

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE A PEOPLE OF PLAY?

(from Soul Matters, adapted for UUFM)

We all are playing.

Playing it up, playing it down, trying to play fair.

Playing for keeps, playing favorites, playing it safe, sometimes too safe.

He plays hardball; They're playing house; I'm playing it by ear, or at least learning to play it by ear.

She's tired of playing second fiddle; He's playing right into their hands.

Please God, can't we all just throw out the playbook and start again?

Sometimes we're just played out; it's not always bad to play possum.

And what about playing with fire?

Let's hope so friends.

*Don't you want to feel again that burning within,
and let it loose?*

Welcome to the month of play. May we all take it seriously!

JUNE 2021 SUNDAY SERVICES

OUR SOUL MATTERS THEME IN JUNE EXPLORES

JUNE 6 "CHILD'S PLAY"

Rev Jonalu Johnstone speaks. Jesus said the kingdom of God belonged to those like little children. Buddha spoke of the importance of beginner's mind. One of the key elements of childhood—in humans and many other animals—is play. Play helps children master their world and learn about it. What can we learn from child's play about the religious life, or simply about living life? Our convener is Elke Lorenz at 785 218-4014 or elkelorenz9@gmail.com.

JUNE 13 "LET'S SEE WHAT HAPPENS"

Rev Jonalu Johnstone reflects. A key element to imaginative play is openness to what might happen. We try something, without being attached to a result, and see what happens. As we move more fully into the transitional time we are in—in the world and here at UUFM—let's see what happens! Our convener is a Katie Kingery-Page at 785 341-5650 or kingerypage@gmail.com.

JUNE 20 "THE POWER OF WORD PLAY"

Diane Barker speaks. Our focus will be word play as in poetry, and the power of humorous words. Sylvia Beeman shares stories and jokes for the Story for All Ages. Diane reflects on word play in poetry with four poems and her thoughts about them. Our convener is Lorn Clement at 785 556-1556 or lacjr@ksu.edu.

JUNE 27 "UUA GENERAL ASSEMBLY SUNDAY MORNING SERVICE"

For this special service, we will gather at our usual Sunday morning service URL at 10:30 am. Shortly before the 11 am service begins, those attending will be directed to <https://www.uua.org/ga/program/highlights/sunday-morning-worship>, live from the First Universalist Church of Minneapolis. Following the service, we return to UUFM's Zoom link, for coffee and discussion. Rob Morrison, at 480 861-1732 or william.robert.morrison@gmail.com, convenes.

Find a link and instructions to join us for lively and well-attended VIRTUAL SERVICES on Zoom at uufm.net/zoom. Barring unforeseen circumstances, safe, in-person Sunday services will resume sometime in July. Watch for further announcements.

COMING UP ...

Manhattan Moms Demand Action accepts donations for The Crisis Center, on WEAR ORANGE DAY, Saturday, JUNE 5. Learn more on page 5 of this newsletter.

The RACIAL JUSTICE team gathers on Sunday, JUNE 6. More on page 6.

The 2021 UUA GENERAL ASSEMBLY gathers on Zoom, JUNE 23 THRU 27. Details on page 6.

As we move towards the end of my time with the congregation, it's the perfect moment to review the goals that were set for developmental ministry before I arrived. No doubt, some of you remember being part of the goal-setting process, meeting together in small groups, while others have come since the goals were set. Either way, it's time for a review and reassessment.

The first goal was to "turn our vision of being a strong, visible, and socially active presence in the community into strategic action." This goal aligns well with the mission statement adopted last fall: A diverse, evolving spiritual community acting for a better world; as well as the vision statement that the congregation approved last year: A vibrant, inclusive congregation, UUFM is widely known as a safe haven and a force for social justice. A desire to be a force for justice and act for a better world is not enough, but we are doing it. As a congregation, you voted to support elimination of the high school's mascot, and to support Black Lives Matter. We made T-shirts and showed up together at many tabling events in the community. More importantly, we showed up at many social action events, from Pride to Kansas Poor People's Campaign, and more. Together, we formed a Racial Justice Team, after a few members completed Beloved Conversations. Now, that Racial Justice Team has studied the UUA Commission on Institutional Change's report and made recommendations to the Board, as we work toward becoming a truly anti-oppressive, multicultural institution (look for more about that elsewhere in the newsletter). We've forged connections with non-profits throughout the community, instituted a Blessing Box in cooperation with Wonder Workshop, and continued our sizable volunteer support for Happy Kitchen, while contributing to many of the justice efforts in our community. Working in partnerships allows us to do far more than we could alone.

The second developmental goal was to "move to a full-time ministerial leadership model for the fellowship." Though we have had to drop back to 3/4 time for the time being, substantial progress happened on this front. The minister is now the supervisor of staff, who receive annual evaluations, and a key contact point in the congregation and the community. Collaborative work between the minister and lay people characterizes the Sunday Services Committee, the Social Action Committee, and the Caring Team. The congregation is more solid financially, and well-positioned to move back to full-time ministry soon.

The third goal was to "grow in ways needed to support both 1 and 2." I've seen a great deal of spiritual growth and deepening during my time here. Numerical growth has been more modest yet real. One of the realizations during our time together is that growing by 10 % a year--that is, adding 10-12 members--is not enough to grow, because of the transience of the community. Moving takes a handful or two of members every year, so it's hard to maintain slow, steady growth, especially in times when the University and community struggle.

Moving forward, there are a few matters the congregation needs to be considering.

- 1) How will UUFM rebuild from the pandemic, particularly in terms of outreach to families with children?
- 2) How will UUFM effectively organize its volunteers and decision-making to best serve the mission and vision?
- 3) How does the building and its location serve--or not serve--the mission and vision? How might it?

These questions remain for you to explore with your next minister. All my best hopes and dreams for the fellowship!

On another note, I would love to be able to say goodbye to you--yes, each one of you. We have about six weeks left to do that. As you will see elsewhere in the newsletter, we are reopening the office, so feel free to drop by during office hours, or pop in on my some-what limited Zoom hours. Plus, I am re-starting drop in coffeehouse hours--I'll be on out back at Public Hall. If those times, don't work for you, call, text or email me to set up a time to touch base, in whatever place and circumstance you feel comfortable. And, of course, there will be a time of celebration of the work we have done together later in July. Watch for more information about that.

Blessings, Jonalu

HAPPY KITCHEN NEEDS UUFM VOLUNTEERS!

Happy Kitchen provides a free hot breakfast to people on Tuesdays, served by volunteers from St Paul's Episcopal Church, and on Fridays served by folks from UUFM. We organize and schedule teams of 4-5 people to cook and serve the breakfast. Breakfast is served from 7 to 8:30 am. The team arrives at 6:30 to prepare the food, and then stays to about 9 am to clean up. Pre-pandemic we served in the social hall of St Paul's church, downtown at 6th and Poyntz. Now, as per restrictions for the pandemic, we put the breakfast into to-go boxes and distribute these with plastic utensils upstairs at the main door.

Starting at 7 am, one person remains upstairs at a serving table near the door, a second worker brings packaged breakfasts from the kitchen every few minutes as needed. We can also serve some people in person by request at the tables downstairs, but with just two people per table for a maximum of 12 in the dining room at any one time. The indoor guests will also get their breakfast in throw-away boxes and plasticware to avoid contact infections.

We now have just two UU teams. I hope to form a third team soon, and maybe a fourth team as time goes by so that a given team will serve every four weeks: just 2 1/2 hours once a week. Please contact me ASAP if you would like to help.

The food insecurity rate in Riley County is higher than the US national average, at about 20% of our population! Thank you so much for considering this important community service.

Tom Phillips

MINISTERIAL SEARCH COMMITTEE UPDATE

Hello, my name is Jessica Sievers, I use the pronouns she, her, and hers. I am chairing your Ministerial Search Committee. It is my honor to work with Molly McGaughey, Susan Rensing, Scott Tanona, Larry Weaver, Marisa Larson, and to have Lily Colburn as an alternate. This committee was chosen from nominations and/or were Board-appointed to round out the representation of the committee. The committee was unanimously approved by the congregation at the UUFM Annual Meeting in April of 2020.

Since Reverend Jonalu is retiring this summer, we are in search of a minister. Jonalu voluntarily reduced her full-time position to three-quarter time last year. Jonalu has served our congregation as a developmental minister and previous ministers have been contract ministers. And so, we are in search for a three-quarter time, "contract-to-call" minister (which entails a two-year contract with the option to call).

Our hope is that a contract-to-call minister will love our congregation, and Manhattan, as much as we do, and over a couple of years the feeling will be mutual and we can call the minister to stay longer.

Over the winter, our committee spent many hours completing the Application for Ministerial Search with the assistance of our Board Chair, Rob Morrison. In turn, we received a ministerial applicant. Our Search Committee held a two-hour interview with the applicant via Zoom this May. The committee made a unanimous recommendation to the Board in favor of the ministerial applicant. The Board supported offering to hire the applicant, and the applicant regrettably declined.

What have I learned? I am honored to work with, and proud of what this Ministerial Search Committee has accomplished during a pandemic. We also gained experience and practice utilizing non-binary terms like they, them, and their. I feel our congregation can work toward being more inclusive for such individuals.

Also, the staff at the UU Association has been supportive with presenting options as we continue our ministerial search. They replied, "It may be time to start thinking about the most essential ministry functions you would like a minister to provide and whether you might be open to a virtual ministry. Another possibility would be for a Targeted Ministry Program minister to work with the fellowship until the right match comes along for the contract ministry."

There is more work to do. Your UUFM Ministerial Search Committee will keep you updated with our progress. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have questions.
