OUR SEPTEMBER SOUL MATTERS THEME EXPLORES

EMBRACING POSSIBILITY ...

Of all our themes this year, Embracing Possibility is arguably most central to our faith. It has distinguished Unitarian Universalists from the start. Historically, when others saw depravity and sin at the core of human identity, we saw potential. When many were preaching that this world was fallen, we fell in love with the possibility of heaven on earth. Theologically, you might say we were the people who believed that God hadn't given up on us and so we shouldn't give up on each other or this world. Psychologically, it's led to us being a people of "why not?" Why not give people another chance? Why not fight what seems a losing battle? Why not risk a little failure?

So that's our religion. But what about us personally? How open have you been recently to "Why not?" How's your faith in possibility doing? As we honor our religion's faith in what's possible, we need to allow space for the reality that trusting possibility isn't so easy for many of us. Here's how one Soul Matters member puts the challenge:

"When I think of possibility, I think of all the people and opportunities we close the door on. Such as: 'I will never see eye to eye with my sister.' 'I couldn't possibly leave this job to start my own business.' 'I will never have close friends like I had where I used to live.' 'I will never really make a difference, so why bother?'"

We tell ourselves so many small stories about who we and others are. So many tiny tales of what the world could be. Part of it has to do with real life defeats. But often a bigger part of it is about imagined fear and protecting ourselves. There's comfort in convincing yourself that the effort is hopeless; that way you don't have to try and risk failure, hurt or disappointment, yet again.

All of which is to say that maybe Embracing Possibility has more to do with being a people of vulnerability and courage than we've thought. The work isn't just about believing in possibility. It's about being willing to endure a few wounds along the way. It can hurt to be hopeful.

So maybe the question this month isn't "Are you ready to lean into possibility?" but, "Who's beside you and who are you bringing along?" "Who have you gathered to patch and pick you up when the path gets bumpy?" Whose faith can you lean on when yours grows dim? After all, no one makes it down the road of possibility alone.

And perhaps that's the real secret: remembering that "Why not?" is something we all have to say and sing together. It's not a solo act. For it to sink in--and better yet take flight--it needs to be at least a duet. Of course, a quartet is even better. And just imagine what we might pull off if we can gather a choir, all sin-

SEPTEMBER 5 "ON COMING BACK, STRONG"

Rev Dr Marian Stewart serves the First Unitarian Universalist Church of Columbus, Ohio. It's been a long time coming. We've waited to re-gather in full strength. And now, here we are. On the cusp ... of waiting ... again. Some of us feel angry, others are scared, and most of us are disappointed. Even so, we are resilient. And therein lies our hope, our strength, our grounding. In adaptive and creative ways, we are coming back. Strong. Our convener is Sarah Desmet, at 785 477-7673 or sarah.e.desmet@gmail.com.

SEPTEMBER 12 "STATE OF THE FELLOWSHIP AND ITS POSSIBILITIES"

Board Chair Judy Nickelson will be joined by other Board members to address The Awesome Possibilities we are looking forward to at UUFM. You will learn more about what we face in the near future in ministry, finances, outreach, religious education and other areas of interest. Our convener is Tom Phillips at 405 880-6483 or twp1@ksu.edu.

Following the September 12 service, at about 12 noon, the UUFM Board has called an important CONGREGATIONAL MEETING to present a Board and Ministerial Search Committee recommended ministerial candidate. The congregation will be asked to vote on calling the proposed candidate. Members may attend in person, or on Zoom. Find more information on page 2 of this newsletter.

SEPTEMBER 19 "TO KEEP ALIVE ANOTHER NARRATIVE"

Rev Jill Jarvis of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Lawrence. If Unitarian Universalists are people of faith ... Is "faith" really a belief in that which can't be proven? Yes! It's an acknowledgement of the possibilities that exist, firmly grounded in the experiences of our lives and of human history. We live in the tension of very real polarities: As individuals, we control almost nothing. And everything we do matters to the future of the world. Join us as we explore these incredible possibilities in September's month of the possible. Rob Morrison, at 480 861-1732 or william.robert.morrison@gmail.com, convenes.

SEPTEMBER 26 MUSICALE XX

It's time for our twentieth annual Musicale celebration! Music Director Renea Brown showcases the talents of members and friends, new and familiar. BOARD REPORT, FROM OUR CHAIR JUDY NICKELSON

Our August Board Meeting doubled as our annual Board Retreat. We discussed the updated Human Resources Policy at length, needed to seek some clarification from the UUA, and hope to approve it finally in September.

UUFM finances ended on a high note for fiscal year 20-21 with net income being higher than expected and a good ending balance in cash as well as investments. We paid a bit over $20,000 for the masonry work on the outside of the building in July and we will be replacing the door and the flooring in the Alsop room soon.

During our retreat, we spent some time talking about our personal and board strengths as defined by the Clifton Strengths Assessment. Interestingly, as a group, the Board is very high in strategic thinking skills, good in relationship building, but not so high in executing and influencing skills. But we now know who to call on to follow through with specific tasks.

We spent the rest of our time looking at the possibilities of what our fellowship could be and do in the future, keeping in mind our recent mission and vision statements. I will be bringing you a message from the Board on Sunday, September 12, so plan to tune in or travel to the Fellowship in person that Sunday.

My best to you!

Judy

SOCIAL JUSTICE / ANTI-RACISM RESOURCES

SPECIAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

Board Chair Judy Nickelson shares an important announcement:

The UUFM Board of Directors has called a special congregational meeting for Sunday, SEPTEMBER 12. The meeting will be held at 12 pm, immediately following the Sunday service.

We have a candidate for the open ministerial position at UUFM. Until they have informed their current employer of their intentions, we cannot divulge any more information. But information about the candidate will be released as soon as possible.

Please try to attend this meeting, either in person or on Zoom. It is very important to the life of the Fellowship.

Members are urged to attend and vote at this meeting, and friends are invited to observe the meeting, either in-person at the Fellowship building, or on Zoom.

Members attending in person must sign the sign-in sheet before the meeting begins. Those attending virtually on Zoom, should go to uufm.net/calendar/congregational-mtg-6/ to find links to on-line sign-in, and the meeting, which will be at our usual Sunday morning service link.

AFGHAN REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT EFFORT

There is a community-wide effort to help resettle the Afghan refugees coming to Manhattan. We don't know when or how many for sure but they will need everything to set up housekeeping as they come with nothing. If you have something to donate, or can pledge some financial help, or provide any other service, please fill out this form, at <https://forms.gle/yJmEbsiWqmskbknG8>

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

SEPTEMBER RE

THE FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL HAS COME AND GONE. With the new school year, new joys and worries have likely arrived as well. As the Religious Education leader for our UU community, I'd like your input on how to navigate the path ahead for the coming weeks, months, year ...

Basically, I'm looking for information on what your family needs and wants in its RE program. Our options are many: in-person RE, online RE, at-home RE packets/projects, non-Sunday gathering, Youth Group, OWL class, parent night out, parent day out ... You get the picture.

I've heard that it's impossible to be all things for all people, but I'd sure like to try to be all that is possible.

Please complete the short survey at:

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/151IA3aX0xO4podQ18cSlyV_oUzZHDriJ_MkP41w_AyA/edit and help create our path together.

Thank you, Sandy
