

OUR MAY SOUL MATTERS THEME EXPLORES NURTURING BEAUTY ...

Beauty.
We appreciate it.
How could we not?
We wonder at it.
Get absorbed in it.
Analyze it, if it's got a frame around it.

We make it.
Grow it.
Point at it.
Collect it.
Share it.
Save it.

But how often do we listen to it?
How often do we ask, "What is it trying to get me to hear?"
Rather than, "Do I like it or not?"

It's just so hard to step outside our mangled view of the world that sees everything in the light of consumption.
Not everything is here for our possession.
Not everything is here to entertain us.
Not everything is meant to be put to use, even you.

We must find our way back,
to those questions that were once alive
but now are buried deep:
"What if beauty is here to make us wise?"
"What if beauty is the way the sacred speaks?"

Yes! Yes! It does so much more than decorate.
It demands. It calls. It asks for commitment.
It doesn't just say "Love and appreciate me."

It says "Protect me! Fight for me!"
It steps out in front of us and points to a precious world that needs our help.
It paints a picture of new ways of living and declares, "Follow me there!"

It says, "Even in hell holes I find a way to grow."
It sings, "This world was made for more than work."
It whispers, "Use me to heal."

It pleads, "Nurture a new relationship with me. One that allows me to talk!"

So, what is it saying to you?

MAY 2022 SUNDAY SERVICES

OUR SOUL MATTERS THEME IN MAY EXPLORES
NURTURING BEAUTY

MAY 1 "DANCING THROUGH THE REVOLUTION"

Let's wake up and not sleep through the revolution! But it doesn't have to be a battle. Instead, let's think of the revolution as a dance, and learn to take our turn leading and following. Pastor Isabel Call speaks. Our convener is Dick Beeman.

MAY 8 "MOMS ARE PEOPLE TOO"

Today we'll honor not just the beauty but the humanity of moms, with thoughtful remembrances by several of our members. Pastor Isabel and Ana Franklin guide this service.

MAY 15 "NURTURING BEAUTY BY REIMAGINING DEATH"

We reimagine the choices available to us when someone dies with Sara Crews. By reclaiming the tradition of caring for our own loved ones at death in creative, life affirming, and ecologically sustainable ways, we participate in a final act of love for the departed and a first step toward healing. Our convener is Tom Phillips.

MAY 22 "ISLAMIC PERSPECTIVE"

The Lord's Prayer and the Al-Fatiha: these two prayers are common supplications in Christianity and Islam, respectively. Through poetry, Aisha Sharif explores how these two prayers connect, allowing a deeper understanding of how people of different faiths can unite and, ultimately, together, access the divine. Our convener is Marisa Larson.

MAY 29 "BUILDING THE BELOVED COMMUNITY IN THE FLINT HILLS"

Manhattan Area Habitat for Humanity Director Josh Brewer speaks. Habitat for Humanity is committed to building Dr King's Beloved Community here in the Flint Hills of Kansas. Dr King gave us a blueprint for that building bridges between communities, paths to opportunity, and stability through shelter. As we join together, we will explore how to use that blueprint to build homes, community and hope. Our convener is Katie Kingery-Page.

HIGH-QUALITY MASKS, SUCH AS A KN95 OR N95, ARE REQUIRED
in the Fellowship building for everyone age 4 and older, regardless of vaccination status.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

I've been with you all now for six months and I'm feeling like I'm getting to know you! From Sunday Services, Action Wednesday, and one-on-one conversations, I'm learning your stories, your hopes, your dreams, and ... your names! I know a lot of people dread it, but I personally enjoy the cognitive challenge of recollecting people's names ... especially in a community where there is so much patience and grace if I come up with the wrong name, or no name at all.

I've also been learning your names for me. I personally like "Pastor Isa" (pronounced Izza), because of the rhythm--I've never used a nickname, but "Pastor Isabel" is a mouthful. When I arrived, I offered other options: Dr. Isa, Isabel, or some variation. Variations are pretty common. Some people pronounce it with an "ee" like Pastor Easter Bunny or with a hard

"I" like Pastor Ice Cream. Some people just call me Isa, with a range of pronunciations, which I wasn't expecting. And several people are tentative when it comes to saying my name, as if they're unsure of how to do it, even though we talk together pretty often.

When I was ordained, my mentor explained that although people use "Reverend" as a title for ordained ministers, it's actually an honorific. Since then, I've been curious about what it feels like when I call a colleague "Rev. So-and-so." I've noticed that by offering them my reverence, I also give myself and the other people around me more respect. I appreciate and welcome being called "Rev. Call," but I typically don't refer to myself that way. I intentionally gave you other options in case reverence is not the default posture you want to take in relation to me.

I think of myself as "Pastor" because it's descriptive of my key role here: to support and care for you. My goal is for every facet of my ministry to be a form of pastoral care: listening compassionately, reflecting back what I'm hearing and seeing, connecting and healing even through mundane tasks. This is a spiritual practice and a form of reverence. I appreciate when you use a designator like Pastor because it reminds me of my responsibility and my capacity to hold space for you and the community. I introduce myself as Pastor Isabel Call and sign my notes Pastor Isa primarily to remind myself of who I am called to be here.

Growing up, I called my parents' siblings by their first names, copying my parents. I always felt awkward using the word "Aunt" or "Uncle" in front of their names. But more recently I've started doing it out of respect for their life experience and joy in having them in my life. I've also gotten more intentional about calling doctors "Dr. So-and-so," because it reminds me of their professional training and invites me to trust in their care. Especially now that more of our professional helpers are young women, I think it's important to convey the same respect that men in those positions have always received.

I'm sharing these notes to keep the conversation alive and to invite you into continued reflection. Words matter. Choosing them can be a spiritual practice. Feel free to try it out on me.

With gratitude,

Pastor Isa

BOARD REPORT – APRIL 2022, JUDY NICKELSON, BOARD CHAIR

Thank you to all who participated in the UUFM Annual Congregational Meeting on Sunday, April 10. We elected Emily Fraser as Chair-Elect for 2022-23. Dan Swenson was elected to a second term as Treasurer, and Ruddy Benavides was elected to her first full term as member-at-large.

We approved a budget for 2022-23 of $192,341. We appreciate all your help in funding the budget over the coming year. Pledge cards will be sent out soon.

Some rather lengthy committee reports were given at the meeting. There are links to the reports in the minutes of the Annual Meeting, at tinyurl.com/AnnualMtgMinutes2022. The new budget can be seen in the Treasurer's report, at tinyurl.com/TreasurersReport2022.

The Board met on Tuesday, April 12. After debriefing the Annual Meeting, we agreed to streamline the structure of the meeting and to utilize two alternative ways to get information from committees to the congregation. The agreements are as follows and will be implemented in the coming year.

- At the Annual Meeting committee chairs present a 2-minute (no longer) report on one PowerPoint slide. Their full reports will be submitted and made available to all.
- Direct staff to safely improve communications channels so that information about teams, the board, church business and meeting minutes are more accessible.
- Direct Sunday Services to invite committee chairs to participate in Sunday Services planning at least once a year.

We have appointed delegates to represent you at both the UUA regional and national annual meetings.

Emily Fraser will represent UUFM at the UUA General Assembly, June 22 - 26. We need two more delegates! If you are interested, please get in touch with Pastor Isabel or one of the Board members.

Judy Nickelson, Emily Fraser, and Betty Banner represent UUFM at the MidAmerica Regional Assembly on April 30.

INVASIVE SPECIES REMOVAL AT UUFM

A REPORT FROM AMELIA RICHTER

This event, held on March 6 and March 12 at UUFM, was a partnership between Ecumenical Campus Ministry (ECM) and the UUFM Grounds Committee.

ABOUT ECM: ECM believes individuals in a community are not required to believe or act the same way.

Programming at ECM builds off of that ethos by centering students' passions and questions. Students are involved as participants, leaders, teachers, and program designers. Learn more at www.ecmatkstate.org

INVASIVE SPECIES REMOVAL: The invasive species removal project was a part of ECM's biannual Sustainability Retreat, a 3-day long dive into what it means to care for ourselves, our communities, and the Earth ... projects have often been included in the retreat as a way to learn in action. The Invasive Species Removal was one such project. Learn more about ECM's Sustainability Retreat at www.ecmatkstate.org/sustainability-retreat.html.

SHOUT-OUTS: The ECM Sustainability Retreat is organized and envisioned by an incredible team of students. The retreat wouldn't be possible without their bold vision and vibrant passion. The UUFM Grounds Committee was essential for coordinating this project and Grounds Committee chair Mark Mayfield graciously shared his plant wisdom with the students.

The students removed large amounts of persistent non-native plants from UUFM grounds including a great deal of invasive honeysuckle.

We will be loading and hauling away these piles, along with other maintenance and cleaning projects at UUFM's annual SPRING WORK DAY, on Saturday, May 14, beginning at 9 am. Join us to care for our shared building and grounds. Learn more from Facilities chair Lindsay Smith at 785 776-9224 or lindsaysmith1959@gmail.com.
