at UUFM. Starting in February, we will move coffee and conversation to the Alsop Room. This will allow all who like to linger a chance to converse, without 'stepping on one another's toes,' as I must admit I have quite literally done in the Narthex. Moving coffee and conversation to the Alsop Room will also give those who would like to sit comfortably the chance to do so.

Also, if you are one who arrives early for Sunday service, could I ask you to consider filling in the front seats? Not only is it wonderful for our Rev Johnstone and guest speakers to see your smiling faces, filling in up front may leave a few more spaces in back for newcomers who might feel more tentative about sitting in front.

Even as small changes happen, our traditions remain. I enjoyed sledding on the UUFM hill today with Ruby and her friend Arelia. I even hit the snowy slope, myself, for the first time in years. And as I returned the sleds to our shed, I noticed the care with which all inside is organized. The marks of community are small and wide.

As we forge into the new year, if you'd like to talk with the Board or with me about your vision for UUFM, please contact me.

Love will guide us, Katie

ALL ABOUT US ...

Please welcome our member, DIXIE MOREAU. Dixie was born in Davenport, Iowa, but was raised all over the country as her father travelled in the roofing business. She graduated from St George High School, the only one in her family to go past 9th grade. She went on to Kansas State University, in large part because her parents, sisters, and ex-husband believed she was capable, "... and told me I could do whatever I wanted." She graduated with a Master's degree and went on to have a successful marriage and family practice for 25 years before retiring. She particularly loved working with foster kids and their families. Now, she is excited about taking a fiction writing course and learning to write. Dixie first visited the Fellowship with her daughter who was at Kansas State. She then moved to Wichita where she attended a UU church. Dixie joined the UU book club and was influenced by the powerful intellect and compassion of the women she met in that group. She decided to join because she wanted to be part of a beloved community. Dixie is newly engaged to Gene Sievers, "Another good man in my life." She wants us to know that she is "... looking forward to my daughters-in-law, Jessica and Michaela Sievers. They are wonderful!" We are so glad you are with us, too, Dixie!
