

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE A PEOPLE OF VISION?

"What will mess you up most in life is the picture in your head of how it is supposed to be." -- Author unknown

What?! Isn't that picture in our heads of "how it's supposed to be" what vision means? Yes, and at the same time, we have to understand the limits of the pictures in our heads.

Yes, we need to "stay true to our vision." Yes, "Without vision, the people perish." Yes, without a clear vision, we're vulnerable to whatever winds blow. A clear vision anchors us. It gives us direction and hope. It is, indeed, a precious thing to which we should hold fast.

But as the anonymous quote above tells us, all that holding fast is also dangerous. In short, no vision is perfect. We all look through some lens--it may magnify, it may project. These functions may be useful to help us see what we otherwise couldn't. But lenses bend the light that passes through them. Just as lenses bend the light, so do our visions. Every vision distorts even as it clarifies.

On top of that, life changes. Some doors close, new ones open. If you cling to a vision based in a reality that no longer exists, you'll just end up spending your life banging your head against the wall. And while having to let go of precious visions and dreams is painful, it's also exhilarating to evolve and grow.

As Unitarian Universalists, we also know that one vision isn't enough. As clear as our perspectives may be, we all know by now that none is complete. To see the entire view, we need everyone's vantage point. Besides being dangerous, holding tightly to one single vision is also just no fun! We don't just have to see things from others' points of view; we get to see things from others' points of view! Learning about the visions of others isn't just a way of making up for your flawed perspective. It's also an invitation to see the world anew!

So clearly being a people of vision is hard work. Knowing when to stay true to your vision and when to let go is a very tricky task. Figuring out when to keep your vision front and center and when to de-center it and make room for others intimidates the best of us.

A people of vision must see clearly, look ahead and acknowledge the limitations and distortions of their own sight.

At UUUFM, we seek to create our vision--living out our roles as safe haven and beacon, incubators and builders. Join us through the month of September to focus your lens.

SEPTEMBER 2018 SUNDAY SERVICES

OUR THEME IN SEPTEMBER EXPLORES
"WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE A PEOPLE OF VISION?"

SEPTEMBER 2 "WHAT LENS ARE YOU LOOKING THROUGH?"

Rev Jonalu Johnstone speaks. If you wear glasses or contacts, you know how different the world can look with or without your lenses. However sharp or poor our visual acuity it is, we perceive our world through particular lenses, the lenses of our experience, of our social location, of our age, and more. Let's explore the lenses that we apply to the visions we long to achieve. Conveners are Michael and Kathleen Oldfather at 537-3738 or kjoldfather@gmail.com.

SEPTEMBER 9 "EXAMINING THE UUFM VISION"

UUFM members share their thoughts and experiences in how their personal vision overlaps with the congregation's vision as a whole, and how that spurs change and progress. Convener is Lily Colburn at 785 236-0053 or lilycolburn@gmail.com.

SEPTEMBER 16 MUSICALE XVII: "A MUSICAL VISION"

Our traditional way to greet the fall features musical performances by talented people across the age ranges. Celebrate our story in song! This will be a Service for All Ages. (Nursery and preschool classes available.) Convener is Jonalu Johnstone at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net.

SEPTEMBER 23 "WHAT OBSCURES YOUR VISION?"

Rev Jonalu Johnstone speaks. We all have visions we wish to achieve, even if we haven't said them out loud. What keeps us from seeing clearly where we might go and what we might achieve? What keeps us from accomplishing the vision once we see it? Convener is Tom Phillips at 405 880-6483 or twp1@ksu.edu.

SEPTEMBER 30 "THE VISION THING"

George Bush's political downfall may have been "the vision thing," as he famously named it. He's not unlike many of us who struggle to name what our vision is. We may dream impossible dreams, but actually pursuing a vision, through the tragic gap, the difference between the world as it is and the world as it should be, is no easy task. What does it take to master "the vision thing"? Convener is Dick Beeman at 539-9369 or rbeeman@cox.net.

UUFM wants to be your third place.

If home is the first place and work (or school for some of us!) is the second place, the third place is another place where you spend time and make connections with people, a place "where everyone knows your name," as they say in the Cheers theme song. Our Director of Religious Education Sandy Nelson has been talking lately about the concept of a "third place," and how that relates to building community in our fellowship and helping everyone feel part of us.

UUFM MEMBERS MEET UP FOR THE

Of course, just as a church is not the building, but the people, a third place does not need to be confined to a literal single place or location. Many of our activities, of course, happen at the UUFM building--Sunday mornings, for example! Every month, though, there's a Family Fun activity sponsored by religious education, often somewhere in the community. The first Friday of the month, some of our folks gather at Annie Mae's for Beer and Theology. Some of our women gather twice a week on Monday and Thursday mornings for conversation at the West Loop McDonalds. I meet up with our Meadowlark residents (and anyone else interested) at Meadowlark once a month for a program, generally about our month's theme. The Book Discussion Group and some of our Chalice Circles meet in people's homes. And I regularly hold coffeehouse hours at various Radina's around town.

Our connections also deepen when we encounter each other out in the community. For example, the Drag Queen Story Hour that Little Apple Pride recently sponsored at the library included several of our families. Not only do we as adults need to recognize the connections we have with one another, but our children and youth may be especially grateful to run into other people they can feel confident share some of their values. That makes for a stronger sense of community and bonding.

As we enter a new school year, re-energized and re-engaged, help us think how UUFM can become more of a third place to more people. Here are a few ideas. It would be great to see the monthly K-State lunch restarted, and/or Game Night resurrected. Maybe people would like to see a movie or show or lecture together and go out for a meal or snack before or after. If there are ways you think of, talk with me and let's see what we can start. Often, all it takes is a volunteer to coordinate it.

Or maybe, it's a matter of considering how you could connect with already existing groups--the Wednesday Men's Lunch, the Women's Coffee Group, the Book Club, Beer and Theology or one of the Chalice Circles. Whatever you're interested in, we can help you make a deeper connection.

So, see you at UUFM ... Or someplace else in the community!

In faith and freedom,

Jonalu

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

THANKS

What a huge, fun summer we had. We “traveled” to Washington, DC, Peru, Tanzania, Haiti, Italy, and Cuba. We took tours of fly fishing, waffle irons, the Brothers Grimm, water and had a pilgrimage along the Camino de Santiago. And we went on two actual field trips: a canoe trip to Pillsbury Crossing and a fishing trip to Rocky Ford.

Many, many thanks to all our summer tour guides: Dan Swenson, Doug Walter, and Larry Weaver (Pillsbury Crossing); Sandy Nelson (Waffle Iron and Water); Deirdre Greeley, Carrie and Lauren Cave (Washington DC); Rob and Sam DeLong (fly fishing and Rocky Ford); Rev Jonalu Johnstone (pilgrimage along the Camino de Santiago); Enell Foerster (Peru); Elke Lorenz (Brothers Grimm); Carol Sevin (Tanzania); Maeve and Kathleen Tanona (Haiti); Scott Tanona (Italy); and Carolyn Kelly (Cuba). Your enthusiasm and participation in the religious education program is much appreciated.

We finish out the summer with a quiet welcome home session on September 2, an all-class kick off on September 9 (with ice cream for everyone after the service), and then a “service for all ages” with music during the September Musicale on September 16 (we’ll have quiet activities in the Jupiter room for those who prefer to listen to the music from afar).

FALL AND BEYOND

For the past few years I’ve been ruminating about how we “bridge” our youth from RE classes to the adult services. Turns out, I’m not alone. While attending UUA General Assembly I attended several workshops where that was a hot topic. (If you’re interested as well, let me know. I’d love to bend your ear about it.). An idea that has surfaced, as Jonalu and I have been talking, is to simply have more services that include EVERYONE. Jonalu has named them “service for all ages” and we’ll have them once a month (if anyone would like to help me make “busy bags” for the sanctuary, let me know). The rest of the month, for the elementary classes, we’ll continue to use themes as well as our quarter system with Unitarian Universalism, Jewish and Christian Heritage, World Religions, and our summer program in the fourth quarter.

The teens (7th-12th grade) will be adapting the Neighboring Faiths curriculum to include more UU comparison components along with their field trips to other houses of worship. Older teens, especially those who have already been through the Neighboring Faiths curriculum, are encouraged to help with RE classes. (One of those bridging topics is the notion that the more youth are included in the workings of the church, the more likely they are to remain a UU.)

I’m really looking forward to this year!

Sandy

Talk with Director of Religious Education Sandy Nelson most Sunday mornings before or after the service, or contact her at 341-0135 or DRE@uufm.net.

DRE’S SCHEDULE

In September, Sandy will be in the Fellowship office on TUESDAYS and THURSDAYS, from 3:30 to 4:30 pm.

PARENT NIGHT OUT / KID NIGHT IN

Our next Parent Night Out (Kid Night In) gathers on Friday, SEPTEMBER 7, from 6:30 to 9:30 pm, at the Fellowship. Parent Night Out is designed for children from 3 to 12 years old who can toilet on their own with minimal assistance. We watch a movie and have some popcorn. Games and art projects are available. A $5 per child contribution helps us cover expenses. Dinner is NOT served at Parent Night Out. Please be sure your children are fed before arriving. Remember: this is an RSVP event and space is limited. Please RSVP no later than Thursday, September 6. Learn more from Sandy Nelson at 341-0135 or DRE@uufm.net.

Fellowship members of all ages are encouraged to join us in the main service on Sunday, SEPTEMBER 16, when we’ll hold our annual Musicale celebration, highlighting the musical talents of members and friends of all ages. Train to become a Court Appointed Special Advocate, Tuesday evenings, September 25 thru November 13. CASA (Court-Appointed Special Advocates) begins with the belief that every child has the right to a safe, permanent home. Unlike attorneys and social workers, the CASA volunteer speaks exclusively for the child's best interests. Learn more about CASA at www.kansascasa.org/program/district-2-21. UUFM VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Sunday morning COFFEE AND GREETING TEAMS offer a great way to get acquainted and get involved. This month, there's a unique opportunity to try out coffee and greeting, on a one-time basis, with no future commitment required. On SEPTEMBER 23 or 30, help us get regular teams back on schedule, by volunteering to fill in one morning. New and experienced volunteers are welcome. Learn more from Susan Turner at 539-3272 or office@uufm.net.

Members will have received a pledge packet at our Annual Meeting, or in the mail in early May. In the packet is a "SERVICE SHEET" allowing members to choose small jobs they might be willing to help out with. We encourage everyone to fill out your forms, and return them to any Board member, or mail them to the Fellowship in the self-addressed envelope provided. Friends who did not receive a pledge packet in the mail may request a service sheet from Susan Turner at 537-2349 or office@uufm.net.

This month, Fellowship volunteers prepare and serve HAPPY KITCHEN COMMUNITY BREAKFAST on Friday, SEPTEMBER 7 and 21, from 7 to 8:30 am, at St Paul's Episcopal Church. Volunteers are needed for regular teams, about once every six weeks, or as substitutes, two or three times each year. Learn more from Tom Phillips at 405 880-6483 or twp1@ksu.edu, or Rob DeLong at 417 761-2488 rkdelong@gmail.com.

HELPING HANDS SUNDAY

During the service on Sunday, SEPTEMBER 9, Helping Hands contributions will be collected for CASA (Court-Appointed Special Advocates), with the belief that every child has the right to a safe, permanent home. Unlike attorneys and social workers, the CASA volunteer speaks exclusively for the child's best interests. Learn more about CASA at www.kansascasa.org/program/district-2-21.

On August 12, Fellowship members and friends contributed our morning collection to the Flint Hills Community Clinic. THANK YOU all for your generous donations! Learn more from Helping Hands coordinator Dixie Moreau at 477-8188 or dixie.moreau53@att.net.

CARING WORKSHOP

Join us on Saturday, SEPTEMBER 22, from 10 am to 12 noon. Helping one another is one of the core values of our fellowship community. Much of our caring comes in informal ways. We want to make sure no one is left out, and everyone gets needed help and support, whether a kind word on a greeting card, a delivered meal when someone is sick or there's a new baby, or help with transportation for medical appointment. If you'd like to learn more about how to help or be part of our caring efforts here at the fellowship in any way, join us for an exploration of caring, led by Rev Jonalu. Learn more at www.facebook.com/events/264023087541543/, or contact Jonalu at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net.

NEW MEMBER PROFILES

Introducing SABRA TIEPERMAN:

1) WHAT DREW YOU TO UUFM?

UUFM appealed to me because its eclectic view of religion embraces an all-encompassing exploration of spirituality over pledges to restrictive doctrine.

2) IF YOU'RE NEW TO THE MANHATTAN AREA, WHERE ARE YOU COMING FROM?

After working for Prairie View's McPherson office for 16 years, I accepted a job with Pawnee Mental Health Services and moved to Manhattan in mid-February of this year.

3) WHAT ARE YOUR TOP 5 HOBBIES? HOW DO YOU SPEND YOUR FREE TIME?

Spending time with my 2 puggles, writing, reading, gardening, and watching news and trying to figure out how to save our country. (It's turned into my second full-time job!!)

4) WHAT COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES ARE YOU INVOLVED WITH?

None yet. I'm very introverted and easily intimidated. It's hard for me to get acquainted and get involved.

5) WHAT IS ONE THING ABOUT YOU THAT YOU'D LIKE THE UUFM COMMUNITY TO KNOW ABOUT YOU?

I wrote a book, "Barking Buys: A Memoir About the Dog Who Pulled Me Up for Air." (Dog lovers would enjoy the story. Many abuse survivors find it too painful. Might be a way for other members to get to know me. It's received good reviews but I don't have the personality to get out and promote it, so I have dozens of copies sitting in boxes in a closet.)

RECLAIMING YOUR SPIRIT:

IS YOUR RELIGIOUS PAST RIGHT FOR YOU NOW?

Reverend Jonalu Johnstone presents this workshop on Sunday, SEPTEMBER 16, at 5:30 pm, at the Ecumenical Campus Ministry, 904 Sunset Avenue. Young adults (18-35) are invited to use meditation and sharing to explore our own personal spiritual journeys, where we've been, and where we might head next. Students and non-students are welcome, and snacks will be provided. Learn more from Jonalu at 537-2349 or revjonalu@uufm.net.
