

THE UUFM VOICE

JULY 2016
VOLUME 55, ISSUE 2

JULY 2016 SUNDAY SERVICES

JULY 3 "CIVIL DISCOURSE IN HEATED TIMES: THE UPS AND DOWNS OF DEMOCRACY"

Rev Jonalu Johnstone reflects on communication. With the celebration of US independence approaching and the election heating up (how much hotter can it get?!), we examine how we can talk to each other respectfully and effectively. Since the beginnings of our republic, there have been struggle and controversy, sometimes resulting in creative solutions and others in violence or repression. Austin Roberts, (785) 485-2254 or austin451921@gmail.com, convenes.

JULY 10 "THE UNIVERSE STORY"

Jonalu Johnstone speaks. The story of the universe is more than science and natural history; it's also a sacred story. As Loyal Rue, philosopher at Loyola College, has said, "In the course of epic events, matter was distilled out of radiant energy, segregated into galaxies, collapsed into stars, fused into atoms, swirled into planets, spliced into molecules, captured into cells, mutated into species, compromised into thought, and cajoled into cultures. All of this (and much more) is what matter has done as systems upon systems of organization have emerged over thirteen billion years of creative natural history." We reflect at the intersection of science and religion. Convener is Tom Phillips at (405) 880-6483 or twp1@k-state.edu.

JULY 17 "TAIZÉ WITH A UU ACCENT"

Jonalu shares a special experience. The village of Taizé, France, hosts an ecumenical community of monks (and sisters) who developed a worship practice including scripture, silence and chant. Their practice has migrated across the world and inspired Taizé services everywhere. We'll learn about their process (Jonalu visited in 2011), and experiment--in a very UU way, of course. Jessica Sievers, 532-8471 or sieversj@gmail.com, convenes.

JULY 24 "VACATION OR SABBATH?"

Jonalu Johnstone reflects. Summertime, the time for easing back and taking off a week or two. What's the value of an extended time of leisure? How has it been captured by religious traditions? What's the difference between taking a Sabbath and a vacation? Convener is Dave Lambert at 587-8750 or david.k.lambert@gmail.com.

JULY 31 "LITERARY FICTION"

Sarah Hoyt speaks. How can a novel make its reader more empathetic? How does literary fiction expand our understanding of humanity and stretch definitions of a "holy book?" Sarah reflects on authors such as David Mitchell, Marilynne Robinson and others who have crafted works that--as Franz Kafka wrote--serve as "the axe for the frozen sea within us." Convener is Diane Barker at 539-9163 or dogsbodyd@yahoo.com.

By the time you read this, it will be official. Summer will be here.

From the feel of it today as I write, summer is already here.

Temps in the 90's and 100's can hardly be interpreted any other way.

Fortunately, at least in Manhattan, things slow down in the summer. It used to be that the fellowship closed in the summer! Those days are long past. The tradition of closing the church doors for the summer has almost disappeared among Unitarian Universalist churches, though for generations, that's exactly what summer meant. It's been said that we were the only people God trusted enough to take the summer off.

The practice of a long, healthy vacation for UU ministers has not ceased. Most ministers take a combination of vacation and study leave that means a big chunk of lay-led services through the summer. That hasn't been my practice. I prefer to spread my vacation and study leave throughout the year to have more presence in the fellowship through the summer and more short breaks through the year.

I will be taking vacation July 25 through August 7, backpacking and hiking in the Wind River Range in Wyoming and at Yellowstone with my partner. Touching base with nature nurtures my spirit, and I love adventures with Jane! While I'm gone, staff and leaders can be contacted in an emergency and will be able to contact a minister, if necessary.

So what else will I be up to this summer? Planning and study for the coming year is a major thrust. Some of that involves work with staff, the Strategic Planning Committee, the Board, and the Sunday Services Committee.

But what's really exciting?

I'll be looking at how we will be using themes in the coming year to tie together various aspects of congregational life, including but not limited to Sunday services and religious education. We hope to launch small groups for discussion around the Soul Matters topics we'll be drawing on. Come September, we'll have a monthly theme to inform worship and much more. (Some of the topics we'll explore: Covenant, Healing, Identity, Risk, Zest!)

If you're interested in helping to get small groups going or in any other aspect of developing themes, I'd love to hear from you. There is a workshop in Topeka in August that I hope to have a good group of people attend on how we can develop themes in our congregational life. Let me know, and I can give you details.

And have a great summer! Jonalu

P.S. For my take on the Orlando shootings, see the minister's blog at <http://uufm.net/topic/minister-blog/>. Such tragic and senseless death demands not only mourning, but an effort to understand.

Talk to Rev Johnstone after Sunday services, or contact her at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net with your inspirations and concerns.

A SUCCESSFUL PROGRESSIVE SUMMERFEST!

Thank you to all of you for helping to make our inaugural Progressive Summerfest a success! New faces came to visit our grounds, our partner organizations got to network, music was played and fun was had by all. None of it would have been possible without the support and volunteer hours (many of which were quite sweaty) put in by all of you. You truly helped to show what a vibrant and socially active community we have at UUFM. Thank you.

In Appreciation, Courtney Albin

On behalf of the Communications and Social Committees

Can you offer assistance for one event, or just an occasional hour or two? Many of our committees welcome one-time volunteers. Jen Campbell, SOCIAL Committee chair (jgcampbell4@hotmail.com), sometimes needs help setting up, or cleaning up after a party or meal. Sylvia Beeman, GROUNDS chair, (sbeewoman@hotmail.com) has been injured and needs volunteers to water seedlings on the hill. Do you enjoy connecting with new friends? Ask Shirley Hobrock (shirleyjhobrock@hotmail.com), our WELCOMING Committee chair, about opportunities to help with a welcoming and greeting event, held roughly every three months. All committee leaders will happily find a way you can help just one morning or afternoon.

There are always openings for volunteers on our Sunday morning COFFEE AND GREETING TEAMS. New members and friends find this is a great way to get acquainted, and it's an easy way to give to the Fellowship with a minimal investment of time--three or four Sundays each year. Ask Harriette Janke at 539-0865 or ahjanke@cox.net

FELLOWSHIP FINANCIAL UPDATE

End of Year Report June 1, 2015-May 31, 2016

Total Income $148,777
Total Expenses 152,418
Net Operating Income - 3,641
Endowment funds transfer ... 3,800
Net Income after transfer $ 159

I am very pleased with the overall end of year report. We were so fortunate to receive a Chalice Lighter's grant of $12,000 from the UUA MidAmerica Region. This grant was designed to help us bridge the gap between income and expenses during our Developmental Ministry years. This coming year, there will be no grant, but we do still have and will receive more Ministerial Transition Funds from members and friends. It is, however, the pledges we all make that are the sustaining factor in allowing the Fellowship to honor and carry out its vision. Thank you for your generosity last year and for your pledges coming in for the next year.

ALL ABOUT US

In this column, we introduce new members, and share news from all members and friends. Beginning in July, Carolyn Kelly will be interviewing and introducing new members. Thank you Carolyn!

RONETTE GEHRING, Associate Professor in the Anatomy and Physiology department of K-State's College of Vet Med, was first introduced to UUs through a friend when Ronette was living in Raleigh, NC. While her husband does not attend our UU, her daughter, Liza van der Merwe, who is turning twelve this summer, does attend sometimes. Ronette has been quite comfortable with the range of speakers, activities, and events offered by our fellowship, and she particularly liked the 2015 Christmas service.

To her, the UU is a place to make friends and to get to know different people in the community; also, Ronette looks forward to opportunities to learn and engage in lively discussions. She is involved in service work through national professional organizations, currently as the regional director (Mid-West) of the Food Animal Residue Avoidance Databank, a risk-management program that provides science-based advice to help mitigate unsafe chemical residues in products derived from food animals; she is also President of the American Academy of Veterinary Pharmacology and Therapeutics.

She loves reading, photography, and playing the flute and the piano. She looks forward to smiles and warm, friendly interactions throughout our congregation.

JAN MCNEIL attended a UU church while at university some time ago in Tempe, AZ. She has been attending various events and listening to speakers at our Manhattan UU for at least ten years, formally joining about 10 months ago. She is a vital, regular member of the UUFM Drum Circle that meets the second Friday every month.

She has always greatly appreciated Ron Parks' talks and participated in the spirituality reading group he led a couple years ago; Native American spirituality is Jan's main interest. She very much enjoyed Jonalu's day workshop where Jan felt encouraged to review her spiritual development over her lifetime.

Currently she is traveling frequently to Boston to care for an ill daughter, hoping eventually to have more free time to volunteer for the Fellowship. Jan looks forward to having a discussion group on "something like 'Belief without Assumptions.'" She wonders, "How can a person believe in the Holy without pretending to know more than they do, or can?" She is always surprised when others share her beliefs, even a little.

Thoughts and feelings are very important to Jan, as is the consideration of fresh, unfamiliar ways of thinking and being. After a lifetime of watching things go in the wrong direction for our natural world, Jan is uncertain as to how much the world will ever change.

But, she feels valued at our fellowship and encourages all to express themselves honestly and kindly, and to trust that she is doing the same.

Newer members who would like to share their story with the congregation, and all members and friends who wish to share significant joys and sorrows in this column may contact Carolyn Kelly at carolyn_j_kelly1504@hotmail.com, or contact the Fellowship office at 537-2349 or office@uufm.net.
