APRIL 2016 PROGRAMS

APRIL 3 "HUMANISM: ITS SHADES AND SHADOWS"

Most UUs--both atheists and theists--identify as humanist, that is, they focus on the worth and priorities of human beings and value reason over dogma. A thoroughly positive message. What, though, does humanism mean? Where did it come from? What are the various ways it's been used through the ages? And, what do we need to be careful of? Rev Jonalu Johnstone presents this service. Convener is Austin Roberts at 485-2254 or austin451921@gmail.com.

Following the April 3 service, our Sunday Services Committee hosts a FEEDBACK CIRCLE in the sanctuary. Learn more on page 2 of this newsletter.

APRIL 10 "THE WILL TO MUTUALITY"

Building on our Kansas Pulpit Exchange theme of "Connecting with Community to Create Change," guest minister Sarah Oglesby-Dunegan considers the effectiveness of non-violent resistance (NVR) and non-violent communication, and the wide range of creative strategies employed with an invitation for folks to begin to think about how they are willing to engage NVR. Because it takes only 3.5% of the people to engage in NVR to make a significant change. Sometimes less ... from the personal to the collective, from our churches to the public square. Convener is Scott Tanona at 537-6208 or stanona@sbcglobal.net.

APRIL 17 "CIRCLES MANHATTAN: A WAY OUT OF POVERTY"

Poverty digs a deep ditch for those who find themselves caught in it. How can people move to find prosperity? What supports allow emergence from poverty? How can societies, institutions and communities support them? What do relationships have to do with it? Jayme Morris-Hardeman, our speaker, is the Coach for Circles Manhattan, an innovative program designed to end poverty by building relationships and environments that empower families and communities to thrive. Grace MacMillan, 221-6275 or cgracemacmillan@gmail.com, convenes.

APRIL 24 "FOLLOWING MOSES"

The celebration of Passover brings Seders and matzo. The message of Passover, though, runs much deeper, providing inspiration for movements as diverse as the English Civil War, abolition, the civil rights movement, and liberation theology. From South Africa to South America, Exodus has symbolized freedom from oppression. What is this story and why does it evoke such passion and motivation? Contact Rev Jonalu Johnstone at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net.

Following the April 24 service, our 2016 ANNUAL MEETING gathers in the sanctuary. Members are urged to participate. Learn more on page 6 of this newsletter.

Strategic. Planning. Committee.

Three words that people may find it hard to get excited about. Yet they're very important to our future. We have an outstanding group of people looking at where we've been, where we are, and how we need to move to become the best UU Fellowship we can be.

Strategic planning requires an ability to set large goals and the interim goals to get there, but to be nimble in completing them. The committee recently brainstormed a list of things we might do that inspired and excited me. We can't do it all, though! The strategy part comes in as we assess which particular actions are most likely to lead us closest to where we want to be. We'll have to consider resources that might be available and the context of the community in which we find ourselves. We'll have to think about whom we include and whom we might include. Strategic planning offers the next step of building on the vision statement that we have spent time thinking about over the last couple months. How do we become the safe haven, the incubator of the next generation of UU's, the builders of bridges, the visible beacon of liberal religious messages of hope and meaning? How do we embrace and live out our values?

The questions may seem irrelevant to individual UU's. But, really, each person has a role in this. Our fellowship does nothing independent of the members who comprise it. As the fellowship reflects on how it lives out Unitarian Universalism, you might ask yourself how you do the same task. How does inherent worth and dignity influence your choices? How about the interdependent web of life of which we are a part? How do you embody tolerance and compassion? What do you do to grow spiritually and help your children to?

I often tell people that Unitarian Universalism is not an easy religion. We don't offer definitive answers. Instead, we encourage and nurture the questions and the search for the answers. You have to do the search yourself.

It's not an easy religion, but if you put in the time and effort, it is a rewarding one.

In faith and freedom, Jonalu

Talk to Rev Johnstone after Sunday programming, or contact her at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net with your inspirations and concerns. Check out Jonalu's blog at uufm.net/topic/minister-blog/

SUNDAY SERVICES -- FEEDBACK CIRCLE

The Sunday Services Committee wants your feedback. Following the service on APRIL 3, we will host a Feedback Circle in the sanctuary, beginning at 12:15 pm, and lasting about an hour. The focus will be feedback on the service we've just held, but the conversation will range widely, and more general feedback will be included. Questions are open-ended, and you'll get to hear what other people think as well. Snacks will be provided. Your input will help to continue to improve our Sunday mornings. If you'll need childcare, please tell Jonalu, or DRE Sandy Nelson. Contact Sandy at 341-0135 or dre@uufm.net.

CONTINUING THE CONVERSATION ON DEATH AND DYING

The initial Conversation on Death and Dying was so well-received that we are continuing the conversation on Thursday, MAY 5, from 6 to 8 pm! You don't need to have attended the first session to get in on this one. Chris Bailey, an attorney in the congregation, will update us on the legal issues. We'll have opportunities for participants to talk about their own thoughts and priorities. If you did not attend the first session, plan to stay until 8 pm to view the excellent PowerPoint that Linda Kroeger has prepared on the medical issues. Those who attended the first session may wish to leave at 7:30 pm. All are welcome. Contact Jonalu at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net.

RE NEWS

APRIL FAMILY FUN - Saturday, APRIL 16 - PRIDE PARADE

Please join us for the 7th annual Little Apple Pride Parade. Let's show the greater community that UUFM is here and supports the LGBTQ community!

MARCH WITH UUFM: Be a beacon ... We need kids to help hold signs, ride bikes, and be colorful. We'll have lots of colorful crepe paper streamers to decorate bikes, trikes, wagons, and strollers. Parade details are still coming together, but we'll gather at a soon-to-be-designated location at about 1:30 pm. The parade starts at 2 pm. Be sure to wear comfortable shoes and colorful clothing.

WATCH AND CHEER: Those who prefer to show their support by cheering on the marchers can gather at City Park along 11th Street, near the pavilion. Bring your folding chairs and line the street at 2 pm. After the parade passes you can join it and march toward Aggieville or catch a ride to the final festivities. I'll be shuttling anyone who wants a ride so give me a call and we can coordinate. Bring your friends. The more the merrier!

See you soon, Sandy

I-70 UU CHOIR PERFORMS

On Saturday, APRIL 16, at 2 pm, at the Unitarian Fellowship of Lawrence, the combined choirs of the UU Fellowship of Manhattan, the Shawnee Mission UU Church, and the Unitarian Fellowship of Lawrence present nine selections in styles ranging from rhythms driven by djembe and electric guitar, to melodies that are more reflective and tranquil, with plenty of stops in between! There is no admission charge, but proceeds from a free will offering will benefit Kansas Interfaith Action, a statewide, multi-faith, issue-advocacy organization that "puts faith into action" by educating, engaging and advocating on critical social, economic, and environmental justice issues. Learn more from UUFM Choir Director Michael Oldfather at 537-3738 or mou812@ksu.edu.

ADULT RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Join us every 1st and 3rd Sunday, from 9:30 to 10:30 am, in the Alsop Room. Rev Jonalu Johnstone leads WHAT MOVES US? We'll explore experiences of significant Unitarian, Universalist, and UU thinkers, past and present. Attend as many, or as few, sessions as you wish.

APRIL 3 -- For more than 80 years, SOPHIA LYON FAHS used her Theology of Religious Naturalism to show religious educators how to discover and nurture the emotional foundations of liberal faith. More than anyone else, she shaped Unitarian religious education through the 20th century.

APRIL 17 -- The foremost Unitarian of the 20th century, JAMES LUTHER ADAMS found beliefs through deeds rather than creeds. His activism led him from fighting Nazism to promoting civil rights and shaping generations of Unitarian ministers. His Five Smooth Stones define religious liberalism.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Get involved! Volunteers are needed to continue HAPPY KITCHEN COMMUNITY BREAKFASTS. This month, Fellowship volunteers prepare and serve breakfast on Friday, APRIL 1, 15, and 29, from 7 to 8:30 am, at St Paul's Episcopal Church. Breakfast is free and open to the community, providing a good meal for many who might otherwise go without. All are invited, and free will donations help us continue this service. Learn more from Jennifer Bryan at 760-6933 or snowbird@violinifer.com.

Can you offer assistance for one event, or just an occasional hour or two? Our committees welcome one-time volunteers. Courtney Albin, SOCIAL Committee chair (courtney.albin@hotmail.com), sometimes needs help setting up, or cleaning up after a party or meal. Sylvia Beeman, our stalwart FOUNDATIONS chair (sbeewoman@hotmail.com), needs folks who can fill in watering or help with a project. Do you enjoy connecting with new friends? Ask Shirley Hobrock (shirleyjhobrock@hotmail.com), our WELCOMING Committee chair, about opportunities to help with a welcoming and greeting event. Committee leaders will happily find a way to help just one morning or afternoon.

There are always openings for volunteers on our Sunday morning COFFEE AND GREETING TEAMS. New members and friends find this is a great way to get acquainted, and it's an easy way to give to the Fellowship with a minimal investment of time--three or four Sundays each year. Ask Harriette Janke at 539-0865 or ahjanke@cox.net

CIRCLES FIGHTING POVERTY

Fellowship Communications Committee chair Marisa Larson draws our attention to Circles, working in Manhattan to help end poverty, one relationship at a time. NOTES ON PROPOSED 2016/2017 BUDGET

The UUFM Board recently recommended this budget for your approval. Various committees and individuals submitted budget requests based on the Congregation's vision and plans for the coming year while mindful of current costs. Total expenses are estimated to be $172,930. This is an increase over last year's approved budget of $166,537.

Payroll makes up about 75% of our budget, or $128,860. This includes our Developmental Minister, for the entire 12 months this year. The rest of the staff of DRE, Office Administrator, Janitor, Pianists, and Sitters is included in this number. It also includes $1,800 toward some new Classroom Coordinators to help with RE. The service our staff provides is essential to carry out our mission every day of the week.

Social Action is requesting an increase of $1,220 to provide increased monetary support to the Happy Kitchen breakfast project--now requesting $100 a month rather than $30. In addition it would like to provide more support to other community projects.

Music Committee, in coordination with the minister, has requested an increase of $1,350 to provide more special music and increase pianists' hours and rates. But Sunday Services Committee, formerly known as the Program Committee, is actually requesting $1,450 less in funds, since having a full time minister reduces the cost to pay outside ministers and speakers.

How to pay for this? Give generously. We hope to increase pledged money by about 14%, through new pledges and increases. Previous pledges to help with the ministerial transition are still expected over the next two years. Favorite fundraising activities will continue. And the deficit will be covered using funds set aside, at last year's Annual Meeting, in a ministerial transition savings account.

Contact Fellowship Treasurer Kathleen Oldfather with questions, or for clarification, on the proposed budget for Fiscal Year 2016/17 (June 1, 2016 thru May 31, 2017). Kathleen may be reached at 537-3738 or kjoldfather@gmail.com.

Last month, we raised $677 for the Wonder Workshop, during our Helping Hands Sunday collection on March 13. ## GROWGREEN MATCH DAY -- APRIL 22 !!!

Once again the Greater Manhattan Community Foundation is holding a matching day to donate to endowments of local charities and organizations. GMCF holds UUFM's permanent endowments (which are only a portion of our total endowment). Every donation between $25 and $1000 to our permanent endowment on Friday, APRIL 22, generates an additional 50% match that goes directly to UUFM (not into the endowment). If you wish to give to UUFM in a way that will help the Fellowship long-term, consider donating during this event and making your contributions go further. Money donated will stay in the endowment untouched and UUFM will have access only to the earnings. Learn more at www.growgreenmanhattan.com/index.cfm. More details will be shared in Sunday bulletins and on the email list and Facebook. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to contact our UUFM representative at GROWGreen, Betty Banner, at 776-1887 or bettybanner@gmail.com, Treasurer Kathleen Oldfather at 537-3738 or kjoldfather@gmail.com, or Stewardship Chair Scott Tanona at 537-6208 or stanona@sbcglobal.net.

WORDS FROM OUR CHAIR

Hello, Beloved UU Community. As I near the end of my term as Board Chair, I am looking forward to the opportunities ahead of us, as well as reflecting on what we, as a community, have accomplished in the past year.

Our first year with Rev Jonalu Johnstone as a full time minister has brought about many new links to the broader UU and social justice community locally and regionally. We feel this firsthand through the pulpit exchange with Wichita, Topeka, and Lawrence congregations.

Jonalu has a high profile presence in Manhattan that is helping raise awareness of UUFM! She's building coalition with other faiths to help us work on the issues that matter to us, such as fairness in policing and protecting all people from discrimination. I am grateful, too, for her thoughtful and moving reflections on Sundays.

Our Sunday services and RE classes are consistently full. We are reaching the 80% of sanctuary capacity that most organizations use as a benchmark for evaluating use of facilities. As a result of this very (pardon my enthusiasm!) awesome trend in Sunday attendance, the committee formerly known as long term planning has been re-activated as a strategic planning committee under the able leadership of Kathleen Tanona. This committee is examining our short, medium, and long term needs as we pursue our bold vision. Stay tuned for requests from this committee for your input and feedback.

I also look back with gratitude for all that our minister emeritus, Michael Nelson, along with lay leaders, did to prepare us for change. We were ready for a full time minister's leadership, and as a result, we are seeing great momentum in our vision to be a visible beacon and a bold model of love.

I am proud of this energy and momentum. Please attend the UUFM Annual Meeting on April 24, right after the Sunday service, when we will discuss important congregational business. Join me in keeping the momentum going ... we all have a part to play!

And love will guide us, Katie

Talk to UUFM Board Chair Katie Kingery-Page after Sunday services, or contact Katie at 341-5650 or kingerypage@gmail.com with your inspirations and concerns, or chat with any Board member.
