

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE A PEOPLE OF BEAUTY?

Where do you look for beauty?

There is universal agreement that we all must make time to visit museums and sit before stunning sunsets. But seeking beauty there is not enough. Every religion agrees: The secret to encountering spiritual beauty is to visit and observe the unlikely places. Indeed, one could argue that this is the job of religion. It exists to teach us and to help us observe beauty in the less noticed places. Just think of all the seemingly odd advice that religion sends our way:

NOTICE YOUR FEET! There's a beloved poem by Chilean poet Pablo Neruda about a pair of his socks. In this and other poems, he brings the ordinary things around us to life, helping us see how they so clearly carry the memories and meanings of our lives. Religion does the same. It tells us that these ordinary objects are not just background but beautiful partners. They don't just enhance our relationship with the world and each other; they are among the most important relationships we have. They are fellow journeyers in and of themselves.

NOTICE WHAT'S AT THE FRONT OF THE PROTEST MARCH! UU minister Sean Parker Dennison writes, "The ability to see beauty is the beginning of our moral sensibility. What we believe is beautiful we will not wantonly destroy." With this we are reminded that beauty does more than soothe and heal. It demands. It calls. It creates commitment. It doesn't just say "Love and appreciate me." It says "Protect me! Fight for me!" It's steps out in front of us and points to a precious world that needs our help. It paints a picture of new ways of living and declares, "Follow me there!" It's not just the thing that nurtures our activist efforts. It is the reason we take to the streets.

NOTICE YOURSELF! Again, beautiful things are not just objects to be appreciated and adored. They are not pretty things we purchase and possess. They possess us. They are containers for pieces and parts of ourselves. We don't just observe them; we pour ourselves into them. They don't just sit there; they open themselves up and invite us to spill our longings, memories, hopes and hurts into their care. When we observe them, we observe and remember ourselves.

NOTICE WHAT'S BEHIND IT ALL! Our own Ralph Waldo Emerson writes, "The world is not painted or adorned, but is from the beginning beautiful; and God has not made some beautiful things, but Beauty is the creator of the universe." The Quaker theologian Rufus Jones writes, "Beauty has no function, no utility ... It greases no wheels, it bakes no puddings. It is a gift of sheer grace, a gratuitous largesse. It must imply behind things a Spirit that enjoys beauty for its own sake and that floods the world everywhere with it ... Our joy in it shows that we are in some sense kindred to the giver and revealer of it."

Here we are reminded that beauty is not just an elegantly painted portrait. It is also the artistic force of the universe that is constantly painting us. Pulling out the elegance in each of us and the world around us to create the portrait that is life.

So, yes, friends, by all means, get yourselves to the museum this month. Make time to gaze at the color-laced sky on your evening walks in the woods. But let's not forget to also visit the unlikely places and the beauty that awaits us there.

JUNE 2019 SUNDAY SERVICES

OUR THEME IN JUNE EXPLORES
"WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE A PEOPLE OF BEAUTY?"

JUNE 2 "THE BEAUTY OF WHAT IS"

Rev Jonalu Johnstone presents this service. So often, we limit our idea of beauty to what is symmetrical, what is immediately pleasing, what is close to perfection. What if we could find the beauty in what is, even when it is imperfect and transient? We might learn something from the Japanese concept of "wabi sabi." Perhaps, then, we could learn how beauty really is more than skin deep. Our convener is Les Loschky at 785 317-2226 loschky@gmail.com

JUNE 9 "THE BEAUTY OF NATURE"

Rev Jonalu Johnstone presents this SERVICE FOR ALL AGES. UU's often turn to nature for consolation and to understand the lessons of life. With that in mind, we'll recreate the FLOWER CEREMONY, bringing together the rich diversity of flowers and comparing it to the rich diversity of humanity. We'll also see how this ceremony, created and spread by Norbert and Maja Capek, inspires us to higher commitments. Please bring a flower, and you will be invited to take a different one home. Our convener is Terry Hardley at tfregapane@gmail.com.

JUNE 16 "THE BEAUTY OF ART"

Rev Jonalu Johnstone speaks. Art and beauty are not equivalent but they go hand in hand. We cannot consider the beauty of art without recognizing that we have somehow learned particular notions of what is beautiful. What's more, we tend to identify what is beautiful with what is good. But beautiful art may not be good, and good art may not be beautiful. What does the creative process teach us about beauty? Our convener is Christopher Renner at 785 341-9459 or renner1974@gmail.com.

JUNE 23 "HOW DID WE GET HERE?"

EXPLORING CONDITIONS THAT CREATE INEQUITIES"

We welcome Debra Bolton, Director, Intercultural Learning and Academic Success at K-State. Marisa Larson, at 240 305-0895 or marisa.larson@gmail.com, convenes. Following the service, join us as Debra leads a workshop exploring DIVERSITY, INCLUSION, AND INTERCULTURAL LEARNING. More on pages 4 and 7 of this newsletter.

JUNE 30 "THE BEAUTY OF THE RAINBOW:"

CELEBRATING FIFTY YEARS OF PROGRESS SINCE STONEWALL"

Rev Jonalu Johnstone speaks. We are called to protect what we know is beautiful. Fifty years ago this week, a motley collection of people--trans, gay, bisexual and lesbian--joined together to protect themselves. How does beauty inspire the fight for justice? How far have we come? And what's next in the pursuit of beauty and justice? Our convener is Larry Weaver at 785 539-3176 or lweaver@phys.ksu.edu.

UUFM is a
WELCOMING CONGREGATION
 Learn more about the Welcoming Congregation initiative at www.uua.org/lgbtq/welcoming/program

What does UUFM mean to you?

Here are some possible answers (no one of these will be true for everyone, but each is true for someone):

- Place of inspiration and learning about myself and the world
- Place where my children feel comfortable playing and making friends
- Sense of knowing others and being known
- Opportunity to share my gifts and talents
- Others to help multiply my efforts at charity through Helping Hands and Happy Kitchen
- Inspiration of beautiful music
- Social media presence helps me feel connected even when I'm not there
- Network of companions who will offer support in a time of need
- An assurance to my children that our family's values are shared
- My closest friends are here
- Connection to social justice change in Manhattan and Kansas
- High quality, age-appropriate sexuality education (OWL)

For a few weeks in May and June, we are hearing from different people as part of our Sunday morning service about what UUFM means to them and their families. Members have told me that if there were no Unitarian Universalist presence here, they would need to create it. Our members find community, support, inspiration, and education for themselves and their children. More than that, the larger community of Manhattan and surroundings needs our voice to remind everyone of the values of reason, freedom, acceptance and diversity.

We know the worth of this organization, this voluntary group gathered around a single purpose--to promote and nurture our UU principles. And like anything of worth, we have to support it if it is able to continue. One of our goals in the Developmental Ministry program is to support full-time ministry. Several years ago, members decided that full-time ministry was a goal worth pursuing. However, UUFM has not yet made that financially sustainable. Our budget continues to rely too greatly on our reserves, especially if we want to consider other options for space.

Here's the challenge then. Return to the question that begins this column: What does UUFM mean to you?

Whatever your reason for staying connected with UUFM, I hope you will think seriously about the support you offer the congregation in time, talent and treasure.

Jonalu

Talk to Jonalu after most Sunday services, or contact her at revjonalu@uufm.net or 537-2349. Read Jonalu's blog at uufm.net/topic/minister-blog/

SCAMMER ALERT !

The UUA has seen an increase in "phishing" attempts of all kinds. Sometimes, they request money. Other times, they invite the recipient to click a link or open an attachment that can trigger malicious code. A good rule of thumb with emails you're not expecting is to reach out to the sender through another channel (call, text, visit website). Do NOT reply directly to the email, and, do NOT click on a link (or send money, gift cards, etc) without clarifying from the trusted source. To get a better sense of what to look for in unsolicited emails, try this Google Phishing Quiz at <https://phishingquiz.withgoogle.com/>.

TRAVELERS ADVENTURES
IN 2018

Remember: all children must be registered for the 2019-2020 year. Registration forms are available on the RE bulletin board at the end of the hallway as well as online at: <https://form.jotform.com/51486475507160>.

UU WORLD TRAVELERS

We're wrapping up school-year classes and then heading on to the summer program, UU World Travelers. Once again, our students "travel" around the world, learning new skills along the way, without ever leaving Kansas. Every week a new host from the Fellowship takes them on a "tour" of a far-away place, new skill, imaginary or real-life destination.

Do you have a passion you'd like to share? There are still slots open and we'd love to have you join us for a morning. Do you cook? Have you been on a cruise? Contact Sandy Nelson at DRE@uufm.net for details on the summer program.

WEAR ORANGE DAY

Wear Orange Day will brighten the skies above cities across America on Saturday, JUNE 8, to commemorate the victims of gun violence. From <http://wearorange.org>:

"Orange is the color that Hadlya Pendleton's friends wore in her honor when she was shot and killed in Chicago at the age of fifteen, just one week after she performed at President Obama's 2nd inaugural parade in 2013. After her death, they asked us to stand up, speak out, and WEAR ORANGE to raise awareness about gun violence."

The Manhattan Area "Moms Demand Action for Gun Sense in America" will provide Manhattan youth a platform to stand up, speak out, and wear orange on Saturday, JUNE 8, from 8 to 9 pm, at the Riley County Courthouse Plaza.

Youth under 30 interested in presenting a poem, recitation, song, instrumental, painting, drawing, dance, or other art that relates to the impact of gun violence on youth may contact Carl Reed at 785 770-7116 or carl_reed@cox.net. For more information, contact Fellowship member Sarah Bridges at 928 965-3180 or mrssarahbridges@gmail.com.

Talk with Director of Religious Education Sandy Nelson most Sunday mornings before or after the service, or contact her at 341-0135 or DRE@uufm.net.
