Do you ever need a break from bad news? I do. Since the 1980's, I've taken breaks from NPR and the headlines. An endless stream of horror stories pulls joy from my bones. I become exhausted and starved for meaning that sustains and inspires. I turn from the news toward what restores a larger context, a great vision, pleasure, so that I can balance the negative with a good dose of the positive. I was raised with the threat of annihilation during the cold war. We were drilled to get under our desk if the USSR dropped the bomb. I learned to seek sources of inspiration that let me know my place in the universe without fear and doom.

My red Schwinn took me to Chicago's ethnic neighborhoods, Lake Michigan and the forest preserves. Exploring brought me to nooks, expanses and glades that retain the rich power to fill me with wonder. These memories remind me to have fun and to keep seeking those places where wonder hides in full sight. Keeping the spirit of exploration alive challenges me to be fully present in this second. This is easy to forget. I forget it all the time.

At our Kansas Wedding on May 3, I saw my mother dance for the first time in years. She used to dance the hambo, shottish, and polka with unbelievable gusto and grace. A dinner and a dance followed a wedding in Chicago. Happiness filled her and overflowed. It astonished me to see my duty bound mom unwind and whirl with abandon. We need celebration in our lives. The DJ who has provided music for lots of weddings said that the Fellowship wedding was the most fun wedding she's ever DJ'ed. We thank you all for helping us to celebrate love and for your support of marriage equality.

Yesterday while driving home I tuned into NPR at just the right moment. I learned that Narendra Modi had been elected prime minister of India, the world's largest democracy. The son of a tea seller from one of India's lower castes was overpowered by emotion as he spoke of the people of his home state, where he grew up in a small village. He said, "You people of Gujarat are my mother and father. You have raised me. While I serve Mother India, I will also worry about you. You are my energy, you are my inspiration, you are my strength." Modi spoke with deep conviction about the need for the government to serve all its citizens no matter who they were, where they had come from, how much or how little they had. He wants to serve the poorest of the poor and to decrease the ability of religion to oppress. This reporting filled me with hope.

As the next segment on bikers against child abuse aired I began to weep for joy. It moved me to hear how women and men who ride big Harleys have organized to protect children from further abuse by standing watch outside of their homes at night and showing up in court when a child testifies against an adult who has harmed them. They simultaneously work to protect and to help a traumatized kid to regain stability and a confident sense of their place in the world.

Wow! There is a lot of good in the world and I know that this community helps to create and spread goodness where needed.

Let us celebrate our good works more freely!

Michael

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

RE NEWS

MANY, MANY THANKS to everyone for making the 2013-2014 RE program so successful. My thanks go out once again to all our volunteers and mentors: Molly McGaughey, Larry Weaver, Kim Belanger, Jessica Long, Kathleen Tanona, Courtney Albin, Marisa Larson, Ken and Pat Embers, Carolyn Ferguson, Aimee Fowler, and Grace MacMillan. A special thanks to Tom Manney for always being ready to capture our kids with his camera. And a personal thank you to Sylvia Beeman. Years ago she asked me to teach a Sunday School class and I've been enjoying it ever since.

Get ready for the UU World Travelers summer curriculum! This program, designed by the UU Church of Tucson, Arizona, takes students on a "tour" of a different location each week. They learn about that location's culture, religions, and history and engage in related activities. We've adapted the curriculum over the years for our members' special talents and the resulting tours have been spectacular. Last year we had some fantastic tours ... We toured cave art and made our own art. We toured California and experienced fog. We toured water in its many forms (and made snow cones). We danced around the world. We toured sound and made our own instruments from pipes and bottles. We toured Hawaii and made our own volcano. Refresh your memory of last summer and see some fabulous pictures by visiting the RE blog at uufm.net/topic/re-blog.

This year's tours will be equally spectacular. We'll start the program with a fabulous Bon Voyage party and potluck [on Sunday, June 1]. We'll have a bounce house and lots of fun and games. Sponge toss, cookie eating contest, and a (cup) cake walk. The rest of the summer is filled with trips to Pillsbury Crossing, Fairmont Park (bring your dog!), an outdoor brick oven (maybe we'll bake bread), tours of Vietnam and Germany. A Phun-with-Physics day and--we're building an observation beehive--will we have honey by the end of summer? Plus ... we'll be making dog treats, having a take-apart party (can you take apart an old computer?), and making sand castles. There's lots more fun planned.

Don't miss out on any of the fun. Register your child for the summer program now.

Sandy

SOCIAL ACTION AT UUFM

AN INVITATION FROM THE SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE

The UUFM Social Action committee has started a new effort, which would help a young person from our Fellowship be part of a progressive experience. Every year the UUA (Unitarian Universalist Association of Congregations) and the UUSC (Unitarian Universalist Service Committee) have delegations, conferences and activist opportunities. We feel that being part of an immigration project on the Arizona border; a delegation to Haiti, El Salvador, or Cuba; traveling to Washington, DC, to be part of a demonstration, or take part in some issue and leadership training would be a life changing experience. There is no end to the opportunities. Such an event would also create an involvement of all our members that we do not now have.

We are looking at various opportunities available over the next year or two, AND we are wondering what young people would be interested in taking part. Some opportunities might be appropriate for a high school age person but many would be better for someone a little older. The Social Action Committee has some money in their budget for this but we could also help someone do personal fundraising to make such a trip possible. We look for your input. Talk to any of the committee members or come to our next committee meeting on Wednesday, July 2, at 5:30 pm, and help us with this exciting idea.

Anne Cowan, Social Action chair

HELPING HANDS SUNDAY

On Sunday, JUNE 8, Helping Hands contributions will be collected for SHEPHERD'S CROSSING, whose mission is to provide compassionate and caring assistance to those in need of a listening ear and financial help. Learn more at www.shepherdcrossing.info, or talk to Helping Hands coordinator M'Eliz Maatta at 776-7534 or mmaatta@uufm.net.

FAIR TRADE COFFEE, TEA, AND CHOCOLATE

Equal Exchange whole bean, ground, and decaf coffees, as well as chocolate and tea are available for purchase. To learn more, or to purchase fair trade products, see Anne Cowan following Sunday morning services at the Fair Trade display in the Fellowship's narthex.

A BOLD MODEL OF LOVE AND A VISIBLE BEACON! AS PART OF OUR EFFORT TO WORK TOWARDS OUR VISION, ENGAGE WITH THE COMMUNITY, AND VISIBLY STAND FOR OUR PRINCIPLES, WE ARE RUNNING A BILLBOARD SHOWING OUR SUPPORT FOR MARRIAGE EQUALITY AND INVITING OTHERS TO "CELEBRATE LOVE." THE BILLBOARD, WITH PHOTOGRAPHY AND DESIGN BY KIM BELANGER, IN COORDINATION WITH THE COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE, IS ABOVE SUNFLOWER PETS ON THE WAY OUT OF TOWN, SOUTH ON K-177, ALL THROUGH JUNE. THANKS TO ALL WHO WERE INVOLVED, AND ESPECIALLY TO MIKE AND LAURA BONELLA FOR THE OPPORTUNITY TO RENT THE SPACE!

WORDS FROM OUR CHAIR

When Anne Cowan called me last spring about filling the Chair-elect position I was filled with a small (ok large) amount of trepidation. I was worried about the 3-year commitment and if I could really add something from my point of view to UUFM. That feeling continued until the day of the Annual Meeting when the slate was offered and voted on. After the meeting many of you thanked me for taking on this commitment and challenge. It surprised me and made me feel MUCH better about becoming Chair-elect.

Over the last nine years at UUFM, I have slowly moved into this leadership role. First on the RE committee, then co-chair with Sandy Nelson, before she was DRE. Then I moved over to the Social/Membership committee under the unstoppable Shirley Hobrock. Social and Membership eventually separated and I stayed on the Membership side of things. It was about that time I became an At-Large Board member and served my 2-year term. I also became an OWL instructor and have taught 2 classes of K-1st graders. And at each and every step, people have expressed their thanks. So simple really, but so meaningful.

You probably don't know how much it means to me. It does keep me going and it really does reinvigorate me when tasks seem daunting or the work is tedious. It makes me KNOW in my core that this work is important, does affect people and is easier when the load is shared among us.

So a big THANKS to all of you and all you do for UUFM. If you don't already do something, then get involved. If you have an idea for a service, there will be a convener training program hosted by the Programming Committee on Saturday, June 7. Social Action is always looking for new members, or if you don't want to join a committee, share an idea for a new social action project. The Caring Committee does such important work and is looking for a new chair. After many years and much amazing work, Kathleen Oldfather is stepping down to try her hand at helping the RE committee.

You won't be sorry wherever you go at UUFM. It will feel good to work with the people around you. BUT--it will feel even better when, down the line, someone turns to you and says "thank you" for your help, commitment, dedication, hard work, etc. Then you will know it was all worth it!

In Faith, Kathleen
